

Assistant-Surgeon William Forrester Bow, half-pay 77th Foot.

Lieutenant Alexander Fettes, half-pay 14th Light Dragoons.

The under-mentioned Officers, upon half-pay, have also been allowed to retire from the Service, receiving commuted allowances for their commissions:

Quartermaster Thomas Coleman, 65th Foot.

Quartermaster William Minchin, 53d Foot.

Assistant-Surgeon Richard Noble Starr, 95th Foot.

Quartermaster James McCabe, 36th Foot.

Whitehall, September 27, 1830.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed William Flesher, of the town of Northampton, in the county of Northampton, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, October 18, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Monday the 11th day of October instant, between the hours of eleven and twelve, a wheat stack, situate in a farm called Lowlands, in the parish of Hadlow, near Tunbridge, in the county of Kent, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire and entirely consumed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stack) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by Mr. Thomas Carnell, Solicitor, Town Malling.

Whitehall, October 26, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, early on the morning of Friday the 22d day of October instant, a farmhouse, stable, and several out-buildings, together with a barn, containing a quantity of wheat, the property of Mr. Knight, of Borden, near Sittingbourne, in the county of Kent, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire and destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

bringing to justice the persons concerned in the
felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

ROBERT PEEL.

NOTICE.

Paymaster-General's Office, October 25, 1830.

PARLIAMENT having sanctioned an arrangement, by which the military year is henceforward to terminate with the calendar year; notice is hereby given, that the next issue of half-pay, military allowances, widows' pensions, &c. &c. to be made from this Office will be for 98 days, from 25th September to 31st December 1830, instead of as heretofore, 91 days to 24th December; and in future, the periods for making the regular quarterly payments for all the said services, will be from 1st January to 31st March, from 1st April to 30th June, from 1st July to 30th September, and from 1st October to 31st December in each year (instead of the former quarterly periods terminating on the 24th March, 24th June, 24th September, and 24th December); and all persons entitled to claim any of the said allowances of half-pay, pensions, &c. are to be careful that their affidavits are made out and sworn in strict conformity to the above regulation.

Terrick Haultain, Accountant.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill and to obtain an Act, to authorise and enable the Trustees of the Surrey and Sussex Roads (acting in the execution of an Act, passed in the ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually amending the road leading from the Stone's End, in Blackman-street, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, to Highgate, in the county of Sussex, and several other roads therein mentioned, and for other purposes relating thereto,") to pay off and discharge any debt, sum or sums of money, already charged and secured, or that may be charged and secured, with interest, upon the tolls of the said roads, or such part or parts of the said debt, sum or sums of money, as the Trustees may at any time or times think proper; and for that purpose, from time to time, or at any time or times, to borrow and take up at interest, and to charge on the security of the tolls, any sum or sums of money at such rate of interest, upon such terms, and in such manner, as the Trustees may deem proper or advisable, with all powers, provisions, enactments, authorities, and regulations necessary and expedient for the purposes aforesaid; which said several roads pass from, through, and
