

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday November 1. to Monday November 5. 1683.

Whitehall, November 3.

The following Addressees have been presented to His Majesty, who received them very graciously.

The humble Address of the Bayliff, Recorder, Capital and Inferior Burgeses, and also the Grand-Fury of Your Majesties Ancient Borough of Bergevenny, at the General Sessions of the Peace held for the said Borough the Eighth day of October, Anno Regij Regis Caroli secundi nunc Angliæ, &c. xxxv. Annoq; Dom. 1683.

Dread Sovereign,

WE Your Majesties most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, seriously reflecting on the exceeding great Felicity, which we and all Your Majesties People have enjoyed (ever since Your Majesties most happy Restauration) by Your Majesties most gracious Reign over us; cannot hear, without Amazement and Abhorreny, that a Traiterous and bloody Conspiracy hath been plotted and contrived against the Life of Your Sacred Majesty, and the Life of your Dearest Brother, James, Duke of York; We cannot without Astonishment but admire, and with hearts and hands lifted up, must praise the goodness of Heaven, for the timely and happy discovery of so Impious and horrid a Machination; which (had it succeeded) must of necessity have involved the whole Nation in Confusion, Blood, and Ruine. We shall therefore humbly make incessant Prayers to the great God of Heaven, the Protector of Kings, that He will be pleased, of his Infinite Wisdom, to continue His Mercies to us, by being always propitious to Your Majesty in all Your undertakings; And we humbly beseech Your Majesty to give us leave to add this further Assurance, That we are all unanimously resolved to stand by and defend Your Sacred Majesty, Your Heirs and Lawful Successors, to the last extremity of our Lives and Fortunes, and all that is dearest unto us, against all Fanatical Rebels, Traitors and Conspirators whatsoever. The which we shall at all times, and upon all occasions, be in the greatest readines to perform, as holding it our bounden Duty in all Emergencies, and upon all Opportunities, to shew our selves.

Dread Sir,

Your Majesties most Loyal, most Dutiful and most Obedient Subjects.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Young men of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, the Third day of September, 1683.

Great Sir,

OUR obscure and private Condition makes us Strangers to the Majesty of Kings, and the Sacredness of their Persons, possesseth us with an awful Fear, to offend their Greatness; But like the dumb Son of Cræsus, when our Sovereign hath been in danger of Assassination, we must cry out against the Horridness of the Attempt, and return our Thanks to Almighty God for delivering Your Sacred Majesty and Royal Brother, from the wicked Conspiracy told us in Your gracious Declaration, the Horror whereof fills our minds with Detestation of all Fanatical and Diabolical Plots of Inhumane Villains, void of Piety and Morality, whose Treasons are direct Affronts to the Omnipotent, who is the Guardian of His Vicegerent.

We blush to read the Records which attest Your God-like Father's being by Usurped Power deny'd Entrance into this his own Town, which fatal action drew the greatest trains of Miseries after it: We, though then unborn, lament the wickedness thereof; and present our just Abhorrence of all Designs against Your Majesties Person and Government: And now offer the first Fruits of our Lives, with all our powers to defend Your Majesty and Government against all Associating Aboloms and Achitophels; humbly presuming to add this Petition to our Litany; From restless Pettish Whig-Zealots, Idolaters of a Commonwealt, endeavouring to ruffe us into the Savage Rebellious State of Forty One, Good Lord deliver us! And

That it would please Him to preserve Your Sacred Majesty in the highest Glory of Your Ancestors, That Your Crown may flourish long on Your Royal Head: That this Monarchy may be immortal, The Lineal Descent unalterable: That we may always have Industrious Princes of Your Majesties Royal Family to Iwa, the Scepter of this Realm, is the daily Prayer of Your Majesties most Loyal and most dutiful Subjects.

There have been likewise presented to His Majesty, very Loyal Addressees from the following Counties and Corporations in Ireland, which His Majesty received with His wonted Grace and Goodness.

From the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the Antient and Loyal City of Dublin.

From the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the Antient Town and County of Drogheda.

From the Sovereign, Recorder, Burgeses, and Commons of Kinfales.

From the Governor, High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand-Jury and Gentry of the County of Galloway, at the Assizes held for the said County, Sept. 3. 1683.

From the Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Array, Officers of the Militia, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Cavan.

From the Justices of the Peace and the Grand-Jury, for the City and County of London Derry. Sept. 18. 1683.

Rome, Octob. 6. The Pope upon the first news he had of the raising the Siege of Vienna, sent 100000 Crowns to the Emperor; and has since ordered a like sum to be sent to the King of Poland; and has declared, That he will contribute for his part 40000 Crowns a month towards the carrying on the War against the Turks. And the Cardinals and many other persons Quality, do likewise give considerable sums, which are paid into the Apostolick Chamber; so that according to all appearance a great Fond will be established for this service. The Sicur Talenti, who brought hither the great Standard of Mabomet, which the King of Poland took at the Battle of Vienna, and sent as a Present to the Pope, took his leave two days ago in order to his return for Hungary.

Genova, Octob. 20. The Spanish Gallies remain still at Porta Spetia, expecting there the arrival of the Armada, which it's said, are driven by bad weather to Palermo. Our Letters from Milan of the 13th instant, told us, that the Troops in that Dutchy were marching to the Camp which the Count de Melgar has caused to be marked out for them on the Po; and that His Excellency has likewise given orders for the preparing a Train of Artillery.

Marseilles, Octob. 29. The news of this place is, that Monsieur du Quesne is retired from before Argiers, having left some of his lightest Ships to Cruise on that Coast; that these are to be very suddenly relieved by Monsieur de Lery, who will have a Squadron of 7 or 8 Men of War which is now sitting out at Tboulon; that Monsieur du Quesne is gone for Malta, and that from thence he is to stand over for Tripoly.

Warsaw, October 8. The Troops of Lithuania are on their march for Hungary, to joyu the King of Poland; and we are told that above 1000 Gentlemen