Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, St. James's, November 25, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Queen has appointed Thursday the 24th of February 1831, for the celebration of Her Majesty's Birth-day, when a Drawing-Room will be held at St. James's-Palace.

The Queen will not require that any Lady, who has already been presented, should be presented a second time.

It is expected that all Ladies attending the Drawing-Room will appear in dresses of British manufacture.

Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, Queen's-House, St. James's, January 28, 1831.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE DRAWING-ROOMS, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

THE Ladies who propose to attend the Drawing-Room to be held on Thursday the 24th of February next, are requested to bring two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Queen's Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the names to Her Majesty. And those Ladies who are to be presented are hereby informed, that it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Lady who is to present them, should be sent in to the Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, before twelve o'clock on Saturday the 19th of February, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation, it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentations at the Drawing-Room shall be made through the Lord Chamberlain, unless the name of the Lady presenting, with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered, as before directed, corresponding with the names sent in to the Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen.

No Lady can be received by Her Majesty, but in conformity with the above regulations.

Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, St. James's, January 12, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Queen will hold Drawing-Rooms, at St. James's-Palace, on the following days:

AT the Court at Brighton, the 31st day of January 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Saint George, in the island of Grenada, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Saint George, in the island of Grenada, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. C. C. Greville.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Tuesday the 8th day of February instant, a straw-rick, standing in the rick-yard of Mr. Robert Lyford, of Steventon, near Abingdon, in the county of Berks, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the
felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them except the person who actually set fire to the said rick), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of
ONE HUNDRED and FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the inhabitants of Steventon,
to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he,

she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on application to Thomas Frankum, Esq. Solicitor, of Abingdon.

Whitehall, February 18, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between the hours of half past twelve and seven o'clock on the morning of the 13th day of February instant, the dwelling-house of Mr. William Britcher, of No. 6, Tothill-street, Westminster, was broken and entered, and about £9, together with various articles of plate and jewellery, stolen therefrom;

His Majesty for the better apprehending and
bringing to justice the persons concerned in the
felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by Mr.
Britcher, to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said
offence.

Whitehall, February 18, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented
unto the King, that, on the night of Sunday the 13th day of February instant, a barn in the occupation of John Hanson, of Brandon, in the parish of Wolstone, near Coventry, in the county of Warwick, was feloniously and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and
bringing to justice the persons concerned in the
felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of
ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the inhabitants of the hamlet of Brandon to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the
may be apprehended and convicted of the said
offence.

Whitehall, February 18, 1831.

WHEREAS a reward of five hundred pounds was offered in the London Gazette of the 8th, 11th, and 15th days of February instant, to be paid by Robert Harrison, Esq. banker, of Hull, to any person giving such information as should cause the apprehension and conviction of the person or persons who, on the night of Sunday the 23d day of January last, set fire to two corn stacks standing in the village of Benningholme, near Hull; and whereas no information hath been obtained tending to the discovery of the said offender or offenders; notice is hereby given, that unless information, tending to the apprehension and conviction of the said offender or offenders, be given on or before the 1st day of March next, the reward aforesaid will not be paid; and the said Robert Harrison doth hereby withdraw the said offer of reward after the said 1st day of March next.

James Aldred.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Partnership heretofore subsisting between us the undersigned, as Merchants, at Leeds, in the County of York, and carried on under the firm of Abraham and Henry Holroyd, was on the 1st day of February 1830, dissolved by mutual consent; and that all sums of money, debts, and demands, due or owing to or from the said Partnership will be received and paid by the undersigned Abraham Parkinson Holroyd: As witness our hands this 12th day of February 1831.

*Abm. P. Holroyd.
Henry Holroyd.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Partnership heretofore subsisting between the undersigned, John Pike and William Henry Garnham, both of Red-Lion-Street, Holborn, in the County of Middlesex, Drapers, carrying on business under the firm of Pike and Garnham, was this day dissolved by mutual consent; and that all debts due and owing by the said firm will be received and paid by the said William Henry Garnham: As witness our hands this 12th day of February 1831.

*John Pike.
W. H. Garnham.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Partnership which lately subsisted between James Highman, William Highman, and John Highman, as Plumbers and Beer Engine-Manufacturers, in the City of Bristol, and in Gloucester-Lane, in the Out Parish of Saint Philip and Jacob, in the County of Gloucester, under the style of James Highman and Sons, was, as far as related to the said James Highman, dissolved on the 7th day of December last, by the death of the said James Highman.—Dated this 4th day of February 1831.

*Ann Highman,
Executrix of the above named James Highman.
William Highman.
John Highman.*
