

day the 11th day of January instant, the said Mr. Sharrock received a threatening letter;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in throwing the vitriol as aforesaid, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by Mr. Sharrock, to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders concerned in throwing the vitriol, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, January 20, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the morning of Saturday the 15th day of January instant, a barn, in the possession of Mr. John Freeman, in the parish of Drayton, in the county of Somerset, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of EIGHTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Parish Officers of Drayton.

Whitehall, January 25, 1831.

WHEREAS a reward of one thousand pounds was offered in the London Gazette, of the 21st of December last, to be paid by John Theophilus Daubuz, Finsbury-circus, London, to any person giving such information as should cause the apprehension and conviction of the person or persons who, on the night of the 14th of the said month of December, set fire to a stack or stacks on the premises of the said John Theophilus Daubuz, at Low Layton, in the county of Essex; and whereas no information hath been obtained tending to the discovery of such offenders; notice is hereby given, that the said John Theophilus Daubuz hath withdrawn, and doth hereby withdraw, the aforesaid offer of reward, and that the same will not be paid after the date hereof.
