TUESDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1830.

Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, St. James's, November 25, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Queen has appointed Thursday the 24th of February 1831, for the celebration of Her Majesty's Birth-day, when a Drawing-Room will be held at St. James's-Palace.

The Queen will not require that any Lady who has already been presented, should be presented a second time.

It is expected that all Ladies attending the Drawing-Room will appear in dresses of British manufacture.

Whitehall, December 21, 1830.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable William Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, were by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Newbury, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful subjects, beg leave to approach your Majesty's presence with a sincere expression of loyalty and affection on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these Realms, humbly offering to your Majesty our deep and heartfelt condolence on the great loss which your Majesty, no less than the Nation itself, has sustained in the demise of our late lamented Sovereign.

Permit us to assure your Majesty of our devoted attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and of our unremitting endeavours to inculcate a spirit of loyalty, obedience to the laws, and veneration for the Constitution, in all classes of your Majesty's subjects under our influence; and that it is our most earnest and constant prayer, that your Majesty and your Royal Consort may be blessed with a long, happy, and glorious reign.

Given under our common seal, the 28th day of July 1830.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Abingdon.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Inhabitants of the Parish of Clapham, in the County of Surrey, unanimously adopted at a Special Vestry, convened by public notice.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, beg leave to offer our cordial congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of these Realms, and to present a declaration of our warm and steadfast allegiance to your Majesty's Person and authority, and of our unshaken attachment to the laws and institutions of our country.

In assuring your Majesty of the deep interest which we take in every measure which tends to remove the wants, and to increase the comforts of the labouring classes, we know that we give expression to sentiments which are dear to your Royal heart; but while we thus sympathize with them in their distresses, and shall rejoice to afford to them every alleviation in our power, we cannot conceal our grief and indignation at those acts of outrage, now so fearfully prevalent, and which are as alien to the character and habits of Englishmen as they are subversive of private security and of public happiness.

At such a moment, Sire, and amidst attempts like these, we are impelled to cherish with a warmer devotion, and to honour with a peculiar homage, those better lessons which we have been taught by one of the most admirable systems of laws and government that ever existed upon earth, and by a religion which came down from heaven.

These principles it is our fixed purpose to uphold and maintain by all the lawful means which Providence has put into our hands. And this our solemn and spontaneous pledge, we publicly record in the face of our King, our Country, and our God.

[Here follow the signatures.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Carnarvon, beg leave to express to your Majesty our unfeigned sorrow and condolence on the loss which your Majesty and the Empire at large have sustained in the lamented death of our late excellent Sovereign, a Prince under whose reign and guidance this country attained, both in peace and war, a degree of splendour and eminence hitherto unequalled, and to whose firmness and perseverance in the great cause in which we were so long engaged, must ever be attributed, under the blessings of Divine Providence, the successful termination of the contest, and restoration of general tranquillity throughout Europe.

Nor is it less incumbent upon us to acknowledge the interest displayed, by His late Majesty, in the encouragement of the more pacific pursuits of literature and science, and in the general welfare of his people.

Whilst, however, we hold the memory of His late Majesty in the deepest veneration, and thus deplore his loss, we look with the highest satisfaction to your Majesty's accession to the Throne, and to the succession of a Prince, whose intimate acquaintance with the manners and habits of his subjects, and whose early education in a profession, the pride and boast of England, so peculiarly endears him to the British Empire; and we earnestly pray, in thus offering our congratulations, that your Majesty, and your Royal Consort, our most gracious Queen, may long enjoy a course of uninterrupted happiness and prosperity, surrounded by the affections of a free, a loyal, and united people.

BOROUGH OF SAINT MAWES.—REPORT.—RIGHT OF ELECTION.

Jovis, 16^o die Decembris, 1830.

Whereas the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the merits of the petition of Laurence Samuel Boyne, Richard Bellman, and Spargo James, Electors, complaining of an undue election and return for the borough of Saint Mawes, in the county of Cornwall, have this day reported to the House of Commons,—That it appeared to the Committee that the merits of the petition did depend, in part, upon the right of election, and that, therefore, the said Committee required the Counsel for the petitioners, and the Counsel for the sitting Members, to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee, statements in writing of the right of election for which they respectively contended; that in consequence thereof, the Counsel for the petitioners delivered in a statement as follows:—“That the right of election is “in the Inhabitant Householders residing within “the borough.”—That the Counsel for the sitting Members delivered in a statement as follows:—“That the right of election in the borough of Saint “Mawes is in the Mayor or Portreeve and Burgesses “of the said borough, being resident Freemen, “sworn and admitted at the Borough and Manor

“Court, or Freeholders whose titles have been “presented at the Borough or Manor Court:”—That upon the statement delivered in by the Counsel for the petitioners, the said Committee have determined, that the right of election as set forth in the said statement, is not the right of election for the said borough:—That upon the statement delivered in by the Counsel for the sitting Members, the said Committee have determined, that the right of election, as set forth in the said statement, is not the right of election for the said borough:—That the said Committee have determined, that the right of election is in the Mayor or Portreeve and Burgesses, being inhabitant householders, residing within the borough, paying scot and lot, and in Freeholders possessed of freeholds in the borough:

I do hereby give this notice, in pursuance of the directions of an Act, made in the ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled “An Act to consolidate and amend “the laws relating to the trial of controverted elections, or returns of Members to serve in Parliament.”

Given under my hand the 16th day of December 1830.

CHARLES MANNERS SUTTON Speaker.

Crown-Office, December 21, 1830.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

County of Montgomery.

The Right Honourable Charles Watkin Williams Wynn.

Whitehall, December 10, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the morning of Monday the 6th day of December instant, about two o'clock, the dwelling-house of Miss Clarke, at Ashby Puerorum, near Horncastle, in the county of Lincoln, was forcibly entered through an upper window by three men, armed with pistols, who broke open the door of Miss Clarke's sleeping-room, and with intimidating threats, demanded and obtained from her all the money in her possession;

His Majesty for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And as a further encouragement a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by Miss Clarke, and a farther reward of FIFTY POUNDS by the Horncastle New Association for the Prosecution of Felons, to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, December 17, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Thursday the 2d, or early on the morning of Friday the 3d, day of December instant, some evil-disposed person or persons unknown entered the premises of Mr. John Jackson, on the Ten Mile-bank, in the parish of Southery, in the county of Norfolk, and maliciously and feloniously stabbed and otherwise injured three foals (two of which have since died), the property of the said John Jackson;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually stabbed the said foals) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWENTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Parish Officers of Southery to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, December 20, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Tuesday the 14th day of December instant, the premises of J. T. Daubuz, Esq. at Layton, in the county of Essex, were maliciously and feloniously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, whereby one stack of wheat and a stack of clover were entirely consumed, and two stacks of oats much injured;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE THOUSAND POUNDS is hereby offered by J. T. Daubuz, Esq. of Finsbury-circus, London, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Custom-House, London, December 17, 1830.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the tenth year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs," it is (amongst other things) enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, after any goods have been entered at the Custom-House, and before the same shall be discharged by the officers and delivered into the custody of the importer, or his agent, to mark or stamp such goods in such manner and form as the said Commissioners may deem fit and proper for the security of the Revenue, and by such officer as they shall direct and appoint for that purpose:

We the undersigned, Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, do hereby give notice, that we have deemed it expedient, and do hereby direct, that all foreign paper hangings imported into the United Kingdom shall, after the entry thereof at the Custom-House, and before the same shall be discharged by the Officers of Customs, be marked and stamped under the provisions of the said Act; and we, the said Commissioners, have caused a stamp to be provided for that purpose.

(Signed) HGE. LEGGE.
S. G. LUSHINGTON.

Greenwich Market.

THE Commissioners of Greenwich-Hospital do hereby give notice, that, in order to give greater accommodation to the public, they have built a new market-place upon a portion of their freehold property, lying between Church-street and King-street, Greenwich, with proper and convenient approaches to the same from Nelson-street, the road near the Infirmary, and the site of a new street proposed to be laid out by the Commissioners of Greenwich-Hospital, parallel with, and to the northward of, Nelson-street, to which will be added another approach to the said new market from Church-street.

