FRIDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1830.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, October 28, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday next the 3d of November, and on the following Wednesday (the 10th of November), each day at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE KING'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend the Levee to be held on Wednesday next the 3d of November, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock on Monday next the 1st of November, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation, it being His Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levee, but in conformity with the above regulations.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levee, on Wednesday the 10th of November next, are to send their names to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, according to the above regulations, before twelve o'clock on Monday the 8th of November.

Lord Great Chamberlain's-Office, House of Lords, October 29, 1830.

ALL persons desirous of being present on the occasion of His Majesty opening Parliament, on Tuesday the 2d of November, are requested to make application at this Office, between the hours of eleven and five o'clock, on Saturday the 29th instant, and on Monday the 1st of November.

Peeresses, on announcing their intention, within the time above specified, of being present on this occasion, will have places reserved for them in the House of Lords.

No stranger will be admitted, except by a ticket subscribed by the Deputy Great Chamberlain.

No Lady can be admitted into the body of the House, except in full dress.

The doors will not be open before twelve o'clock.

St. James's-Palace, October 27, 1830.

THIS day the Lord Mayor of the City of Dublin, with a Deputation from that City, waited upon His Majesty to present to His Majesty the following

Address, which His Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of your Majesty's antient and loyal city of Dublin, approach your Majesty with every sentiment of respect and veneration.

We join in the universal sympathy of the nation, and cordially condole with your Majesty upon the severe affliction which has befallen your Majesty, in common with all classes of society, in the death of our late revered and beloved Monarch. His Majesty governed the United Kingdom during one of the most eventful and brilliant periods of British History. He entered upon his high functions amidst the glories of a war which has established this empire in the highest rank of nations; a long and salutary peace shed a milder lustre upon his latter years, and now that he hath finished his course of earthly splendour, we trust in the mercy of Almighty God that he has through a Saviour's merits exchanged his temporal Crown for one eternal in the heavens.

We beseech your Majesty to accept our most dutiful congratulations upon your auspicious accession to the Throne of these Realms; we have to assure your Majesty that we carefully cherish the principles of attachment and fidelity to the Royal Person, Crown, and Dignity which have from time immemorial distinguished our Corporation, and entirely confiding, Sire, in your Majesty's most gracious declaration, that you will maintain the reformed religion established by law, and protect the rights and liberties of your subjects; we earnestly pray the King of Kings to grant your Majesty health and long life to reign over an enlightened, a free, and a happy people.

In testimony whereof, we have caused the common seal of said city to be hereunto affixed, this 23d day of July 1830.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

"I return you my cordial thanks for this loyal and dutiful Address.

"The justice which it renders to the memory of the late King, my lamented Brother, and the assurance which it conveys of affectionate attachment to my Person and Government, are most gratifying to my feelings.

"Be assured that I will scrupulously fulfil the sacred engagements into which I entered on my accession to the Throne, and that my anxious endeavours are unceasingly directed to promote the happiness of all parts of my Dominions, and of all classes of my subjects.

"I know that my faithful city of Dublin, conspicuous at all times for its loyalty, will second my efforts to promote the strength, the prosperity, and the concord of the United Kingdom."

St. James's-Palace, October 27, 1830.

THIS day the Reverend Dr. Singer, Moderator; the Reverend Dr. Macknight, of Edinburgh; the Reverend Dr. Cook, of St. Andrew's; the Reverend Dr. Lee, of Edinburgh; the Reverend Dr. Chalmers, of Edinburgh; Sir John Connel, Advocate, Procurator for the Church; Sir Henry Jardine, of the Exchequer, Edinburgh; George Sinclair, Esq. younger, of Ulbster; William Paul, Esq.; the Duke of Gordon; and John J. Hope Johnstone, Esq. of Annandale; waited upon His Majesty, to present to His Majesty the following Address from the Ministers and Elders of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, which His Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, met in the Commission, beg leave, with every sentiment of high respect and warm attachment, to condole with your Majesty on the lamented death of our late illustrious and beloved Sovereign; an event which has placed these United Kingdoms in the deepest mourning, and has also drawn forth warm regret and sympathy from other Nations.

