TUESDAY, JANUARY 11, 1831.

Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, St. James's, November 25, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Queen has appointed Thursday the 24th of February 1831, for the celebration of Her Majesty's Birth-day, when a Drawing-Room will be held at St. James's-Palace.

The Queen will not require that any Lady who has already been presented, should be presented a second time.

It is expected that all Ladies attending the Drawing-Room will appear in dresses of British manufacture.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 27th day of December 1830,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the eleventh year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to suspend, until the end of the next session of Parliament, the making of lists and the ballots and enrolments of the militia of the United Kingdom," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that any proceedings shall be had at any time before the expiration of such period as aforesaid, either for the giving of notices and making returns and preparing lists, and also for the proceeding to ballot and enrol men for the filling up vacancies in the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part thereof, as His Majesty shall deem expedient; and upon the issuing of any such Order, all such proceedings shall be had for carrying into execution all the provisions of the Acts in force in England, Scotland, and Ireland, respectively, relating to the giving notices for, and return of, lists, and for the balloting and enrolling of men to supply any vacaneies in the militia, and holding general and sub-division meetings for such purpose, at such time respectively as shall be expressed in any such Order in Council, or by any directions given in pursuance thereof to the Lord Lieutenants, or Deputy-Lieutenants acting for Lord Lieutenants, of the several counties, shires, ridings, cities, and places, in Great Britain, or to the Governors and Deputy-Governors of counties and places in Ireland, or to the Warden and Special Deputy-Wardens of the Stannaries, and all the provisions of the several Acts in force in England, Scotland, and Ireland, respectively, relating to the militia and corps of miners of Cornwall and Devon, shall, upon any such order and direction given in pursuance thereof, become and be in full force, and be carried into execution at the period specified in such order or direction as aforesaid, with all such penalties and forfeitures for any neglect thereof, as fully as if such periods had been fixed in the Acts relating to such militia and miners: And whereas it is deemed expedient that proceedings should now be had for holding general and sub-division meetings, for the giving notices, and making returns and preparing lists; and also for the proceeding to ballot and enrol men for filling up vacancies in the militia of Great Britain, it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that within fourteen days in England, and three weeks in Scotland, after the date of this Order, the Lord Lieutenants and Vice-Lieutenants in the several counties, shires, ridings, cities, and places in Great Britain, shall summon, or cause to be summoned, general meetings for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of the Acts now in force in England and Scotland respectively, relating to the giving notices for, and return of lists, and for balloting and enrolling men to supply any vacancies in the militia, within the several periods prescribed by the Acts in that behalf made and provided for the execution of these proceedings respectively, and under all the penalties and forfeitures for the neglect thereof, as are directed by the said Acts respectively.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Commission in the 1st Regiment of Royal Surrey Militia, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Surrey.

Lieutenant and Adjutant Henry Belstead to be Captain, by Brevet. Dated 3d January 1831.

ERRATUM in the Gazette of Friday last.

In the Address from the Cinque Ports, it should be stated to be transmitted by Lieutenant-Colonel Evans, and not Lieutenant-Colonel Jones.

Whitehall, January 6, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about seven o'clock in the evening of Monday the 3d day of January instant, Mr. Thomas Ashton, son of Samuel Ashton, Esq. of Werneth, near Stockport, in the county of Chester, when going to his father's mill, was killed by a pistol shot fired at him by some evil-disposed person unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them except the person who actually fired the said shot, who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by Samuel Ashton, Esq. to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, January 7, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Friday the 31st day of December last, the stack-yards belonging to a farm in the parish of Beccles, in the county of Suffolk, the property of the Earl of Gosford, and in the occupation of Mr. George Fenn, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stack-yards) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Earl of Gosford and his tenant, and a further reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS by the principal inhabitants of Beccles, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, January 7, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the 15th day of December last, the premises of Mr. Joseph Gaskins, of Birmingham, Comb-Manufacturer, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Directors of the Norwich Union Insurance Office to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by Mr. Lovell, Ann-street, Birmingham.

