

Borough of Lostwithiel.

Ernest Augustus Edgcumbe, Esq. (commonly called Viscount Valletort), of Mount Edgcumbe, in the county of Devon, in the room of the Right Honourable William Fitzgerald Vesey Fitzgerald, who has accepted the Chiltern Hundreds.

Borough of Plympton Earle.

Sir Compton Domville, Bart. of Santey-house, near Dublin, in Ireland, in the room of Viscount Valletort, who has accepted the Chiltern Hundreds.

Whitehall, December 20, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Tuesday the 14th day of December instant, the premises of J. T. Daubuz, Esq. at Layton, in the county of Essex, were maliciously and feloniously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, whereby one stack of wheat and a stack of clover were entirely consumed, and two stacks of oats much injured;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE THOUSAND POUNDS is hereby offered by J. T. Daubuz, Esq. of Finsbury-circus, London, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, December 28, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Thursday the 23d day of December instant, ten persons, armed with guns and other weapons, entered a wood belonging to Sir Thomas Hare, Bart. in the parish of Stow, in the county of Norfolk, for the destruction of game, and that upon the game-keepers repairing to the spot with such assistance as they could collect, two guns were discharged by the said persons at James Weston, a constable of Downham, from the effects of which he died in a short time;

His Majesty for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the persons who fired the said guns) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
