THIS day the following Addresses were presented to His Majesty at the Levee, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Town and County of the Town of Poole, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere condolence on that dispensation of Almighty God, which hath bereft your Majesty of a Brother, and our country of its King.

While we feel and express the sorrow which afflicts us, at the loss of our late most gracious Sovereign, we can never cease to rejoice in the accomplishment of those great and glorious events which occurred in the course of his reign.

We cannot refrain from proudly congratulating your Majesty on ascending the Throne of these Realms, at a period of profound national peace and of domestic tranquillity, a tranquillity greatly to be attributed (under Providence) to the wisdom of those councils, which have removed discontent and dissention, by the repeal of unnecessary and inequitable laws.

We also feel the most entire confidence, that, in the exalted station to which Providence has called you, your Majesty will continue to evince the same ardent zeal for the glory and welfare of your country, for which your Majesty has ever been distinguished.

We, therefore, presume humbly to address your Majesty with these our sentiments of exultation and pride, well assured that it will ever be the earnest desire of your Majesty, and of your Royal Consort our gracious Queen Adelaide, to promote the happiness and prosperity of your Majesty's affectionate and loyal subjects.

Given under our common seal at the Guildhall, this 1st day of September 1830,

W. Jolliffe, Mayor.

[Presented by the Right Hon. John Calcraft, accompanied by Mr. Lester, M. P.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

IT is with sentiments of the most respectful and affectionate loyalty, that we, the Inhabitants of Burton-upon-Trent, venture to approach your Majesty, and to express our condolence at the loss your Majesty and the Nation have recently sustained; together with our felicitations at your happy accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

In reviewing the services of your Majesty's past life, we cannot fail to be impressed by an exhibition of those qualities which afford us the surest guarantee for an auspicious and constitutional reign. From the acts which have characterized your Majesty's assumption of power, we are impressed with the same gratifying assurance, that all religious differences will be forgotten, all civil rights respected, and the Sovereign united with his people by bonds of mutual and affectionate confidence.

It is further a subject of proud congratulation to us, that, in the relations of domestic life, your Majesty is enabled to present to your people a Partner in your Throne, who can furnish a pattern of moral excellence to the women of England. To the Queen and to yourself may this accession of dignity be productive of as many blessings as it will diffuse over the dominions now subjected to your sway; and may that Providence, which has so long watched over the best interests of Britain, continue that protection to your Majesty's life, which the prayers of an united empire are now raised to solicit.

By order and on behalf of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Burton-upon-Trent, John D. Fowler, High Bailiff.

To His Most Gracious Majesty KING WILLIAM the FOURTH.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of your ancient Borough of Bridgwater, most respectfully approach the Throne, and, being deeply sensible of the numerous blessings which we enjoyed under the reign of our late most gracious Sovereign, of illustrious memory, we humbly beg leave to express our unfeigned sorrow at the melancholy event which has deprived your Majesty of a beloved Brother, and the empire of a glorious and benignant Sovereign. But, whilst we thus pay a willing tribute of respect and gratitude to the memory of your Majesty's Royal Brother, we desire to present to your Majesty our warmest and most sincere congratulations on your Majesty's accession, to the Throne of these Realms, under a firm persuasion, that your faithful people will continue to receive the paternal regard and protection of a Sovereign, eminently qualified to insure and perpetuate the many blessings which this country has enjoyed under your Majesty's illustrious Ancestors of the House of Brunswick.

We beg permission also to express to your Majesty our joy, that your Majesty is blessed with a Royal Consort, of distinguished and exalted virtues, forming an additional bond of union between your Majesty and your Majesty's loyal subjects; and we earnestly pray, that your Majesty, with your Royal and amiable Consort, our most gracious Queen Adelaide, may long continue to reign over a grateful, affectionate, and loyal people.

John Evered, A. M., Mayor

[Presented by John Evered, Esq., Mayor, attended by William Astell, Esq., one of the Members of the said Borough.]

