BOROUGH OF SAINT MAWES.—REPORT.—RIGHT OF ELECTION.

Jovis, 16^o die Decembris, 1830.

Whereas the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the merits of the petition of Laurence Samuel Boyne, Richard Bellman, and Spargo James, Electors, complaining of an undue election and return for the borough of Saint Mawes, in the county of Cornwall, have this day reported to the House of Commons,—That it appeared to the Committee that the merits of the petition did depend, in part, upon the right of election, and that, therefore, the said Committee required the Counsel for the petitioners, and the Counsel for the sitting Members, to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee, statements in writing of the right of election for which they respectively contended; that in consequence thereof, the Counsel for the petitioners delivered in a statement as follows:—“That the right of election is “in the Inhabitant Householders residing within “the borough.”—That the Counsel for the sitting Members delivered in a statement as follows:—“That the right of election in the borough of Saint “Mawes is in the Mayor or Portreeve and Burgesses “of the said borough, being resident Freemen, “sworn and admitted at the Borough and Manor

“Court, or Freeholders whose titles have been “presented at the Borough or Manor Court:”—That upon the statement delivered in by the Counsel for the petitioners, the said Committee have determined, that the right of election as set forth in the said statement, is not the right of election for the said borough:—That upon the statement delivered in by the Counsel for the sitting Members, the said Committee have determined, that the right of election, as set forth in the said statement, is not the right of election for the said borough:—That the said Committee have determined, that the right of election is in the Mayor or Portreeve and Burgesses, being inhabitant householders, residing within the borough, paying scot and lot, and in Freeholders possessed of freeholds in the borough:—I do hereby give this notice, in pursuance of the directions of an Act, made in the ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled “An Act to consolidate and amend “the laws relating to the trial of controverted elections, or returns of Members to serve in Parliament.”

Given under my hand the 16th day of December 1830.

CHARLES MANNERS SUTTON Speaker.

Crown-Office, December 21, 1830.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

County of Montgomery.

The Right Honourable Charles Watkin Williams Wynn.

Whitehall, December 10, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the morning of Monday the 6th day of December instant, about two o'clock, the dwelling-house of Miss Clarke, at Ashby Puerorum, near Horncastle, in the county of Lincoln, was forcibly entered through an upper window by three men, armed with pistols, who broke open the door of Miss Clarke's sleeping-room, and with intimidating threats, demanded and obtained from her all the money in her possession;

His Majesty for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And as a further encouragement a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by Miss Clarke, and a farther reward of FIFTY POUNDS by the Horncastle New Association for the Prosecution of Felons, to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.