Looking back on the memorable and splendid events of the late reign, on the wisdom and firmness, under very trying circumstances, for which it will long continue to be distinguished, together with the love of moderation and peace which was eminently conspicuous down to its close; we also cordially cherish the recollection of our late Sovereign's respect for, and of his gracious bounty towards, the religious institutions of his kingdom; his munificent patronage of science and literature, and of the arts, which have thrown a lustre over his reign; and the fervency of those prayers which were put up for a life so precious and so endeared to his people during his last sufferings. While we desire humbly to submit to the unerring will of God, we now beg leave to present our warmest and most respectful congratulations on the accession of your Majesty to the Throne of these kingdoms. We are grateful to God for his goodness to this highly-favoured and great nation, in raising up a Sovereign whose avowed and declared purposes are in such perfect accordance with the dearest wishes and best interests of his people; as well as with the mild paternal spirit of that government which, under your Majesty's revered ancestors, has been so greatly blessed to these united kingdoms. We cannot think without profound veneration of that race of Princes, who have long swayed the sceptre of these realms on principles friendly to civil and religious liberty, and who have been the constitutional supporters, and the conscientious defenders of the Protestant reformed Churches established by law, not merely as bulwarks for the support of the Throne, but also for the maintenance of the high interests of true religion, associated with that righteousness which exalteth a nation.

Cordially attached as we are, and as the Church of Scotland which we represent has ever been, to your Majesty's revered illustrious House, and fully relying on that solemn constitutional pledge which your Majesty has been pleased to give, for maintaining inviolably the rights and privileges of the Church of Scotland, and the invaluable blessings of the Protestant faith in these United Kingdoms; we will perform with delight that high duty, which we deem sacred, of cherishing in the hearts of an enlightened and religious people, a spirit of respect and loyalty towards your Majesty, and of grateful attachment to your Royal House.

That the God and Father of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ may long preserve and abundantly bless your Majesty's life and reign, and that the divine grace and blessing may rest on the head of your Royal Consort, the Queen, whom Providence hath given to afford a pattern of every conjugal and princely virtue; also, that the blessings of heaven may descend on all the Members of the Royal Family, is the united, most fervent, and affectionate prayer of your Majesty's most faithful, most loyal, and dutiful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in name and presence, and by appointment of the Commission of the Church, by William Singer, Moderator.

Edinburgh, August 11, 1830.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

"I thank you for this loyal and dutiful Address, condoling with me on the demise of my lamented Brother, and congratulating me on my accession to the Throne of my Ancestors.

"Be assured of my determination to maintain your National Church in the possession of all its rights and privileges.

"I regard that Church as one of the great defences of religion and of religious liberty, and I well know the zeal by which its Ministers are actuated in the discharge of their spiritual duties, and in inculcating on the minds of those committed to their charge the principles of obedience to the laws and loyalty to the Throne.

"I shall perform a duty most gratifying to my feelings by scrupulously observing the solemn engagement into which I have entered, to protect and support the Church of Scotland."

Whitehall, October 29, 1830.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir Robert Peel, Bart. one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To His Most Excellent Majesty KING WILLIAM the FOURTH.

WE, the High Sheriff and Inhabitants of the County of Cardigan, most respectfully approach your Majesty with our sincere condolence on the loss your Majesty and the Nation have lately sustained, in the demise of our late revered Sovereign George the Fourth, a Monarch who so long and wisely governed these realms. Our regrets on the death of our much lamented Sovereign have been ameliorated by the accession to the Throne of your Ancestors of a Prince so firmly attached to this his native country as your Majesty, brought up in those principles which have so firmly seated your Family on the Throne, and endeared them to the people they reigned over.

We beg to offer your Majesty on this event our most dutiful congratulations, with an assurance that amongst your Majesty's subjects, none will be found to yield more explicit and cheerful obedience, none to uphold your just prerogatives with more zeal, none to evince a more anxious desire that your Majesty's reign may be happy and glorious, than the inhabitants of this county; at the same time we assure your Majesty, that our joy is brightened with a belief that your Royal Consort, Queen Adelaide, is endowed with those virtues, and possessed of those accomplishments, truly calculated to increase the prosperity of the country; and that she will exercise her benevolence and philanthropy, in conjunction with your Majesty's truly English feelings and habits, so as to increase the blessings of contentment and prosperity to an industrious and free people.

We, your Majesty's faithful and loyal people, earnestly pray that your reign may, with the blessings of God, be one continued scene of peace and happiness; and that your Majesty, in union with your Royal Consort, may ever receive the spontaneous homage and love in the hearts of a prosperous and contented people.

