The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Brecon.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Brecon, assembled in County Court, humbly beg to approach your Majesty's Throne with our most sincere condolence upon the severe loss your Majesty and the Nation have sustained, by the death of His late Majesty King George the Fourth.

No. 2.

To His Most Gracious Majesty WILLIAM the FOURTH, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING, Defender of the Faith.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor and Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn, do present our unfeigned congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these realms.

Praying and hoping that the Almighty will be pleased to grant to your Majesty a long and happy life, that you may consummate the prosperity so happily begun by our late revered and most gracious Sovereign, by whose firmness and patriotism Europe was rescued from anarchy, our institutions preserved, our religion strengthened, and our arms triumphant.

May you, Sire, and your gracious Consort, continue long to enjoy the felicity you are conferring on a grateful nation, who sees with pleasure the unremitting anxiety evinced by your Majesty to lighten her burdens, and to cheer her efforts to give freedom to the slave and liberty to the conscience.

Whilst these kingdoms continue rising in happiness and prosperity, may they remain the admiration and the envy of the world, and their last prayer be peace, happiness, and prosperity to William, the King of the people, and the people's King.

Given under the common seal of the said borough, the 11th day of October, in the year of our Lord 1830,

William Angove, R. N. Mayor.

To His Most Excellent Majesty KING WILLIAM the FOURTH.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the county of Limerick, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the most sincere expressions of condolence on the death of our late beloved Sovereign, your Royal Brother, under whose vigorous and paternal government the most glorious successes in war were effected, and a long period of peace distinguished by a series of public acts beneficial to the nation, and most honourable to his character as the wise and good King of a free people.

While we thus sympathise with your Majesty on this melancholy occasion, permit us to hope that our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's succession, and that of Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Adelaide, to the Throne of these realms may be graciously accepted, while it is our most fervent prayer that we may long enjoy, under the auspicious rule of your Majesty, the blessings of that Constitution which has been the source, and must be relied on as the best defence of our national grandeur and happiness.

That your Majesty may not only prove the safeguard of our civil and religious liberties, but continue to promote by your example the influence of our Christian faith, and the practice of all Christian virtues, is the solemn prayer of your Majesty's most attached and loyal subjects.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of Durham, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of Durham, in Common Council assembled, venture to approach your Majesty with the tribute of our sincere condolence and sympathy for the loss your Majesty and the Nation at large have sustained by the death of our late beloved Sovereign, your Majesty's illustrious and lamented Brother.

May it please your Majesty to accept our congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne, and to receive the assurances of our loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, which we now beg leave to present, firmly persuaded that under your Majesty's gracious protection we shall continue to enjoy all the blessings of our free and happy Constitution.

Suffer us, likewise, to express the high gratification we feel at the elevation of your Majesty's illustrious consort, our Gracious Queen Adelaide, to the Throne of these realms. A Princess whose presence will add dignity and splendour to her Court, and whose virtues and high endowments confer lustre on her exalted station, and will insure the esteem and admiration of every class of society.

That your Majesty and Royal Consort may long continue to reign in the hearts and affections of your people, to preserve to them the blessings of peace and prosperity, and to receive in return their gratitude and obedience, is our sincere and fervent prayer.

Given at the Guildhall of the City of Durham, under the common seal of the said City, the 17th day of August, in the year of our Lord 1830,

John Wolfe, Mayor.

No. 5.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the States of the Island of Jersey.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the States of your Majesty's Island of Jersey, offer our most heartfelt condolence on the severe loss which your Majesty and the Empire at large have sustained by the recent demise of our late gracious Sovereign, King George the Fourth, under whose firm but paternal and benign sway, Britain has prospered beyond her proudest hopes, and after terminating a long struggle for independence against the efforts and power of the late despot of the continent, procured for herself and all Europe an honourable and lasting peace, and thus proved the never failing superiority of a free people, governed by a patriot Prince.

But whilst we lament the calamity which has deprived us of a justly beloved Sovereign, we have to congratulate our country and ourselves, that it has pleased the Almighty to preserve your most gracious Majesty to succeed to the Throne of these realms; in the full confidence that, in your hands, the glory of the empire will continue to shine with undiminished lustre, that its greatness will be upheld, its best interest jealously guarded, and that, in particular, the ever loyal inhabitants of this small portion of your Majesty's dominions will be maintained by your Royal munificence in all those rights and privileges with which your Majesty's august Predecessors have rewarded the fidelity and devotedness of their ancestors.

