TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1831.

*Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen,
St. James's, November 25, 1830.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Queen has appointed Thursday the 24th of February 1831, for the celebration of Her Majesty's Birth-day, when a Drawing-Room will be held at St. James's-Palace.

The Queen will not require that any Lady, who has already been presented, should be presented a second time.

It is expected that all Ladies attending the Drawing-Room will appear in dresses of British manufacture.

St. James's, February 22, 1831.*

THE Officers of the Army and Navy, attending Her Majesty's Drawing-Room on the 24th instant, will appear in their respective uniforms, with regulation trowsers.

And all other Gentlemen are expected to appear in the usual Court dressés, with breeches and buckles.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE DRAWING-ROOMS, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

THE Ladies who propose to attend the Drawing-Room to be held on Thursday the 24th of February next, are requested to bring two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Queen's Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the names to Her Majesty. And those Ladies who are to be presented are hereby informed, that it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Lady who is to present them, should be sent in to the Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, before twelve o'clock on Saturday the 19th of February, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentations at the Drawing-Room shall be made through the Lord Chamberlain, unless the name of the Lady presenting, with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered, as before directed, corresponding with the names sent in to the Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, February 22, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Ladies to be presented to the Queen at the ensuing Drawing-Room, are first to be presented to the King, and they are, therefore, requested to bring with them three cards, one to be delivered to the Page in waiting in the Presence-Chamber leading to the Drawing-Room, one to the Lord in Waiting to the King, who will present the Lady to His Majesty, and the third card to the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, who will present the Lady to Her Majesty.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Queen will hold Drawing-Rooms, at St. James's-Palace, on the following days:

February	24.
March	10.
March	24.
April	14.
May	12.
May	26.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, January 21, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Drawing-Room to be held at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 24th of February next, being for the celebration of Her Majesty's Birth-day, the Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars.

N. B. The Knights Grand Crosses of the Bath, who have not been Installed or received the Sovereign's Royal Warrant dispensing with Installation, are to wear the Star, Ribband, and Badge of the Order only.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, January 21, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the King will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 23d of February next, at two o'clock; and that His Majesty's Levees in future will be held on every succeeding-Wednesday till further orders.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE KING'S LEVEE, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend the Levee to be held on Wednesday the 23d of February, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance, in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock on Monday the 21st of February, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation; it being His Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levee, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levee will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the King.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, February 1, 1831.

Whitehall, February 15, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Tuesday the 8th day of February instant, a straw-rick, standing in the rick-yard of Mr. Robert Lyford, of Steventon, near Abingdon, in the county of Berks, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them except the person who actually set fire to the said rick), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED and FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the inhabitants of Steventon, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on application to Thomas Frankum, Esq. Solicitor, of Abingdon.

Whitehall, February 18, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between the hours of half past twelve and seven o'clock on the morning of the 13th day of February instant, the dwelling-house of Mr. William Britcher, of No. 6, Tothill-street, Westminster, was broken and entered, and about £9, together with various articles of plate and jewellery, stolen therefrom;

His Majesty for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by Mr. Britcher, to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, February 18, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Sunday the 13th day of February instant, a barn in the occupation of John Hanson, of Brandon, in the parish of Wolstone, near Coventry, in the county of Warwick, was feloniously and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the inhabitants of the hamlet of Brandon to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, February 18, 1831.

WHEREAS a reward of five hundred pounds was offered in the London Gazette of the 8th, 11th, and 15th days of February instant, to be paid by Robert Harrison, Esq. banker, of Hull, to any person giving such information as should cause the apprehension and conviction of the person or persons who, on the night of Sunday the 23d day of January last, set fire to two corn stacks standing in the village of Benningholme, near Hull; and whereas no information hath been obtained tending to the discovery of the said offender or offenders; notice is hereby given, that unless information, tending to the apprehension and conviction of the said offender or offenders, be given on or before the 1st day of March next, the reward aforesaid will not be paid; and the said Robert Harrison doth hereby withdraw the said offer of reward after the said 1st day of March next.