To His Most Gracious Majesty WILLIAM the FOURTH, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING, Defender of the Faith, &c. &c. &c.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Provincial Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free, and Accepted Masons of the Western Division of the County of Lancaster, in Annual Provincial Grand Lodge assembled, at the Adelphi Hotel, Liverpool, the 14th day of September A. D. 1830, A. L. 5834.

May it please your Majesty,

WE respectfully beg leave to assure you, Sire, of our sincere condolence at the afflicting dispensation of the Great Architect of the Universe, by which, in his inscrutable wisdom, he has seen fit to bereave your Majesty and your illustrious House, of a beloved Brother, the Nation at large of a gracious and paternal Monarch, and our Order of a kind and beneficent Patron, by the decease of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, whose memory cannot fail to be fondly cherished and revered by all classes of your Majesty's subjects, but by none more unfeignedly than by our Order, over which he so graciously presided, and which he patronised for so many years. Having expressed these sentiments, we crave permission to offer to your Majesty our cordial congratulations on your accession to the Throne of these Realms, fully persuaded from our knowledge of your Majesty's character, that you will sway the Sceptre with dignity and honour, blended with the just and merciful administration of the laws, and with a paternal solicitude for the promotion of the welfare and happiness of all classes of your Majesty's devoted, loyal, and affectionate subjects; ever anxious to exalt the glory of the nation, and to promote the interests of its agriculture, commerce, and manufactures. As your revered Predecessor was so many years the gracious Patron of our ancient Institution, which inculcates with the soundest principles of morality and benevolence, those of loyalty and attachment to the Throne, we desire to express our gratitude to your Majesty for having deigned to become the Patron of our Order, and to extend over the Craft the ægis of your Royal countenance and protection. In conclusion, we pray that your Majesty's valuable life may be spared many years to rule over a free and contented people, in health, happiness, and prosperity, in the society of your august and amiable Consort; and when it shall please the Most High to terminate your terrestrial reign, may He, in His infinite mercy, bestow upon your Majesty, and your illustrious partner, crowns of glory, eternal in the heavens.

To His Sacred Majesty WILLIAM the FOURTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING, Defender of the Faith, &c.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Free and Accepted Masons of the Province of the West Riding of the County of York, in Provincial Grand Lodge assembled, beg leave humbly to approach your Majesty with the expression of our heartfelt condolence on the heavy loss your Majesty, the Kingdom, and the sacred Craft, have sustained by the lamented death of your Majesty's beloved Brother, our late Sovereign, and the Royal Patron of our ancient and honourable Order.

At the same time graciously allow us to present to your Majesty our loyal and sincere congratulations on your Majesty's happy succession to the Throne of your Ancestors. Long may the Power that rules the Universe preserve your Majesty in health and vigour to sit on that Throne, to bless the Nation with peace, and to extend your Royal patronage and protection to the Free and Accepted Masons of your extensive Empire.

To His Most Gracious Majesty KING WILLIAM the FOURTH.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Free and Accepted Masons of the Town and County of Nottingham.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful subjects, the Free and Accepted Masons of the Town and County of Nottingham, in Provincial Grand Lodge duly assembled, desire to approach your Majesty with assurances of our sincere condolence in your Majesty's recent affliction, under the late dispensation of Divine Providence, which has deprived your Majesty of an illustrious and beloved Relative, and ourselves of the steady Patron of our ancient Order.

We further desire to present to your Majesty our heartfelt congratulations on your accession to the Throne of this United Kingdom. Deeply impressed with those principles of social order, charity, and universal benevolence, inculcated by our ancient Institution, and on which it rests its foundation, we hail with genuine satisfaction those fair prospects of national prosperity which the eye delights to rest on, while contemplating in bright perspective the blessings of your Majesty's reign. We fervently pray for its long and prosperous continuance, and that the affections of your people, on which your Majesty so wisely relies, as the strongest and most legitimate bulwark of the Throne, may ever, as now, hail in accents of joy, the name of their Constitutional Sovereign.

We assure your Majesty that, however fervent may be the feelings of every class of your subjects on this auspicious occasion, there are none more zealously attached to your Person, or more ready at all times to manifest that attachment, than the Free and Accepted Masons of the Province of Nottinghamshire.

On behalf of the Provincial Grand Lodge,
Thomas Wildman, Provincial Grand Master for Nottinghamshire.

Brighton-Palace, October 22, 1830.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to Earl Howe, Her Majesty's Chamberlain, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were this day presented by his Lordship to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Inhabitants of the antient and loyal Town of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, beg leave humbly and dutifully to offer our most cordial and sincere congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of this kingdom as Queen Consort.

