

Parish of Saint Giles without, Cripplegate, in the City of London, Builders, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Wednesday the 9th day of March next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to authorise the said Assignees to sell and dispose of, by public sale or private contract, all or any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, at such times and places and in such manner, in all respects, as the said Assignees may in their discretion think proper; to make any arrangement with the different Mortgagees of the said Bankrupt's property, either by redeeming the mortgages or agreeing to a sale by auction or private contract, or otherwise, as the Assignees may be able to agree on, and as they in their discretion may think most advantageous; to settle accounts with the Mortgagees; to effect insurances on any property of the said Bankrupts, or either of them; to commence, prosecute or defend any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity; to authorise the Assignees to present or appear to any petition that may be presented touching the estate of the said Bankrupts, or either of them; to compound, settle, and compromise any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, and also any debt or debts, claim or claims, due to the estate of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, and to take any reasonable part of any debt in discharge of the whole, or to give time or take security for the payment of any such debt or claim; to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of all or any part of the property and effects of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, to the said Bankrupts, or either of them, at a valuation, and to give time or take security for the payment thereof; to take any opinion of Counsel that may be advised by their Solicitors; to submit any disputes between the said Assignees and any person or persons touching any matters relating to the estate of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, or any actions or suits at law or in equity to arbitration; to pay the wages of clerks or servants, to make an allowance to the said Bankrupts, or either of them, and to confirm any payments already made by the Assignees to them while in prison; to employ an accountant, or any other person or persons, to investigate the accounts of the estate of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, as they may think proper, and make him such compensation for services already bestowed, and hereafter to be bestowed, as they may see expedient; and generally to take such proceedings in and about the affairs and management of the estate as they in their judgment may deem proper and advantageous.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Parkin, Edward Rees Thomas, and John Desbrow Walford, of Fenchurch-Street, in the City of London, Brokers, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Thursday the 10th day of March next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to authorize the Assignees to sell and dispose of, either by public sale or private contract, all or any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, or any or either of them which may at any time come to the hands of the said Assignees, and at such times and places, and in such manner in all respects as the said Assignees may in their discretion think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees effecting insurances on any goods or property of the said Bankrupts, or either of them; to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, against any person or persons whomsoever; to authorize the said Assignees to present or appear to any petition that may be presented, touching the estate of the said Bankrupts, or either of them; to compound, settle, and compromise any action or actions, or suit or suits, at law or in equity; to compound, settle, and compromise any debt or debts, claim or claims, due to the estate of the said Bankrupts, or either of them; and to take any reasonable part of any debt in discharge of the whole, or to give time or take security for the payment of any such debt or claim; to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of all or any part of the property and effects of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, to the said Bankrupts, or either of them, at a valuation, and to give time, or take security for the payment thereof; to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees giving up to the Bankrupt, Edward Rees Thomas, the whole of his separate property to him, or any part thereof; to give up any separate property of the Bankrupt John Desbrow Walford; to give up and abandon any leases of any property held by the Bankrupts, or either of them; to pay the late Solicitor of the Bankrupts his bill of charges, upon receiving the several documents held by him; to make any arrangement with the firm of Nicholls and Co. of Barnstable, or the Creditors of that firm, as to any interest which the Bankrupt John Parkin may have therein, or otherwise in relation thereto, as the Assignees may think fit; to take any opinions of Counsel they may be advised by their Solicitors; to submit any disputes, between the said Assignees and any persons, touching any matter relating to the estate of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, or any actions or suits at law or in equity, to arbitration; to pay the wages of the clerks or servants; to employ an accountant or any other person, and make such remuneration to one of the Assignees, for his trouble as an accountant, in investigating the accounts of the estate of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, as they may think proper, as well for his services already bestowed, as hereafter to be bestowed; and generally to take such proceedings in and about the affairs and management of the estate as they in their judgment may deem proper and advantageous.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the law, relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that Declarations were filed on the 14th day of February 1831, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by THOMAS LEWIS, of the King's-Road, Chelsea, in the County of Middlesex, Builder, Dealer and Chapman, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

SAMUEL BACKLER, of No. 81, Saint James's-Street, in the Parish of Saint James, Westminster, in the County of Middlesex, Tobacconist, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt, bearing date on or about the 4th day of August 1826, was awarded and issued forth against James Heane, of the City of Gloucester, Brick-Maker, Dealer and Chapman; this is to give notice, that the said Commission is, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, superseded.