And the said new market-place will be opened, and used as a market, at five o'clock in the morning of Saturday the 26th day of March next, and on every subsequent Wednesday and Saturday, from five o'clock in the morning until ten o'clock at night.

That on and from the said 26th day of March, the old market will be discontinued, and removed to the said new market-place.

By order of the Commissioners,
Wm. H. Hooper, Secretary.

THE Creditors (if any) of Peter M'Naughton, otherwise Macnaughtan, late of Princes-Square, St. George's in the East, Clerk at the Leith and Glasgow-Wharf, Lower East Smithfield, London (and who died in the month of April 1823), are required forthwith to send the particulars of their demands to Mr. John Thomas, of Crane-Court, Fleet-Street, Solicitor, otherwise they will be excluded from all benefit of the deceased's estate, a final division whereof will be made by his Executor on the 16th day of February next.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 10th day of March 1830, made in the cause of Short, an infant, by her next friend, versus Pickering and others, before James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Monday the 10th day of January 1831, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon;

A freehold estate, in Fulwood's-Rents, Holborn, nearly opposite Chancery-Lane, in the County of Middlesex, consisting of a timber built house, No. with the appurtenances thereto belonging.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings aforesaid; of Mr. Alexander Milburn, Solicitor, 13, Millman-Street, Bedford-Row; Mr. Tatham, Solicitor, Staples-Inn; and upon the premises.

TO be sold by auction, pursuant to a Decree of the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster, made in a cause Scott v. Dawes, before William Shawe, Esq. Registrar of the said Court, at the house of Mr. John Wilson, the Bridge Inn, within Bolton-le-Moors, in the said County of Lancaster, on Monday the 17th day of January 1831, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, in such lots as shall be then agreed upon, and subject to such conditions as shall be then produced;

All that capital and old established ale and porter brewery, now in full work, situate within Bradshawgale, within Bolton-le-Moors aforesaid, with the engine-house, stables, offices, out-buildings, water, &c. thereto belonging; and all that messuage or dwelling-house, suitable for a respectable family, adjoining the brewery, and now in the occupation of Mr. David Scott.—These premises contain 1140 square yards, or thereabouts, and are held for the remainder of a term of 999 years, subject to the payment of the yearly chief rent of £45.

The above brewery has been long established, and has a most extensive connection in Bolton, and to the distance of twelve miles in the surrounding neighbourhood, and is capable of brewing upwards of 400 barrels per week.

The purchaser (who can have immediate possession) may take the vats, coolers, pans, underbacks, and other fixtures (which are in good condition), at a fair valuation, and the whole may be inspected on application at the brewery.

And also sundry freehold, copyhold, and leasehold messuages, lands, tenements, cottages, chief-rents, and estates, situate, lying, and being, or arising, within the several Townships or places of Bolton-le-Moors, Sharples, Dean-Church within Rumworth, Haslingden, and Tottington, in the said County of Lancaster.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the Registrar's Office, in Preston; and for further information, application may be made to Mr. Thomas Mulliner, Accountant, in Bolton-le-Moors; or at the Office of Mr. Boardman, Solicitor, Bolton-le-Moors.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause wherein Mary Ann Clayton is plaintiff and Richard Nicholl and others are defendants, it was, amongst other things, referred to James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court whether Robert Clayton, late of Maddox-Street, Hanover-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Appraiser, deceased (who died in the month of October 1816), died indebted to any and what amount.—Any person or persons claiming any debt or debts to be due to him; her, or them, from the said intestate at the time of his death, are forthwith required to claim the same before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Neathway v. Ham, it is referred to John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court whom the testator, George Bridge, meant by the description in his will of "Mary Bridge, my cousin, daughter of ———"—The said George Bridge was House-Steward to the Right Honourable Lady Caroline Damer, of Mitton-Abbey, in the County of Dorset, and of Dorchester-House, Park-Lane, in the County of Middlesex (and died in the month of December 1831), and by his will made a bequest in the words following, "I give, devise, and bequeath to Mary Bridge, my cousin, daughter of ———, the sum of £200."—Therefore any person claiming to be such legatee, or the personal representative or representatives of such person, is or are forthwith to come in and establish such claim or claims before the said Master, at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof he, she, or they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