That your Majesty's reign may be long and happy is the earnest wish and prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and devoted servants, who hail with joy the auspicious event of having the felicity of a Queen to set an example of female virtue and conjugal affection to His Majesty's most devoted subjects.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and faithful subjects, the Chief Officers, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the antient Borough of Lewes, in the county of Sussex, in our Town-hall this day assembled, most respectfully approach your Majesty with our heartfelt and affectionate congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne and arrival in this county; and we beg to assure your Majesty, that although we have not been honoured with your Majesty's august presence, yet our dutiful and affectionate attachment to your Majesty is not exceeded by any class of His Majesty's subjects.

Deign then, illustrious Queen, to accept our earnest wishes for your welfare and happiness; and believe that none more highly appreciate those domestic virtues which are so eminently displayed by your Majesty, and which command the admiration and respect of the nation.

Given under the common seal of the said Borough, and signed by the Chief Officers, on behalf of themselves and the other Inhabitants,

B. Ridge, Geo. Bailey, Chief Officers.

[Transmitted by B. Ridge and G. Bailey, Esqrs. the Chief Officers.]

To Her Most Gracious Majesty the QUEEN.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the antient Town and Borough of Ipswich, beg leave most respectfully to approach your Majesty with an assurance of the unfeigned joy with which we hail the accession of a Sovereign to these realms who is blessed with a Queen, possessing such pre-eminent graces and virtues as those which distinguish your Majesty's illustrious character.

Before your Majesty occupied the exalted station which you now fill, the amiable qualities of your mind, and the benevolence of your heart had endeared you to the affections of this great nation; and we joyfully avail ourselves of the opportunity now afforded us, respectfully to make known the sentiments which we have ever entertained towards your Majesty since your alliance with your illustrious Consort.

That it may please the Almighty Disposer of events long to preserve your Majesty in health and happiness, a comfort to our august Sovereign, and a blessing to the Nation, is the fervent prayer of His Majesty's dutiful and faithful subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the said Town and Borough, in Great Court assembled.

[Transmitted by Charles Mackinnon, Esq. M. P.]

To Her Most Gracious Majesty ADELAIDE, QUEEN CONSORT of His Majesty WILLIAM the FOURTH, KING of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c.

Madam,

WE, the Members of the "Ladies Society for Manchester and its Neighbourhood, in aid of the cause of Negro Emancipation," respectfully approach your Majesty with sincere congratulations on your accession to the Throne of these realms as Queen Consort.

Ardently attached to your Majesty and to our beloved Monarch, we are truly thankful to Almighty God for having raised up a King whose delight is in his people; and for having endowed your Majesty with those excellencies which so pre-eminently qualify your Majesty to promote the happiness of our Sovereign and his people.

Participating by birthright in all the privileges of our excellent Constitution, protected equally from insult and injury by wise and salutary laws, the character of British Women is conspicuously raised. As wives and daughters, being the companions and not the slaves of men, with affections reciprocal and free, and possessing an influence in society unseen yet acknowledged, we feel ourselves involved in a more than common share of moral responsibility.

We would not unnecessarily excite painful feelings in your Majesty's benevolent mind, but we deem it our duty to implore the attention of your Majesty to the sufferings of the injured Africans and their degraded offspring. As British subjects, and as the professed disciples of Him who said, "Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy;" and taught by our religion, that "righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people;" we cannot but regard the state of our slave colonies, and the condition of their population, with shame, horror, and dismay. Nearly one million of our fellow creatures, possessing immortal souls, enslaved for no crime, are oppressed with worse than Egyptian bondage, rated as chattels, driven as beasts, branded as criminals. Females, wives, and mothers, writhe beneath the lash of their cruel task-masters; children are torn from their parents, wives from their husbands, while the tie of conjugal affection, and the piteous cries of the children avail not with their oppressors. Thus, beings formed of the same blood as ourselves, exposed to the same infirmities of human nature, affected by the same fears, susceptible of the same hopes, redeemed by the same Saviour, and destined to the same eternity of blessedness or woe, are denied by men, bearing the Christian name, the common sympathies of life and the consolations of religion.

We will not disguise from your Majesty, that slavery is an accursed thing, which, so long as it continues, must render this country highly criminal in the sight of a righteous God, and is a stain on the national character of the deepest dye.

Our earnest prayer is, that God will influence the heart of His Majesty to take into his consideration the immediate abolition of slavery throughout his ample dominions.

