Whitehall, January 31, 1831.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Sir Robert Hugh Kennedy, Knt. Commissary-General of the Forces, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he may accept and wear the insignia of a Knight Commander of the Royal Portuguese Military Order of the Tower and Sword, which His late Most Faithful Majesty John the Sixth, King of Portugal, was graciously pleased to confer upon that Officer, in testimony of His royal approbation of his distinguished conduct during the Peninsular war:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, January 25, 1831.

WHEREAS a reward of one thousand pounds was offered in the London Gazette, of the 21st of December last, to be paid by John Theophilus Daubuz, Finsbury-circus, London, to any person giving such information as should cause the apprehension and conviction of the person or persons who, on the night of the 14th of the said month of December, set fire to a stack or stacks on the premises of the said John Theophilus Daubuz, at Low Layton, in the county of Essex; and whereas no information hath been obtained tending to the discovery of such offenders; notice is hereby given, that the said John Theophilus Daubuz hath withdrawn, and doth hereby withdraw, the aforesaid offer of reward, and that the same will not be paid after the date hereof.

Whitehall, January 26, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about seven o'clock in the evening of Saturday the 22d day of January instant, a rick of barley, on the premises of Henry Selfe, of Amesbury, in the county of Wilts, was feloniously and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said rick) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by Sir Edmund Antrobus, Bart. to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, January 27, 1831.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, in the evening of the 12th instant, a party of armed smugglers feloniously assembled on the sea shore, near the Marine-parade, Dover, and were aiding and assisting in the illegal landing, running, and carrying away uncustomed goods; and that Lieutenant Thomas Ross and Joseph Jacobs, a sentinel, both belonging to His Majesty's ship Talavera, were assaulted by some of the said smugglers, and the Lieutenant was violently beaten and bruised by them;

His Majesty, for the better discovering the persons who have been guilty of this felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one or more of the persons so assembled (except those who actually committed violence on the said Lieutenant on this occasion) who shall discover his accomplices, so that they may be apprehended and brought to justice. MELBOURNE.

And the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty hereby offer a reward of FIFTY POUNDS to be paid and distributed to and amongst any persons (except as aforesaid) who shall give such information to Captain Pigot, of His Majesty's ship Talavera, or to any of the Officers of the said ship, as shall lead to the discovery, apprehension, and conviction of the said offenders.—Such reward to be payable by Mr. Charles Jones, the Solicitor of the Admiralty and Navy, on the conviction of the said offenders, or any of them. GEO. ELLIOT.

Whitehall, February 1, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about six o'clock in the evening of Thursday the 27th day of January last, a stack containing forty tons of fodder, belonging to Mr. Edward Jones, of Shiffnal Manor Farm, and standing in one of his fields, adjoining the turnpike road leading from Shiffnal to Bridgenorth, in the county of Salop, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire and destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them except the person who actually set fire to the said stack), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Treasurer of the Shiffnal Association for the Prosecution of Felons.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given to the said Prisoner, in writing, three clear days before the day of hearing, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of giving such notice and of the said day of hearing.

2. But in the case of a Prisoner, whom his Creditors have removed, by an order of the Court, from a gaol in or near London for hearing in the country, such notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

3. The petition and schedule will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, at the Office of the Court in London, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, between the hours of Ten and Four; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-Street, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields.

4. The duplicate of the petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced for inspection and examination by the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other person with whom the same shall have been directed to be lodged for such purpose, at the Office of such Clerk of the Peace or other person; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be there provided according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 77, or the Act, 5 Geo. 4, c. 61, sec. 11, as the case may be.

NOTICE.

THE Creditors of John Shoveler, of the Parish of Bishopsbourne, in the County of Kent, Cordwainer, an Insolvent Debtor, who obtained his discharge under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled, "An Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England," are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Insolvent's estate, at the Office of Mr. Robert Furley, Solicitor, Saint Margaret's-Street, Canterbury, on Thursday the 17th day of February instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling, by private contract, the messuage or tenement, workshop, and premises, situate at Bishopsbourne aforesaid, and lately occupied by the said Insolvent.
