ISLE OF WIGHT LIEUTENANCY.

Newport, January 3, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Meeting of the Lieutenancy of the isle of Wight will be holden at the Guildhall, in Newport, on Thursday the 13th day of January instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, for the purpose of carrying into execution the general laws relating to the militia of this island.

By order of the Right Honourable James Earl of Malmsbury, Governor and Captain-General of the said island,

T. Sewell, Clerk of the General Meetings.

NOTICE is hereby given, that pursuant to an Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-third year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for dividing, allotting and inclosing the open fields, meadows, pastures, and commonable heath grounds within the parish of Normanton, in the county of Rutland," I, Sir Gilbert Heathcote, Baronet, owner or proprietor of lands within the said parish of Normanton, do intend to apply to the Justices at their first Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the county of Rutland, in the week succeeding the close of the Feast of Easter, now next ensuing, to have two persons (not interested in the premises) named by the said Justices then and there assembled to be, together with a third person to be chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees, for enquiring into and ascertaining by the means mentioned in the said Act, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the county of Rutland, for the ten years then last past, or for such other period as the said Act may require, in relation to the premises.—Dated this 1st day of January 1831.

Gilbert Heathcote.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for dividing, allotting, and inclosing the open and common fields, and other commonable and waste lands, within the parish of Baldwin Brightwell, in the county of Oxford," I, William Francis Lowndes Stone, of Baldwin Brightwell aforesaid, Esq. do hereby give notice, that at the first Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the said county of Oxford, in the week after the close of the Feast of Easter now next ensuing, application will be made, conformably with the directions of the said Act, to have two persons named and appointed by the Justices then and there assembled to be, together with a third person to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining from, or by means of, the London Gazette, or otherwise, as in the said Act directed, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat, within the said county of Oxford, for the fourteen years then last past, in order that the said three arbitrators or referees, or the major part them, may, by their report to be made to the Court of Quarter Sessions to be held in the first week after the Feast of Saint Thomas the Martyr then next ensuing, set forth such average price as aforesaid, to the end that the yearly rent or sum payable to the Rector for the time being of the parish of Baldwin Brightwell aforesaid, in lieu of tythes, by the said William Francis Lowndes Stone, or other the owners for the time being, of the allotments of land charged therewith