Presuming on your Majesty's known condescension, we have ventured to solicit your Majesty's attention to the cause of suffering humanity; humbly beseeching your Majesty to present the prayer of this our address to our Gracious Sovereign, that it may obtain his favourable regard.

Commending your Majesty and our beloved Sovereign to the protection and love of Almighty God, in the name, and in accordance with the feelings of our whole Society, with profound humility and respect, we are, Madam, your Majesty's affectionate and devoted servants,

Mary Shepherd, Mary Crewdson, Frances Langston, Secretaries.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Copartnership lately subsisting between us the undersigned, as Merchants, in the City of London, trading under the firm of James, Atlee, and Co. was this day dissolved by mutual consent.—Dated this 22d day of October 1830.

*John James.
Jno. Atlee.*

Excellent Liquor-Shop and Public-House,

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Bell, at Garraway's Coffee-House, 'Change-Ailey, Cornhill, on Thursday the 4th of November, at Twelve o'Clock (by an Order of the Vice-Chancellor, and before the Commissioners in William John Ward's Bankruptcy);

The valuable lease of those well arranged modern-fronted premises, in Grove-Lane, Lower-Road, Deptford, known by the sign of the Duke of York;

To be viewed, and particulars had on the premises; at Mr. Shenton's, Turk's-Head, Kent-Road; of Messrs. Aldridge and Colley Smith, Solicitors, Lincoln'-Inn New-Square; of Messrs. Borradaile and Ashmore, King's-Arms-Yard, Coleman-Street; at Garraway's; and of the Auctioneer, No. 10, Oxford-Street.

WOODFOLD PARK, LANCASHIRE.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Hopwood, (before the major part of the Commissioners named in a Commission of Bankruptcy, issued against Henry Sudell, late of Woodfold Park, Merchant), at the Hotel, in Blackburn, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, of Thursday the 18th day of November 1830, in the following or such other lots as may be agreed upon at the time of sale, and subject to such conditions which will be then produced;

Lot 1. Wood Farm and gardens, comprising a farm house, with suitable outbuildings, and several closes of arable, meadow and pasture land belonging to and occupied with the same; the White House, commonly called the Shooter's House, all in the possession of Roger Haydock; the gardens, with the hot-houses conservatory, &c. &c. in the occupation of William Bunnett, Gardener, and the wood land and plantations in hand.

N. B. The gardens are those which have been enjoyed with the mansion at Woodfold, and are abundantly stocked with wall, and other fruit trees, &c.

The pine stoves, vine, peach, and other hot-houses are furnished with valuable plants.

This lot includes the White House, commonly called the Fishing-House, or Shooter's-Box, which, standing on the margin of an artificial sheet of water (forming part of this lot), commands a rich view of the country extending to the sea coast. This building might be converted into an agreeable residence.

Much of the timber in this lot is healthy oak of large dimensions, suitable for ship-builders, &c. The plantations, which are of many years growth, are in a flourishing condition.

A right of way will be reserved over the present carriage-road within this lot, in favour of the occupiers, for the time being, of certain lands, situated to the north of Arley Brook, as will be specified in the conditions.

Lot 2. Lumb-Bank Farm, consisting of a farm-house, with suitable outbuildings, the handsome lodge and gateway at the south entrance of the park, and the undermentioned closes of meadow and pasture land, late in the occupation of James Pearson, deceased, and of the undermentioned wood land and plantations, in hand.

A right of way will be reserved over the present carriage road within this lot, in favour of the occupiers for the time being of lot 1, and of certain lands situated to the north of Arley Brook, as will be specified in the conditions of sale.

Woodfold Park is distant about three miles from Blackburn, and eight from Preston. The land is of superior quality, and presents delightful situations for country houses, being enriched and sheltered with a profusion of well-grown timber, and ornamental plantations, and commanding views of great extent, variety, and beauty. The farm-buildings are commodious and substantial. There is good stone within the estate. The poor rates are moderate. The land tax is redeemed. The property is freehold of inheritance, part in the possession of respectable tenants from year to year, and the remainder in hand, and tithe free.

The respective tenants will shew the premises, and plans may be seen on application to Messrs. Barrett, Ridgway and Say, of Manchester, Solicitors to the Mortgagees of the property; from Messrs. Neville and Eccles, of Blackburn, Solicitors to the Assignees; from Mr. George Radcliffe, Land-Agent, Witton; and at the place of sale.