That your Majesty may long, very long, continue to wear the Imperial Crown of Great Britain and Ireland in peace, prosperity, and happiness, is the constant and fervent prayer of your most devoted subjects, the States and other inhabitants of your Majesty's Island of Jersey.

By order of the States,

Hugh Godfray, jun., Deputy Greffier.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful subjects, the Members of Council of this your Majesty's ancient and loyal Colony of the Island of Nevis, beg leave to approach your Royal Person with the most reverential feelings of attachment and devotion, and to congratulate your Majesty on your happy accession to the Throne of your ancestors.

We humbly offer, at the same time, to your Majesty, our sincere condolence for the afflicting loss of a Monarch, whose removal will be long and severely felt for that kind and paternal care invariably afforded to all classes of his subjects; and whilst we deeply lament with your Majesty the heavy loss which the country has sustained, we look back with honest pride and grateful recollection to that early period of your Majesty's life, when this little Island was honoured and rendered happy by your Majesty's presence, and to which your Majesty was pleased to extend repeated proofs of your condescension and regard, this cheering remembrance still animates its loyal inhabitants, as from experience the inestimable value of such a Sovereign, is duly appreciated.

The Members of Council, of this your Majesty's Island of Nevis, take this earliest opportunity of expressing their firm loyalty, and unshaken allegiance, and they fervently pray that the Almighty Ruler of Princes may prolong your Majesty's reign in health and every carthy blessing.

No. 7.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Honourable Board of Council, and the Commons House of Assembly, of the Virgin Islands, beg leave to approach your Majesty, with every feeling of loyalty and devotion, on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of Great Britain.

Whilst we most sincerely condole with your Majesty on the loss which the dominions of Great Britain have sustained by the death of a Monarch, whose reign was marked by the glory of his arms, and by the protection which he invariably afforded to all classes of his subjects.

We unfeignedly rejoice, that a Prince has succeeded to the Crown, by whom our liberties and laws will be cherished.

We fervently hope that your Majesty's reign may be long and prosperous, and that, by unanimity at home and confidence abroad, the splendour and renown, which Great Britain has enjoyed under the House of Brunswick, may be perpetuated to distant ages.

Among the various classes of your Majesty's subjects, who will be anxious on this occasion to express to their Sovereign their unshaken and zealous allegiance, none will approach your Majesty's Throne with feelings of more ardent loyalty and attachment, than your Majesty's faithful Colonists, who look back with grateful recollections to that early period of your Majesty's devotion to the public service, during which your Majesty's active protection was given to the British West India Colonies, those important appendages of the empire, to the welfare and prosperity of which your Majesty has been graciously pleased to extend repeated proofs of your personal regard.

Thos. Marsh, Speaker of the Assembly.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum, the High-Sheriff, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Buckingham.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the High Sheriff, Lord-Lieutenant, and Custos

tos Rotulorum, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Buckingham, humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, with the dutiful expression of our loyal congratulations to your Majesty, on the occasion of your Majesty's accession to the hereditary Crown of these realms.

Your Majesty's deceased Royal Brother, our late lamented Monarch, was invested with the government of this country in the midst of a war, which, for many years, had deluged the world with blood. Under the dispensations of Divine Providence, by the firmness of his councils, and the energy of his mind, he brought that war to a close, by a series of victorious exertions, both by land and sea, and by sacrifices on the part of his faithful and loyal people, unexampled in the annals of this country.

The loss of such a Monarch we cannot but deplore

It has pleased Almighty God to call your Majesty to the Throne of your Ancestors in times of great difficulty and excitement.

Engaged in early life in the naval service of your country, whose discipline your Majesty maintained, and whose exertions you animated by your illustrious example, your Majesty has been thereby enabled, by personal knowledge and observation, justly to estimate the value of the proud source of the greatness of the country over which your Majesty wields the Sceptre of your illustrious and Royal House.

Your Majesty, by your gracious condescension, by the freedom of access to your Royal presence, which you have permitted to your loyal subjects, by your anxious consideration of their local interests, and by the English feelings which animate and direct all your Majesty's actions, has endeared yourself to your dutiful and affectionate subjects. By no portion of them is the early promise of your auspicious reign more warmly felt than by the inhabitants of this county.