Custom-House, London, January 7, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, pursuant to the directions of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, dated the 4th January 1831, have, under the provisions of the 6th Geo. 4th, chap. 112, approved of the warehouses at the Commercial Dock, situate at Rotherhithe, in the county of Surrey, as granaries of special security for the deposit of corn, grain, meal, and flour, under the regulations and restrictions of the said Act.

T. Whitmore, Secretary to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs.

Navy-Office, January 8, 1831.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st October to the 31st December last, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-

Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 24th, 25th, and 26th of January, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attorneys.

On the 27th, 28th, and 31st of January, and 1st and 2d of February, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attorneys.

On the 3d and 4th of February, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attorneys.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attorneys for that purpose, the said Attorneys are to produce similar affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive half-pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 31st of December last, will commence paying on the 24th instant; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed.

G. Smith, Secretary.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

PROFESSORSHIP OF SANSKRIT, IN THE UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD.

THE late Joseph Boden, Esq. Colonel in the Honourable the East India Company's Service, bequeathed the whole of his property to the University of Oxford, for the establishment of a Professorship and Scholarships in Sanscrit Literature, "being of opinion that a more general and critical knowledge of the Sanscrit language will be a means of enabling his countrymen to proceed in the conversion of the natives of India to the Christian religion, by disseminating a knowledge of the sacred Scriptures amongst them, more effectually than all other means whatsoever."

The election to the Boden Professorship is fixed for Thursday the 15th day of March 1832; the right of election being vested in the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Oxford, in Convocation assembled.

The election to two Boden Scholarships will take place in the Easter Term immediately following the election of a Professor; the right of election being vested in the Regius Professor of Divinity, the Regius Professor of Hebrew, the Laudian Professor of Arabic, the Lord Almoner's Reader in Arabic, and the Boden Professor of Sanscrit.

Persons desirous of obtaining further information relative to the Boden Professorship or Scholarships are requested to apply to the Registrar of the University of Oxford, who will furnish copies of the regulations for this Institution.

Philip Bliss, Registrar of the University.

NOTICE is hereby given, that John Chapman, late of No. 69, Lisson-Grove, in the Parish of Saint Mary-le-Bone, and County of Middlesex, Cheesemonger, did, on the 5th day of January 1831, by a deed of that date, assign his leasehold messuage, goods, chattels, stock in trade and effects unto Joseph North, of No. 82, Great Portland-Street, in the said Parish of Saint Mary-le-Bone, Cheesemonger, in trust for the benefit of the Creditors of the said John Chapman, which said deed now lies at the Office of Mr. J. F. Raimondi, No. 47, Great Portland-Street aforesaid, Attorney at Law, for the perusal and signature of such of the Creditors as shall execute the same before the expiration of two calendar months after this notice; the said deed was executed by the said John Chapman and the said Joseph North, in the presence of John F. Raimondi, of Great Portland-Street aforesaid.—Dated the 8th day of January 1831.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Bradley, Richard Darch, Edward Parry, and James Baddiley, late Copartners in trade, and then carrying on business in the Grove, Great Guildford-Street, in the Borough of Southwark, in the County of Surrey, as Iron and Brass-Founders, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on Wednesday the 2d day of February next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling and disposing of the lease of certain premises late in the occupation of the said Bankrupts, by public auction or private sale as they shall see fit, or confirming or otherwise the sale or sales of the said Bankrupts' estate, that have been made by the Trustee to whom the said Bankrupts assigned their property, previous to the issuing of this Commission which still remains open and unsettled; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts; and to his compounding or submitting to arbitration any disputed account with any debtor of the said Bankrupts' estate, and taking such reasonable part of any debt in discharge of the whole as they shall think fit, and to his giving time or taking security for the payment of any such debt; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignee to take such measures in the arrangement and settlement of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts as to the said Assignee shall seem expedient; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Owen, of Speke, near Liverpool, both in the County of Lancaster, Farmer, Team Owner, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Wednesday the 2d day of February next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Office of Mr. Thomas Toulmin, Solicitor, No. 55, Park-Lane, in Liverpool aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant to investigate and wind up the accounts of the said Bankrupt, and paying him such compensation or allowance for the same as they shall think proper, just and reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees giving up certain household furniture and implements of household and property claimed by Edmund Owen, the particulars of which will be named at such meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees making sale and disposing of such part or parts of the Bankrupt's property and effects as shall not have been sold or disposed of, whether the same may consist of a growing crop on his farm at Speke aforesaid, or otherwise, either by public auction or private contract, or otherwise parting with the same in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees adopting and confirming or surrendering, abandoning and disclaiming, or selling or otherwise disposing of the beneficial interest, or supposed beneficial interest, of the said Bankrupt of and in any lease, agreement or contract entered into by or granted to the Bankrupt of the farm and lands now or lately held by the said Bankrupt, at Speke aforesaid, and upon such terms as they shall see fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees approving, ratifying and confirming all and singular the acts and doings of the provisional Assignee of the said Bankrupt in respect of the sales lately made by him of the Bankrupt's farming stock, teams, timber-carriages and other effects; and also that the Creditors assent to or dissent from the Assignees commencing, prosecuting or defending and discontinuing or referring to arbitration, as they may be advised, any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity regarding the Bankrupt's estate, or any part thereof; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any debt or debts due to the Bankrupt's estate, or any other matter or thing relating thereto; or to their investigating by counsel, or otherwise, any debt that shall have been already proved or claimed, or which may hereafter be claimed, against the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to confirm the payment made by the said Assignees of the servants' wages in full; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying, out of the said Bankrupt's estate, the charges in and about drawing and ingrossing a certain indenture of assignment or deed of composition prepared by the Solicitor to the said Commission at the instance and request of the Creditors of the said Bankrupt after the date and issuing out of the said Commission; and also to confirm all such acts as the said Assignees shall have done previously to the said meeting in and about the affairs of the said Bankrupt; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Hinde, late of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Merchant, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Friday the 4th day of February next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Office of Messrs. Shackleton, Wright, and Hunter, Solicitors, No. 35, in Brunswick-Street, in Liverpool aforesaid, for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said Assignees compromising, adjusting, and settling the account between them and the Assignees of James Sill and William Watson, late of Liverpool aforesaid, Brokers, Bankrupts, agreeably to a statement, which will be laid before, and fully explained to, the said meeting; and with that view to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying, out of the said Bankrupt's effects, the amount now due on the several bills of exchange, which were created or negotiated by the said Thomas Hinde and the said James Sill and William Watson before their respective Bankruptcies, and which now stand as proofs on both estates; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying, out of the said Bankrupt Thomas Hinde's estate, and re-funding to the said Assignees of the said James Sill and William Watson's estate, the dividends they have paid on a certain part of those bills, in order that such bills, or a certain part thereof, may become a set-off against and in part liquidation of the cash balance, due from the said Thomas Hinde to the said James Sill and William Watson, at their respective Bankruptcies; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees submitting to the arbitration of arbitrators, to be chosen by the said Assignees and the major part in value of the Creditors of the said Thomas Hinde, and the Assignees of the said James Sill and William Watson; or otherwise to agree with the Assignees of the said James Sill and William Watson respecting the matters in difference and dispute between them and the said Assignees of the said Thomas Hinde's estate, in such manner as the said Assignees shall think fit.