

contained in the last will and testament of the said William Turner, their late maternal grandfather, take and assume and henceforth use the surname of Turner only, and also bear the arms of Turner quarterly with their own family arms; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect.

And His Majesty has further been pleased to command, that this His concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, December 20, 1830.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed William Scrivens the younger, of Hastings, in the county of Sussex, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 17, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Thursday the 20th or early on the morning of Friday the 3d, day of December instant, some evil-disposed person or persons unknown entered the premises of Mr. John Jackson, on the Ten Mile-bank, in the parish of Southery, in the county of Norfolk, and maliciously and feloniously stabbed and otherwise injured three foals (two of which have since died), the property of the said John Jackson;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually stabbed the said foals) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWENTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Parish Officers of Southery to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, December 20, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Tuesday the 14th day of December instant, the premises of J. T. Daubuz, Esq. at Layton, in the county of Essex, were maliciously and feloniously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, whereby one stack of wheat and a stack of clover were entirely consumed, and two stacks of oats much injured;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE THOUSAND POUNDS is hereby offered by J. T. Daubuz, Esq. of Finsbury-circus, London, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.
