TUESDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1830.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, November 25, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 8th of December next, at two o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, December 7, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 15th instant, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE KING'S LEVEE, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend the Levee to be held on Wednesday next the 8th instant, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock on Monday next the 6th instant, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation; it being His Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levee, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levee will have their names distinctly written upon the card delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the King.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, St. James's, November 25, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Queen has appointed Thursday the 24th of February 1831, for the celebration of Her Majesty's Birth-day, when a Drawing-Room will be held at St. James's-Palace.

The Queen will not require that any Lady who has already been presented, should be presented a second time.

It is expected that all Ladies attending the Drawing-Room will appear in dresses of British manufacture.

Whitehall, December 7, 1830.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable William Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, were by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.
Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE, the Vice-Presidents and Members of the Royal Dublin Society, assembled at our first stated general meeting, since your Majesty's accession to the Throne, beg leave humbly to express the deep regret which we feel, in common with every portion of your Majesty's subjects, for the loss which your Majesty and the Nation have sustained by the death of your Majesty's lamented Brother, our late most gracious Sovereign, and the immediate Patron of our Society.

But, while we deplore that event, our sorrows are alleviated by the heartfelt gratification of beholding in the Successor to the Throne, a Prince, whose early virtues and public services, and the benignity and generosity of whose character have so justly endeared him to the nation. Permit us humbly to tender to your Majesty the homage of our zealous loyalty and most devoted attachment. Nor is it a less grateful duty to offer to Her Majesty, the Queen, the affectionate tribute of our respect, and our admiration of her many virtues and personal endowments.

We congratulate your Majesty upon possessing a Consort so eminently qualified to confer dignity on her exalted rank, and to promote, by her bright example, the welfare and happiness of your faithful subjects. May your Majesties long continue to reign in the hearts of a loyal and contented people.

Associated under the Charter, granted by His Majesty King George the Second, for the encouragement of husbandry and the useful arts, we rejoice in acknowledging upon the present occasion, the great and signal advantages, as well as improvement, which the agriculture of Ireland has derived from the freedom of commercial intercourse with Great Britain, consequent on the Union between the two countries. We further contemplate with feelings of the deepest gratitude the numerous benefits which this country in general, and this society in particular, have experienced during the reigns of three successive Sovereigns, your Majesty's Royal Predecessors; and we confidently anticipate, that Ireland, blessed with a continuance of domestic peace and tranquillity, will, under your Majesty's paternal and beneficent government, attain to a state of prosperity and happiness hitherto unexampled in its annals.

May we hope that the humble efforts which our society is making in this great work of internal improvement, by cultivating the arts of peace, and diffusing scientific knowledge, and useful information, will recommend us to your Majesty's patronage, that in the person of your Majesty we may be permitted to add to the number of our Royal Protectors, a fourth Sovereign of your Majesty's illustrious House, and that your Majesty will graciously condescend to become the Patron of this Society.

By order, Edward Hardman, Assistant Secretary.

[Transmitted by His Grace the Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland.]

To His Most Excellent Majesty KING WILLIAM the FOURTH.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Sheriff, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Pembroke assembled, humbly beg leave to express to your Majesty our condolence on the affliction your Majesty has sustained, in common with us, by the demise of our late most gracious Sovereign. We cannot but at the same time congratulate ourselves on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, trusting that your Majesty and your Royal Consort will feel assured of our loyalty and affection, and continue to enjoy a reign of uninterrupted happiness and prosperity.

Signed for and on behalf of the meeting,

Geo. C. Roch, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by Sir John Owen, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Condolence and Address of the Barbados Auxiliary Bible Society of the People of Colour.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, humbly pray your Majesty to permit us to lay at your Majesty's feet this our condolence and address, to state our poignant grief and concern for the severe affliction with which it has pleased Almighty God to visit your Majesty's Royal House, in taking to himself our paternal Monarch, His late Majesty King George the Fourth, of glorious memory, who, appreciating the pious sentiments of your Majesty's most illustrious Father, of glorious memory, whose soul zealous for the glory of God, declared his fervent wish, was, "that all in his dominions may be able to read the Bible," cherished, countenanced, and supported the promulgation of the word of God, being fully sensible the Almighty had chosen him to wield the sceptre and destinies of the greatest nation, that is, or ever was, earnestly sought to advance the honour and glory of his Redeemer, in whose bosom we trust he now rests.

It is our earnest prayer the Almighty may be your Majesty's comforter under this great trial. We congratulate your Majesty on your accession to the Throne of your illustrious Ancestors. We pray Almighty God to grant your Majesty a propitious reign, under your fostering Sceptre may the Gospel be universally published, and the glory of the British Empire continued. May He continue to bless your Majesty with every Christian virtue, keep the hearts of your people in their duty, preserve your Majesty in health, wealth, and long life, enable your Majesty to overcome all enemies, and that your Majesty may attain everlasting joy and felicity, will ever be the fervent prayer of your Majesty's devoted subjects, who subscribe their names at your Majesty's feet.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about seven o'clock in the evening of Saturday, the 20th day of November instant, Robert Harrison and James Sladden, Farmers, of the parish of Hoath, near Canterbury, in the county of Kent, were wilfully and maliciously shot at by some evil-disposed person unknown, while performing the duty of horse patrol in that parish;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually shot at the said Robert Harrison and James Sladden) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury. MELBOURNE.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the morning of Monday the 29th day of November last, a rick of hay belonging to, and in the premises of the Very Reverend Dean Wood, Rector of the parish of Freshwater, in the Isle of Wight, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said hay) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. Such reward to be paid by the Parish Officers of Freshwater.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, early on the morning of Saturday the 27th day of November last, some evil-disposed person or persons did feloniously and maliciously put a case containing combustible materials into the letter-box of the Post Office at Derby, by the explosion of which, considerable damage was occasioned;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually put the said case into the said letter-box) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury. MELBOURNE.

Whitehall, December 6, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about six o'clock in the evening of Sunday the 28th day of November last, a barn in the occupation of Mr. Hodgson, Butcher, near Swalwell-bridge, in the parish of Ryton, in the county of Durham, was feloniously and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THREE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by Mr. John Dobson, Clerk to the Magistrates, Gateshead.
