

No. 12.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful, loyal, and affectionate subjects, the Presiding Royal Arch, Past Royal Arches, Secretary, Guardian, and Brothers of the Royal Arch Chapter, No. 4, of the United Order of Ancient Druids of England; assembling in Nottingham, present ourselves before your Majesty's Throne to condole with you on the demise of our late Sovereign, your Majesty's Royal Brother, King George the Fourth.

We would congratulate your Majesty on your accession to the Throne of these Realms, fully sensible that you will, during your reign, exemplify those principles of attachment to the interests of your people, which placed the august House of Brunswick on the Throne.

United among each other in the bonds of friendship, we rejoice in the opportunity of displaying that fidelity to a patriot King, whose mild and paternal sway make it both our duty and happiness to render obedience.

We rejoice that your Majesty is in the possession of an amiable and virtuous Consort, our most gracious Queen Adelaide, we hope that you may long together enjoy domestic felicity, and unitedly reign over a free and happy people.

Given at our regular October Chapter Meeting, at the Durham Ox Inn, in the first year of the reign of our most gracious Sovereign, King William the Fourth, by order
