Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, St. James's, November 25, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Queen has appointed Thursday the 24th of February 1831, for the celebration of Her Majesty's Birth-day, when a Drawing-Room will be held at St. James's-Palace.

The Queen will not require that any Lady who has already been presented, should be presented a second time.

It is expected that all Ladies attending the Drawing-Room will appear in dresses of British manufacture.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 15th day of December 1830,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day, by command of His Majesty, the Honourable William Bathurst was sworn one of the Clerks of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council in ordinary.

St. James's-Palace, December 8, 1830.

THIS day the following Address was presented to His Majesty at the Levee, by the Bishop of Llandaff, which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bishop and Clergy of the diocese of Llandaff humbly present to your Majesty the expression of our sentiments upon the dispensation of Providence, which has deprived this kingdom of the paternal rule of our late most gracious Sovereign King George the Fourth, and which has raised up a successor, in the person of your Majesty, justly entitled to the same feelings of affection and dutiful attachment which we had long entertained for that beloved Monarch.

We have been informed of the gracious declaration which your Majesty was pleased to make at the very commencement of your reign, and after the performance of the most sacred rite of our religion, of your firm resolution to protect and support the established Church of this kingdom in all her rights, and to discountenance the malicious attacks of all her enemies.

While we cannot but derive comfort and encouragement from this solemn assurance, and while we tender our grateful acknowledgements to your Majesty for this protection, we are, at the same time, persuaded, that the cause of the English Church and of the English Nation is one and the same, and that, by adhering steadily to this pious resolution, your Majesty will also promote, in the most effectual manner, the peace, the prosperity, the happiness, and the glory of the whole empire.

For ourselves, we solemnly assure your Majesty, that we regard it as a part of the sacred duty of our calling, to inculcate among all ranks of our fellow-subjects, obedience to the laws, and affectionate loyalty to our lawful Sovereign; and we offer our united prayers that the Almighty may long preserve the Sovereign now set over us, an example, as well as a blessing, to His loyal people.

St. James's-Palace, December 15, 1830.

THIS day the following Addresses were presented to His Majesty at the Levee, which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, Members of the Port of Plymouth Royal Clarence Regatta Club, beg leave most respectfully to offer our humble congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these realms, and trust that, under the protection of Divine Providence, your Majesty may long continue to reign over a happy and united people.

Feeling deeply the honour that has been hitherto conferred on this Club, by the high distinction of your royal name as its Patron, and relying on your Majesty's known desire to promote an institution so intimately connected with the naval interests of this country, we humbly presume to solicit a further mark of your royal condescension, by permitting us to continue under the patronage of your Majesty.

Plymouth, July 23, 1830.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Vice Patrons, President, Vice-Presidents, Council, and Members of the Royal Geological Society of Cornwall, beg leave to request your Majesty to receive our condolences on the death of our late Sovereign. Amid the general grief of our fellow-subjects, we feel, in a peculiar degree, the loss of a Royal Patron, under whose beneficent and auspicious protection our Society has been fostered and encouraged.

While we deplore the death of our gracious Sovereign and liberal protector, we feel it our duty to express our congratulations to your Majesty on your accession to the Throne of these Dominions ; and we confidently venture to express our hope, that, in sympathy with the sentiments of our late Sovereign, and in accordance with your own wishes for the progress of science, your Majesty will be graciously pleased to continue the Royal patronage to a Society whose aim is to improve the singular advantages of their local situation, by researches which call forth the energies of industry, extend the boundaries of human knowledge, and add incalculably to the advancement of the arts, and to the wealth of the empire.

We should be wanting in proper feeling, and in a due estimate of what is most valuable in civil society, if we did not warmly embrace the opportunity of expressing our heartfelt sense of the numerous virtues and high character of your Majesty's amiable and excellent consort, and we shall ever make it our earnest prayer, that, in a long continuance of your happy union, you may enjoy the satisfaction of witnessing the cheering influence of her bright example on the moral happiness of your people.

Signed, on behalf of the Society,
Davies Gilbert, President.

[Presented by Mr. Davies Gilbert.]

To His Most Gracious Majesty WILLIAM the FOURTH, KING of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c. &c. &c.

The humble Address of the Assembly of the Island of Nevis.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Members of the Assembly of the Island of Nevis, embrace the earliest opportunity afforded us, by the first formation of a house since your Majesty's accession, humbly to offer to your Majesty our sincere condolence on the decease of his late most gracious Majesty King George the Fourth, whose loss to the nation would have been the more severely felt, had not the succession to the Crown devolved upon a Sovereign whose experience and judgment afford us entire confidence that the Regal authority will be directed to the welfare of all your Majesty's subjects.

We beg leave, at the same time, to tender our heartfelt congratulations to your Majesty on your accession to the Throne of your illustrious Ancestors, and to assure you of our loyalty and unalterable attachment.

Our congratulations on this event are enlivened by the knowledge, that a portion of the early part of your Majesty's professional life was passed in the West India Colonies ; and that your Majesty is the first British Monarch who, from personal observation, can duly appreciate the measures which may be best calculated to raise them from their present state of distress to that state of prosperity in which your Majesty formerly beheld them.

Deign, Sire, to accept our ardent wishes that your Majesty's reign may be long, happy, and glorious ; and that your Majesty may see our anticipations realised to all your people.

Edward Huggins, Speaker.

[Presented by Mr. Colquhoun.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of Newfoundland, humbly approach your Royal Person, to express our sincere condolence on the decease of your illustrious Brother, our late revered and beloved Monarch, George the Fourth, whose memory is endeared to his grateful subjects, by the constant acts of liberality and paternal feeling which marked the course of his eventful reign.

Allow us, Sire, the privilege of expressing to your Majesty our undeviating attachment to the House of Brunswick, and our gratitude to a superintending Providence, which has preserved for us a Sovereign reared in the service of his country, and peculiarly distinguished for his attachment to the sacred principles which placed his august Ancestors on the Throne of these Realms.

In a peculiar manner, we, the Inhabitants of Newfoundland (bearing in our proud remembrance that your Majesty is the only British Sovereign who has visited these shores), feel grateful for the opportunity afforded us of congratulating your Majesty on your accession to the Throne of your illustrious Ancestors, and expressing our assurance, that your Majesty will always experience from your faithful subjects, the Inhabitants of this Island, an entire devotion to your August Person, to our gracious Queen Adelaide, and to the other branches of the Royal Family. We most devoutly pray that your Majesty may long continue to reign over the hearts and persons of a loyal and affectionate people.