We estimate, as we ought, the blessings, amidst the storms which are flying around us, of a Constitutional Monarchy, a mild, pure, and an Established Religion, an Aristocracy and a Commonalty, mutually supporting each other, and both combining to maintain inviolate the dignity and prerogative of your Majesty's Throne, together with the liberties of the people, established and secured by law.

Impressed with these feelings, taught us by the example, and endeared to us by the exertions of our ancestors, we humbly beg leave to lay at your Majesty's feet the loyal tribute of our dutiful allegiance and service.

In the name and on the behalf of said county meeting,
B. W. Howad, High Sheriff
Aylesbury, October 19, 1830.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YIELDING to no portion of your Majesty's subjects in loyalty and attachment to all the branches of your Royal House, we, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants, and Common Council of the Borough of Colchester, beg leave to present ourselves before the Throne to which your Majesty has auspiciously succeeded, and to express with what deep and poignant feelings of sympathy and condolence we participate in the sufferings occasioned to your Majesty by the recent loss of your beloved Brother, whose amiable disposition and endearing qualities had fostered and strengthened in no common degree those early sentiments of affection, to which your fraternal relations had given birth, and whose regal attributes and public services (far too splendid to be compassed by our panegyric) will be duly appreciated only when the recording annalist shall have transmitted them to posterity. It is a source however of sincere consolation to us to be assured, that the power and prerogatives with which your Majesty is invested, will be exercised only for the benefit of your people, and we hail the manly declarations in which your Majesty has already announced your ardent anxiety to maintain the established religion, and to promote the due administration of the laws, as the welcome harbingers of a wise and successful reign. Permit us, therefore, to congratulate your Majesty on the happy prospects under which your Majesty has ascended the Throne of your Forefathers, and to offer our prayers, that your Majesty, together with your most gracious and illustrious Consort, Queen Adelaide, may long be preserved to us, and that you may long continue to wield the Imperial Sceptre of these realms.

In testimony whereof, we, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants, and Common Council of the said Borough, have affixed our Common Seal, the 20th day of August 1830.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Clergy, Gentry, Yeomen, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Devon, humbly beg to approach your Royal presence, to express our sincere condolence with your Majesty on the deep and severe affliction which your Majesty, in common with all your loyal subjects, has experienced in the death of your Majesty's Royal Brother, our late most lamented and revered King.

Whilst we thus deeply deplore the severe loss we have sustained, by the demise of a Sovereign so justly dear to his people, from the firmness of his councils, and the mild and beneficent administration of his government, during a long and most eventful period, distinguished alike by the most brilliant military achievements and the inestimable blessings of peace, we are anxious to present to your Majesty our warmest congratulations upon your accession to the Throne of these realms.

We tender to your Majesty the cordial assurances of our loyal and dutiful devotion and attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and declare our firm reliance, that the best interests of our country, in which you have been born and bred, and in the active service of which your Majesty has been so long engaged, will be secured by the well known determination of your Majesty to promote the happiness and welfare of all classes of your loyal and faithful subjects, and to maintain inviolate the Constitution of this great and free country.

Actuated by these sentiments, we presume to offer our fervent prayers that your Majesty's reign may be long and prosperous, and like that of your Royal Predecessors, eminently respected abroad, and no less conducive to the honour and glory of your Majesty, than the advantage of your people.

Done at a County Meeting, convened by the High Sheriff for the purpose, at the Castle of Exeter, the 30th day of July 1830, and signed on behalf of the meeting,

John Beaumont Swete, High Sheriff.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Common Councilmen, and other Inhabitants of the King's Town and Parish of Maidstone, in the County of Kent, venture, on the present occasion, to approach your Majesty, to offer their sincere and heartfelt condolence on the great loss which your Majesty and the Nation at large have sustained by the lamented demise of His late most gracious Majesty, King George the Fourth, under whose sway the glory of these realms have been advanced to such a degree as to render them the admiration of the surrounding nations. We feel at the same time the necessity of submitting with humble resignation to this dispensation of Divine Providence, and we are the more encouraged to repress our feelings of sorrow, when we reflect, that in the happy accession of your Majesty to the Throne of this kingdom, we can confidently look forward to a continuance of those years of glory and happiness, which the nation has so long enjoyed under the dominion of your Majesty's august Family. We therefore most dutifully and cordially offer to your Majesty our congratulations on this auspicious event, and trust that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to accept this assurance of our firm and unshaken loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and that in these sentiments we do not yield to any others of your Majesty's subjects.
