[Extract from the Edinburgh Gazette of February 8, 1831.]

NOTICE.

Edinburgh, 64, Princes-Street,
January 29, 1831.

MR. CHARLOTTE EWART and the other Trustees of the late Robert Ewart, Saddler, Princes-Street, Edinburgh, hereby give notice, that from and after the 1st day of January 1831, they ceased to have any concern in the Saddlery business carried on at No. 64, Princes-Street, the stock in trade having that day been disposed of to Robert Brunton Ewart, eldest son of the late Robert Ewart.—Those having claims against the late concern are therefore requested to lodge the same for payment with Mr. Charles B. Scott, W. S. who is also authorised to discharge all claims due to the said Robert Ewart's trust-estate.

*Charlotte Ewart,
John Learmonth,
Saml. Morton,
Trustees.*

CHAS. B. SCOTT, W. S. witness.

ALEX. GOODLET, Saddler, Edinburgh, witness.

London, February 7, 1831.

IF James Turton, born in the East Indies, but who came to England for his education, and it is understood went to sea about the year 1823, is alive, he will hear of something to his advantage, by applying to Messrs. Spottiswoode and Robertson, 16, Great George-Street, Westminster.

ALL persons having any claims or demands upon the estate of the Right Honourable William Horace Pitt Rivers Lord Rivers, lately deceased, are requested to send an account thereof to Messrs. Young and Jackson, Solicitors, 12, Essex-Street, Strand.