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Robert Thompson, of Leeds, in the County of York, Grocer and Bacon-Factor, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Thursday the 3d day of February next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Messrs. Atkinson and Co. in Leeds, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying or allowing, out of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, certain costs and expences, incurred previous to the issuing of the said Commission, or incidental thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of, to any person or persons, either by public auction or private contract, or at a valuation or valuations, either for ready money or on credit, and with or without security, all, or any part or parts, of the stock in trade, household furniture, and personal estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, at such time and times, and when and where, or in such manner as they shall think expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant, or other person or persons, to take an account of the Bankrupt's stock in trade and other effects, and to investigate and adjust the accounts and affairs of the said Bankrupt, and making an allowance or compensation to such person or persons respectively, for their services, as may appear reasonable to the Assignees; and to confirm and allow the acts of the said Assignees, in having already employed an accountant and other parties, for the purpose aforesaid, and having remunerated them for their said services; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignees to act for the benefit of the Creditors as they may think fit and advisable; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against George Kettel, of Tunbridge Wells, in the County of Kent, Corn-Dealer, Dealer and Chapman, are rerequested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 4th day of February next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing the said Bankrupt, or any other person, as they shall think fit to collect in the several debts due to the estate, and to make him or them reasonable compensation for doing the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees entering into any compromise with any debtor or debtors to the estate, for or respecting the payment of his or their debts, and to allow time for the payment thereof, as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing or prosecuting any suit or suits at law or equity, for the protection, recovery, or defence of any part of the Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all the Bankrupt's real and personal estate and effects, either by public or private sale, and either to the Bankrupt or any other person, and to their giving such credit, and taking such security, as they shall think fit; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt, dated the 6th day of November 1810, awarded and issued forth against James Sill and William Watson, late of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Merchants, Copartners, Brokers, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Wednesday the 2d day of February next, at Twelve o'clock at Noon, at the Clarendon Buildings, in South John-Street, in Liverpool, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees entering into a certain compromise and arrangement for the amicable settlement of all accounts, claims, demands, and disputes (and of all proceedings at law or in equity, or before the Lord High Chancellor) between the said Assignees and the Assignees of the estate and effects of Thomas Hinde, a Bankrupt, the particulars of which said compromise and arrangement will be stated and explained to the meeting; and for the purpose of facilitating such compromise and arrangement, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees of the estate of the said Bankrupts James Sill and William Watson, submitting to arbitration any questions or disputes relating to such accounts, claims, and demands; and on special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Joseph Fielding and Jeremiah Fielding, of Catterall, and also of Manchester, both in the County of Lancaster, Calico-Printers, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on Wednesday the 2d day of February next, at Eleven o'clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Mr. Brackenbury, in Spring Gardens, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees ratifying, confirming, and allowing, all or any of the sales, contracts, payments, or other acts made or done by the provisional Assignee of the said Bankrupts' estate under the said Commission prior to the choice of the said Assignees; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all or any part of the real and personal estates of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, either by public auction or private contract, at such time and place, and in such manner, and either to the said Bankrupts, or either of them, or any other person or persons, and upon such terms and conditions, as the said Assignees may deem most advantageous and proper, and either for ready money or upon credit, and if the latter, with such security for payment as the said Assignees may think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying, out of the funds arising from the said Bankrupts' estate, certain sums of money claimed by certain persons, to be named at the said meeting, as rent or as compensation for the occupation of certain premises in Manchester, and at Catterall aforesaid, lately occupied by the said Bankrupts; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying or satisfying certain claims made by or on the behalf of certain persons lately the apprentices, servants, or workmen of the said Bankrupts; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying, out of the funds of the said Bankrupts' estate, certain costs, charges, and expences incurred by certain of the Creditors of the said Bankrupts prior to the choice of the said Assignees in taking the opinions of counsel, and in other measures adopted by them in relation to the said Bankrupts' estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees retaining, relinquishing, or giving up any leasehold interest or interests possessed by the said Bankrupts, or either of them, at the time of their Bankruptcy, in any hereditaments or premises; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing such accountants, agents, clerks, or other persons, in or about the winding up and settlement of the affairs of the said estate, as to them may appear proper and necessary; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits, at law or in equity, or preferring or opposing any petition or petitions to the Lord Chancellor, for the recovery, defence, or protection of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, or either of them; or to the said Assignees compounding, compromising, or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and also on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Abraham Lyon and Nathan Jacob Calisher, of Birmingham, in the County of Warwick, and of George-Street, Jewry-Street, in the City of London, Partners in trade, Wholesale Jewellers, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on the 2d day of February next, at Twelve o'clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of, either by public auction or private contract, and for ready money or upon credit, of the stock in trade, household furniture, and other the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, as to the said Assignees may seem best for the benefit of the estate; and also to the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or suits at law, or in equity, touching or relating to the said Bankrupts' estate and effects; or to their compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter, cause, or thing relating thereto; and to their employing an accountant, and to their authorising the said Bankrupt, or any other person or persons, to collect the debts due to the estate; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued forth against Henry Harland, of Fell-Street, Cripplegate, within the City of London, Livery Stable-Keeper, Licensed Victualler, Dealer and Chapman, and he being declared a Bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major part of them, on the 21st of January instant, at Three in the Afternoon precisely, on the 25th day of the same month, and on the 22d day of February next, at Eleven o'clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the second sitting to choose Assignees, and at the last sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate. Glasgow, January 5, 1831.

JOHAN BERRY, Merchant, in Glasgow, Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Barclay and Drysdale, and of the said James Drysdale, hereby intimates, that states of the affairs of the said Barclay and Drysdale will remain in his hands, for the inspection of the Creditors, until the 8th day of February next, when a first and final dividend will be paid to those Creditors who have proved their debts, in terms of the Statute.

To the Creditors of Alexander Campbell, Power-Loom Manufacturer, in Brock-Street of Bridgeton, Glasgow.

No. 42, Millar-Street, Glasgow, January 5, 1831.

ALEXANDER MEIN, Accountant, in Glasgow, the voluntary Trustee of the said Alexander Campbell, hereby requires those Creditors who have not lodged their claims, and oaths of verity to the justness thereof, with him, to do so on or before the 5th of February next; under certification, that if they fail, they will be cut out from any share of the funds realised from the estate.

And the said Alexander Mein further intimates, that on Tuesday the 8th of February next, a first and final dividend will be paid, from the funds realised, to those Creditors, who, previous to the 5th of February, shall have proved their debts in terms of the trust-deed and relative deed of accession.

INTIMATION.

Edinburgh, January 7, 1831.

THAT the Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills has this day sequestrated the estates, real and personal, of George Milne, Drysalter, in Glasgow, and appointed his Creditors to meet within the Stirling-Square Coffee-House, in Glasgow, upon Saturday the 15th day of January current, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, to name an Interim Factor; and at the same place and hour, upon Monday the 31st day of January current, to name a Trustee.—Of which notice is hereby given, in terms of the Statute.

Notice to the Creditors of William Whyte, Flesher and Cattle-Dealer, in Kinross.

Edinburgh, January 7, 1831.

THE Lord Newton, Ordinary officiating on the Bills, has this day sequestrated the whole estate and effects of the said William Whyte, in terms of the Statute, and appointed his Creditors to meet in Kirkland's Inn, Kinross, on Monday the 17th of January current, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, for the purpose of choosing an Interim Factor; and on Thursday the 3d day of February next, at the same place and hour, to choose a Trustee on the said sequestrated estate.—Of all which notice is hereby given, in terms of the Statute.

Notice to the Creditors of Robert Winter, Jeweller, South-bridge, Edinburgh.

AT a meeting of the said Creditors, held on the 6th day of January instant, the Bankrupt made offer of a composition of five shillings per pound on the debts due by him at the date of the sequestration, payable with security at six and nine months after the date of approval thereof by the Court of Session, which offer being unanimously entertained by the Creditors present, the Trustee was directed to call another meeting for the purpose of finally deciding thereon, with or without amendment.

The Trustee therefore hereby intimates, that another meeting of the Creditors of the said Robert Winter, is to be held for the above purpose, within the Rainbow Coffee-House, New Buildings, North Bridge, Edinburgh, on Monday the 31st day of January instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon,—Of which notice is hereby given in terms of the Statute.