To the His Most Excellent Majesty WILLIAM the FOURTH, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING, Defender of the Faith, &c. &c.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Justice, Recorder, Principal, and Assistant Burgesses, and Inhabitants of your ancient and loyal Borough, and Parish of Okehampton, humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty with the expressions of our sincere condolence at the severe affliction with which your Majesty hath been visited by the demise of your late affectionate Brother, and our late excellent Sovereign, of blessed memory. To these expressions of sympathy in your Majesty's affliction, we cannot help availing ourselves of this occasion, to congratulate your Majesty, ourselves, and the nation at large, upon the accession to the Throne of a Prince, who, born in, and educated in the naval service of, this country, is likely to restore the naval ascendancy of Great Britain to that height of splendid glory, which it had achieved during the long continuance of the late revolutionary war, and that henceforth the Union Jack of the British navy will float triumphant throughout the waters of the world.

We congratulate ourselves, and our fellow-subjects throughout your Majesty's dominions, upon the liberality and patriotism of a Monarch, who is so eminently calculated to reflect lustre upon the empire over which he has been called to preside.

That your Majesty's reign may be prolonged and happy, blessed in the participation of its cares, with a Princess whose public and private virtues are so well calculated to reflect lustre on a Throne, is, and ever will be, the constant prayer of your Majesty's ever dutiful subjects.

To His Most Excellent Majesty, WILLIAM the FOURTH, KING of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, KING of Hanover, &c. &c. &c.

The humble Address of the Ministers of the German Protestant Churches in London.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Ministers of the German Protestant Churches in London, beg leave, in the name of our Congregations, as well as our own, most humbly to approach your Majesty with our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these Realms.

Truly sensible of the invaluable advantages and blessings which we enjoy under the protection and mild sway of the British Crown and Constitution, and deeply impressed with the value of the privilege of uniting together for the purposes of devotion and religious instruction in our native tongue, and according to the rites and customs endeared to us by early conviction and habits, we most cordially join all classes of our British fellow-subjects, in the sentiments of warm attachment and profound gratitude to your Majesty and to your Royal House.

We sincerely sympathise in the grief of your Majesty, of the Members of the Royal Family, and of the whole British Nation, at the demise of our late beloved Monarch, whose memory we shall ever cherish with profound esteem and gratitude; but we also fully participate in the consoling and cheering hopes and prospects with which an unbounded confidence in your Majesty universally inspires the hearts of your loyal subjects.

It is our ardent wish and devout prayer, that it may please the Almighty, "the King of Kings and Lord of Lords" to grant to your Majesty a long and prosperous reign, to bestow upon your Majesty and your Royal Consort, our revered and most gracious Queen, health and every earthly felicity, and to enrich your Majesty's days with all the joys which spring from the view of increasing Christian piety and virtue throughout every part of your Majesty's wide dominions, from the warm affection of a grateful people, and from a long continuance of the dearest connexions of domestic and private life.

Whilst we, with humility, present to your Majesty this homage of our grateful veneration and loyalty, we also implore your Majesty to continue your Royal favour and protection to ourselves and to our respective Congregations; on whom we shall never fail, in a conscientious discharge of our sacred duties, to inculcate an unremitting attention to the Apostolic injunction "Fear God and honour the King," and with whom we shall constantly unite in humble and earnest prayer, for the safety and welfare of your Majesty, for the happiness of our most gracious Queen, and the whole Royal House, for the true glory and success of the government placed in your Majesty's hands, and for the prosperity of the whole British Nation.

To the Most Illustrious Princess, ADELAIDE, QUEEN Consort of His Most Excellent Majesty WILLIAM the FOURTH.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, His Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Justice, Recorder, Principal and Assistant Burgesses, and Inhabitants of His Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough and Parish of Okehampton, humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty with the expressions of our most heartfelt congratulations upon your Majesty's accession to the participation in the cares of a Throne, to which it has been the will of Divine Providence to call your most excellent Consort.

In admiration of those splendid and domestic virtues, which are so congenial to British feelings, and which render your Majesty equally calculated to adorn a Throne, and throw a charm over the retirement of private life, we yield to no portion of His Majesty's subjects; and we congratulate the wives and daughters of the British Nation, upon having the highest example of domestic happiness and conjugal virtue, exhibited before them, from the most exalted station in the realm.

That it may be our happiness, as well as your Majesty's consolatory reflection, that such an example may produce numerous imitators, and that your Majesty may long enjoy, in unison with your gracious Consort, the dignified cares and honours of the station you so eminently grace, is, and ever will be, the constant prayer of His Majesty's dutiful subjects of this Town and Parish.