Whitehall, February 22, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about half past six o'clock in the evening of Thursday the 10th day of February instant, a stack of straw in the rick-yard of Mr. Moses Filder, of the Meads Farm, Eastbourne, in the county of Sussex, was feloniously and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, whereby one wheat-stack, one oat stack, six hay-stacks, two straw-stacks, a barn containing sixteen quarters of wheat in sacks and about thirty quarters of unthrashed barley, a fattening-lodge with a granary above containing five quarters of barley, one quarter of malt, &c. and an out-house containing about one thousand bushels of potatoes, were destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said straw-stack) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by Mr. Filder, and FIFTY POUNDS by the Eastbourne Association for the Prosecution of Felons, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, February 22, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between the hours of six and seven in the evening of Saturday the 12th day of February instant, the premises occupied by Mr. William Henry Halcomb, at Stanham-green, in the parish of Hungerford, in the county of Berks, were feloniously and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, whereby a cottage, barn, stable, granary, and wheat-rick, together with a considerable quantity of thrashed and unthrashed corn, were destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the landlord and tenant of the said premises to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

Marshal's-Office.—Summons by Edict.

BY virtue of authority granted by his Excellency Henry Beard, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief, President of all Courts and Colleges, sole Judge of the Court of Vice-Admiralty of the Colony of Berbice and its dependencies, &c. &c. &c. dated the 21st September 1830;

I, the undersigned, at the instance of Thomas Wilson, in quality as appointed provisional Administrator to the estate and effects of the late R. F. Munro, deceased, and Guardian of his minor children, do hereby, for the first time, summon by edict all known and unknown creditors and claimants, as well in this Colony as in that of Demerara, and elsewhere, against the estate of aforesaid R. F. Munro, deceased, to appear before the Bar of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, at their Ordinary Session, to be holden in the month of January 1831 (say one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one), for the purpose of there rendering in their respective claims, properly substantiated, and in due form and time, against aforesaid estate; whereas, in default of which, and after the expiration of the fourth and last edictal, will be proceeded against the non-appears according to law.

This first edictal summons published as customary.—Berbice, the 4th October 1830.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

Marshal's-Office.—Sale by Execution.

First Proclamation.

WHEREAS I, the undersigned, by virtue of a writ of execution, granted by his Excellency Henry Beard, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c. President of the Honourable the Courts of Justice, sole Judge of the Vice-Admiralty Court of the Colony Berbice and its dependencies, &c. &c. &c. dated the 16th September 1830, as also by virtue of a subsequent appointment granted by the same authority, have, in the suit intitled James M'Donald and Thomas Wilson, authorised to collect the outstanding debts due and owing to the late firm of Fullarton, M'Donald, and Co. plaintiffs, versus the proprietor or proprietors, representative or representatives, of plantation de Edward, defendant, caused to be taken in execution, and placed under sequestration, subject however to all mortgage and other preferent claims existing against the same, the coffee plantation called de Edward, situate on the west bank of the River Berbice, together with all its cultivation, slaves, buildings, and further appurtenances thereto belonging; an inventory whereof is lying at this Office, for the inspection of those concerned.

Be it therefore known, that I, the undersigned, or the Marshal at the time being, intend to sell, at public execution sale, after the expiration of one year and six weeks from the 1st day of October 1830, the aforesaid coffee-plantation, called de Edward, cum annexis, and slaves, in order to recover, by execution sale therefrom, such sum of money as whereof the same has been taken in execution, and placed under sequestration, all conformable to the regulations of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice, dated the 20th December 1817, respecting sales of estates by execution in this Colony.

This first Proclamation published as customary.—Berbice, the 16th October 1830.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Barns v. Foulds, with the approbation of James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Thursday the 17th day of March 1831, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, in one lot;

The premises may be viewed on application to the tenant; and printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings aforesaid; and of Messrs. Jones and Howard, Solicitors, No. 5, Mincing-Lane, London.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Gurney v. Curtis, with the approbation of Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Thursday the 3d day of March next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, in one lot;

Capital freehold mercantile-premises, situate at Branden, in the County of Norfolk, consisting of a dwelling-house, with stables, chaise-house, and all requisite outbuildings, large garden, shrubberies, and plantations, newly erected brewery, granaries adjoining the River Ouse, navigable to the Port of Lynn, with convenient yards and appurtenances, admirably adapted for the business of a Brewer, Maltster, and Corn, Coal, and General Merchant.

Also two excellent dwelling-houses, fronting the London-Road, with stables and large walled-in gardens, let to respectable tenants, containing in the whole thirteen acres and an half.

And also nearly twenty acres of meadow land, in the Parish of Weeting, at a distance of about a furlong from the above premises, of which rather more than fifteen acres are copyhold, the remainder freehold.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the following places, viz. the said Master's Chambers, Southampton-Buildings aforesaid; of Mr. Sawyer, Solicitor, Staple-Inn, London; and at all the Inns in the neighbourhood of Branden aforesaid.

TO be resold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in certain causes, intitled Searby against Pollexfen, Stephenson against Pollexfen, Searby against Pollexfen, and Searby against Pollexfen, with the approbation of William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Saturday the 12th day of March 1831, at One of the Clock in the Afternoon, in two lots (being lots 1 and 2 of the former sale), the following freehold property;

A freehold piece or parcel of land, containing 632 square yards, or thereabouts, with the dwelling-houses, shops, buildings, yards, and appurtenances thereon erected and belonging, situate in a place called the Deal-Yard, near to Wide Bargate, in the centre of the Town of Boston, in the possession of Mr. Robert Hall and others.

And also a freehold piece or parcel of land, containing 886 square yards, or thereabouts, with the dwelling-houses, warehouse, blacksmith's shop, buildings, yards, gardens, and appurtenances thereon erected and built, situate in the Deal-Yard aforesaid, in the possession of Mr. Thomas Vent and others.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane; of Mr. Richard B. Armstrong, Solicitor, No. 11, Staple-Inn, of Messrs. Tooke and Carr, Solicitors, Bedford-Row; of Messrs. Smith and Stable, Solicitors, Lincoln's-Inn, London; of Messrs. Hollway and Kenrick, Solicitors, Boston; and of Mr. Wilson, Solicitor, Alford, Lincolnshire.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Roberts versus Last, with the approbation of Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Old London-Inn, in the City of Exeter, in one lot;

The inheritance in fee simple of and in all that inn and public victualling house and premises, situate in Saint Sidwell-Street, Exeter, known by the name of the King's Head, together with a cottage adjoining, in Spiller's-Lane.

The time of sale will shortly be advertised, when printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Mr. George Tanner, Solicitor, Crediton, Devon; of Messrs. Torrell and Son, Solicitors, Exeter; Mr. Pearson, Solicitor, No. 6, Pump-Court, Middle Temple; and of Mr. Batley, Solicitor, No. 1, South-Square, Gray's-Inn, London.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Baker v. Henderson, before Sir Griffin Wilson, Knight, one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room of the Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, in four lots;

A freehold house, numbered 12, in Marlborough-Place, at Brightelmston, in the County of Sussex, and several leasehold houses, numbered 1, 2, and 3, in Hornton-Street, in the Town of Kensington, in the County of Middlesex, and 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6, in Bizard's-Place, in Fulham, in the said County of Middlesex; and also two leasehold workshops, in the yards at the back of the houses numbered 106, 107, and 108, in Great Russell-Street, near Bloomsbury-Square, Middlesex.

Due notice will be given of the day of sale; and printed particulars are preparing, and may shortly be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings aforesaid; of Mr. George Sands Sidney, Solicitor, No. 21, in Lincoln's-Inn-Fields; Mr. James Peachey Solicitor, in Salisbury-Square, London; and of Mr. Joseph Rigby, Solicitor, in Golden-Square.

Shorne and Chatham, Kent.

TO be sold, in lots, to the best bidders, before Henry William Vincent, Esq. Remembrancer of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer, on a day to be hereafter advertised, by virtue of several writs of extent issued out of His Majesty's said Court of Exchequer, and pursuant to several Orders of the same Court, made in a matter intitled the King against Marsh;

Two freehold fields, called Great Baynards and Little Baynards, containing together about six acres, with an east-house and store-house thereon, late in the occupation of Mr. Jarvis Noakes, situate at Shorne, in the County of Kent.

Also one undivided fourth part of four freehold tenements, in the occupation of George Hobbs, Thomas Platt, Charles Beaumont, and Ann Jeffcock, situate at Chatham, in the said County.

Particulars may shortly be had at the said Remembrancer's Chambers, in the Inner Temple, and of M. B. Peacock, Esq. General Post-Office, London.

WHEREAS by the Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause wherein Robert Maunsell and others are plaintiffs, and Edward Monckton is defendant, it was referred to James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court whether any and what debts provided for by the indenture in the pleadings in the said cause mentioned, bearing date the 25th day of January 1779, remain unsatisfied, and to whom, and under what circumstances; which said indenture is made, or expressed to be made, between John Maxwell Stone, formerly of Fort Saint George, but then residing in London, Esq. of the first part; Robert Palk, Josiah Dupre, Raphael Franco, