Whitehall, January 20, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the morning of Saturday the 15th day of January instant, a barn, in the possession of Mr. John Freeman, in the parish of Drayton, in the county of Somerset, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of EIGHTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Parish Officers of Drayton.

Whitehall, January 25, 1831.

WHEREAS a reward of one thousand pounds was offered in the London Gazette, of the 21st of December last, to be paid by John Theophilus Daubuz, Finsbury-circus, London, to any person giving such information as should cause the apprehension and conviction of the person or persons who, on the night of the 14th of the said month of December, set fire to a stack or stacks on the premises of the said John Theophilus Daubuz, at Low Layton, in the county of Essex; and whereas no information hath been obtained tending to the discovery of such offenders; notice is hereby given, that the said John Theophilus Daubuz hath withdrawn, and doth hereby withdraw, the aforesaid offer of reward, and that the same will not be paid after the date hereof.

Whitehall, January 26, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about seven o'clock in the evening of Saturday the 22d day of January instant, a rick of barley, on the premises of Henry Selfe, of Amesbury, in the county of Wilts, was feloniously and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said rick) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by Sir Edmund Antrobus, Bart. to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, January 27, 1831.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, in the evening of the 12th instant, a party of armed smugglers feloniously assembled on the sea shore, near the Marine-parade, Dover, and were aiding and assisting in the illegal landing, running, and carrying away uncustomed goods; and that Lieutenant Thomas Ross and Joseph Jacobs, a sentinel, both belonging to His Majesty's ship Talavera, were assaulted by some of the said smugglers, and the Lieutenant was violently beaten and bruised by them;

His Majesty, for the better discovering the persons who have been guilty of this felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one or more of the persons so assembled (except those who actually committed violence on the said Lieutenant on this occasion) who shall discover his accomplices, so that they may be apprehended and brought to justice.

MELBOURNE.

And the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty hereby offer a reward of FIFTY POUNDS to be paid and distributed to and amongst any persons (except as aforesaid) who shall give such information to Captain Pigot, of His Majesty's ship Talavera, or to any of the Officers of the said ship, as shall lead to the discovery, apprehension, and conviction of the said offenders.—Such reward to be payable by Mr. Charles Jones, the Solicitor of the Admiralty and Navy, on the conviction of the said offenders, or any of them.

GEO. ELLIOT.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for inclosing lands in the parish of Whiston, in the county of York," the undersigned, Sir George Sitwell, of Remshaw-hall, in the county of Derby, Bart. (an owner and proprietor of lands and estates in the said parish of Whiston, subjected to the payment of corn or tithe rent under the said Act, and as such assessed to the poor's rate of the said parish, at the sum of £100 per annum and upwards) doth intend, in pursuance of a power by the said Act given to such owners and proprietors, to apply at the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden in and for the west riding of the county of York, in the week after the Feast of Easter now next ensuing (being the first Easter Sessions which will be holden in and for the said riding after the expiration of the second term of seven years from the first fixing and making an order for payment of the said corn rents), to have two persons named and appointed by the Justices of the Peace assembled at the said Sessions, to be (with a third person to be named and chosen by such two persons) arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining, by or from, or by means of, the London Gazette, the average price of a bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of York, for the seven years then last past; which said three arbitrators or referees, or the major part of them, shall, by their report to be made and delivered at the Court of Quarter Sessions to be holden in and for the said west riding in the first week after the Feast of the Translation of St. Thomas the Martyr then next ensuing, set forth such average price; and in case it shall by such report appear, that such average price is more or less than the average price set forth at the second and last fixing of the said price, by the value of 3d. or upwards per bushel, then the said yearly corn or tithe rents or sums of money shall be increased or diminished, as shall be declared by order of the said Court; and the same shall, from the quarterly day of payment preceding such order, remain and continue issuing and payable out of the several lands and estates charged by the said award with such yearly rents or sums of money, until the same shall, at or after the end of seven years then next ensuing, be again varied by such application, and in such manner as thereinbefore mentioned.—Dated this 14th day of January 1831.

George Sitwell.

Navy-Office, January 25, 1831.

CHAPLAINS' BOUNTY.

MONEY being in the hands of the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy to pay Bounty for the year 1830, to such Chaplains of the Royal Navy as are entitled thereto under His Majesty's Order in Council, bearing date the 1st February 1765, 1st February 1784, and 22d October 1802, and who have been entered upon the list by virtue of the papers they have respectively transmitted to this Office; notice is hereby given, that the payment of the same will commence at the Pay-Office, Somerset-place, on the 1st day of February next, at eleven o'clock in the morning. And it is desired that in future, the Chaplains entitled to the Bounty will, as soon as it may become due, cause their affidavits to be delivered into this Office, in order to expedite the payment.
