Lord Chamberlain's-Office, November 15, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 24th instant, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE KING'S LEVEE, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend the Levee to be held on Wednesday the 24th instant, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock on Monday next the 22d instant, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation; it being His Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levee, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levee will have their names distinctly written upon the card delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the King.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Whitehall, November 19, 1830.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir Robert Peel, Bart. one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, were by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty, &c. &c.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Free and Accepted Masons of Limerick Ancient Lodge, No. 271.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Free and Accepted Masons of Limerick Ancient Lodge, No. 271, on the Registry of Ireland, with devoted attachment to your Majesty's Person, Crown, and Government, beg leave with respectful and profound humility to approach your Majesty at the present time, in language suited to an occasion which appears big with hope for the prosperity and advancement of our ancient and honourable fraternity, in your Majesty graciously condescending to become the Grand Patron of our Order.

When we look back, Sire, to the fostering care the worthy Craft has experienced through a succession of ages amongst the inheritors of the British Crown, it affords a high theme for thankfulness and congratulation; and these feelings are eminently enhanced, when we contemplate the exertions and recognition bestowed upon our system, by your Majesty, and the illustrious race in immediate connection with your Majesty's Royal Family, not only as great encouragers of the art, but in giving it countenance and support in a superior degree, by becoming members of our Mystic Institution.

That your Majesty may live happy and long, to guard the free and valuable institutions of Great Britain, and to realize the blessings your noble and ge-
