Whitehall, February 3, 1831.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto the Most Honourable Spencer-Joshua Alwyne Marquess and Earl of Northampton, Earl Compton, and Baron of Wilmington, on behalf of Charles Compton, commonly called Earl Compton, a minor, his eldest son and heir apparent, by Margaret his late Marchioness, who was the eldest daughter and coheir of William Douglas McClean Clephane, of Torloisk, in North Britain, Esq. late a Major-General in the Army; deceased, the eldest son and heir of George Clephane, late of Carslogie, in the shire of Fife, Esq. by Ann Jean his wife, the only child of the Reverend Robert Douglas, Minister of Portmoak, in the shire of Kinross, by Helen his wife, who was the sister of Isobel Douglas, of Kirkness, in the said county, spinster, all deceased, His royal licence and authority that his said son, Charles Compton, commonly called Earl Compton, may, in compliance with a proviso contained in a deed of entail made by the aforesaid Isobel Douglas, take and use the surname of Douglas, in addition to and before that of Compton; that he may use the designation of Kirkness; and also bear the arms of Douglas quarterly with those of Compton, Douglas in the second quarter; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, January 31, 1831.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Edward Browning, of Redditch, in the county of Worcester, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, February 1, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about six o'clock in the evening of Thursday the 27th day of January last, a stack containing forty tons of fodder, belonging to Mr. Edward Jones, of Shiffnal Manor Farm, and standing in one of his fields, adjoining the turnpike road leading from Shiffnal to Bridgenorth, in the county of Salop, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire and destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stack), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he,

she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Treasurer of the Shiffnal Association for the Prosecution of Felons.

Whitehall, February 7, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Sunday the 23d day of January last, two corn stacks standing in the village of Benningholme, near Hull, in the county of York, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire and destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stack) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by Robert Harrison, Esq. Banker, of Hull, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, February 7, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the 30th day of January last, a barley-stack, a pea-stack, and two clover-stacks, the property of Mr. Joseph Crawley, of the Hole Farm, in the parish of Standon, in the county of Hertford, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stacks) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by Admiral Goselin, of Bengeo-hall, near Hertford.

Whitehall, February 7, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about six o'clock in the evening of Friday the 4th day of February instant, a farmhouse, barn, and stables, in the occupation of William Brunsdon, in the parish of Burghclere, in the county of Hants, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire and destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.—Such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

MELBOURNE.

Whitehall, February 8, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about six o'clock in the evening of Thursday the 20th day of January last, the premises of Sir James Fellowes, of Adburyhouse, near Newbury, in the county of Berks, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, whereby two barns, containing corn and straw, together with cart, stable, and cattle-sheds, were entirely consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

MELBOURNE.

Whitehall, February 8, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Sunday the 30th day of January last, the premises of Mr. George Moorly, of Aston-upon-Trent, in the county of Derby, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

PURSUANT to an Order of His Honour the President of the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice for the United Colony of Demerara and Essequibo, bearing date the 2d of October 1830;

I, the undersigned, Deputy First Marshal, in the name and behalf of Thomas Hubbard, substituted by Julia Maria Crawford, Executrix to the last will and testament of Rachael Wachope, late of this Colony, deceased, do hereby, by edict, ad valvas curiæ, summon all known and unknown European Creditors of the estate of the said Rachael Wachope, deceased, to appear in person, or by their Attorney, before the Bar of the Honourable Counsellor Commissary attending at the Ordinary fourteen days Roll-Court, to be holden at the Court-House, in George-Town Demerary, in the latter part of the month of May 1831, and following days, in order then and there to render in their claims, properly attested and substantiated and in due form, against said estate.

Whereas in default of which be proceeded against the non-appears according to law.—Demerara and Essequibo, the 27th of November 1830.

J. D. HALEY, Deputy First Marshal.

DEMERARY AND ESSEQUEBO.

THE undersigned, in the capacity as Deputy First Marshal of the United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, advertises, by these presents, for the first, second, and third time, that he will, by virtue of certain sentences of the Honourable Court of Civil Justice of said United Colony, expose and sell, at public execution sale, the following plantations, with their cultivations, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances, viz.

Firstly.—In the month of September 1831, the sugar plantation Taymouth Manor, situated on the west coast of Essequibo, the property of Edward Barnwell.

Secondly.—In the month of December 1831, the sugar plantation New Tyhe, formerly known as Plantation Doornvreedre, situated on Troolie Island, Essequibo River, the property of William Crichton.

Thirdly.—In the month of January 1832, the sugar plantation La Nouvelle Flandu, situated on the west coast of Demerary, the property of the heirs of de L'Escaille.

The judicium of præ et concurrentiæ on the net proceeds of the above sales will be held by the said Honourable Court of Justice three months after the respective days of sale, for which reason all those who may pretend to have any right, title, or interest to the net proceeds of said plantations, are herewith, by him the undersigned, Deputy First Marshal of said United Colony, summoned to appear in person, or by their Attorneys, to lay their claims, in due form, before the Honourable Court of Justice of the said United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, at their Ordinary Sessions, as follows, in the month of December 1831, for Plantation Taymouth Manor; and in the month of April 1832, for Plantations New Tyhe and La Nouvelle Flandu, under a penalty that against the non-appears will be proceeded as the law directs.

The inventories of the above stated plantations are daily to be seen at the Counting-House of Messrs. Hall, M'Garel, and Co. No. 7, Austin-Friars, London, and P. T. Le Jolle, Esq. Amsterdam.—Demerary and Essequibo, this 29th November 1830.

(Signed)

J. D. HALEY, Deputy First Marshal.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of M'Creery against Booth, dated the 21st May 1822, it was referred to William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to take an account of what was due to the several Creditors of the late firm of Roscoe, Clarke, and Roscoe, of Liverpool, Bankers, under certain agreements of the 15th of January and 3d of March 1819 (whereby the payment of the first and second instalments of three shillings and fourpence each on the debts of the said Creditors, with interest, was secured to the said Creditors) in taking which account the said Master was to distinguish what was due on the said first and second instalments, and interest, by the said agreement provided to be paid; and whereas a list or schedule has been laid before the said Master, which is alleged to contain the names of all the Creditors of the said firm, and the amounts of their respective debts, and distinguishing the amounts which remained due for the first and second instalments and interest thereof respectively; and whereas a copy of the said list or schedule has been, by direction of the said Master, left for public inspection with Messrs. Eden and Son, Solicitors to the Assignees under the Commission of Bankrupt issued against the said firm, at their Office, in Leigh-Street, Liverpool; notice is hereby given, that all Creditors of the said firm other than those mentioned in the said list or schedule, or claiming to be Creditors under the said agreement, and to be unpaid their first and second instalments and interest, or any part thereof, are by their Solicitors, on or before the 1st day of April next, to come in, make, and establish their said claims, before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof, they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause wherein Henry Quilliam and others are plaintiffs, and Henry Shaw and others are defendants, it was referred to James Trower, Esq., one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire, and state to the Court, whether John Quilliam, otherwise Cullion, of Ulverstone, in the County of Lancaster, Gentleman, the testator in the pleadings of this cause named, who died on or about the 10th day of February 1809, died seized of any real or customary estate which did not pass by his will; and whether the real estate devised by his will was subject to any and what incumbrances at the death of the said testator; and in whom the same, if any, are now vested; and whether any, and which, of such incumbrances have or hath been paid off, and when, and by whom, and out of what fund; and whether the real estates of the said testator, or any part thereof, are now subject to any and what incumbrances, and what is now due thereon, and to whom; and the said Master was to state the priorities of such incumbrances respectively, and whether the children of the said testator, or any and which of them, have or hath incumbered their, or his, or her, shares or share of the estate and funds, comprised in the said testator's will, or in the indenture of the 17th day of February 1794, in the pleadings mentioned; and what is due thereon, and to whom: Therefore all persons claiming to have any such incumbrances, are, on or before the 1st day of April next, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out their claims, or, in default thereof, they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Jewell versus Lawrence, it was referred to the Honourable Robert Henley Eden, now the Right Honourable Robert Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court, whether there are any and what Creditors of the Reverend Charles Dayman, formerly of Poundstock, in the County of Cornwall, Clerk, an Insolvent Debtor, other than those who are mentioned in the schedule rendered by the said Charles Dayman to the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, who are interested in certain trust property conveyed by the said Charles Dayman for the benefit of his Creditors; therefore all persons claiming to be such Creditors, other than as aforesaid, are, on before the 27th day of February 1831, to come in and prove their debts before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

A copy of the schedule rendered by the said Charles Dayman to the Insolvent Debtors' Court may be seen (gratis) at the Office of Mr. Edward Pearce, Solicitor, Bodmin, Cornwall, and of Messrs. Price and Bolton, No. 1, New-Square, Lincoln's-Inn, London.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Viollet against Searle, it was referred to James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court who would have been the Next of Kin of Henry Jackson, late of Hatton-Garden, in the County of Middlesex, Gentleman, deceased (who died in the month of January 1822), in case he left no child or children, and whether such next of kin were then living or dead, and if dead who was or were his, her, or their legal personal representative or representatives.—Any person or persons claiming to be such next of kin, or the legal personal representative or representatives of such of them as may be dead, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 1st day of March 1831, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove their claims, or in default thereof he, she, or they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause wherein John Bell Hardwick and others are plaintiffs, and William Richardson and others are defendants, the Next of Kin of William Hardwick, late of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Silversmith (who died in the month of July 1777), living at the time of his death, or the legal personal representatives of any of them who may have since died, and also the heir at law of the said William Hardwick, are to come in and prove their kindred before Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 1st day of March 1831, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause wherein John Bell Hardwick and others are plaintiffs, and William Richardson and others are defendants, the Creditors of William Hardwick, late of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Silversmith (who died in the month of July 1777), are to come in and prove their debts before Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 1st day of March 1831, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause wherein John Riggs Miller (an infant) by his next friend is the plaintiff, and John Moore Travers and others are defendants, the Creditors of Sir John Riggs Miller, Baronet, formerly of Swalciffe-House, near Banbury, in the County of Oxford, and of Bally-Casey, in the County of Clare, in Ireland, and late of Ballington, in the County of Northampton (who died on the 2d day of August 1825), are to come in and prove their debts before Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 1st day of March 1831, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Reeks against Reeks, the Creditors of Thomas Reeks, late of West Parley, in the County of Dorset, Yeoman (who died in December 1822), are, on or before the 12th day of March next, to come in and prove their debts before Sir Giffin Wilson, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Sheldon v. Sheldon, the Creditors of Thomas Sheldon, late of Cheltenham, in the County of Gloucester, Hotel and Boarding-House-Keeper, deceased (who died in the month of November 1828), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 14th day of March next, to come in and prove their debts before John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Cooper against Jones, the Creditors of William Cooper, late of High-Street, Mary-le-Bone, and of Hampstead, in the County of Middlesex, Brush-Maker (who died in or about the month of April 1826), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 8th day of March 1831, to come in and prove their debts before William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
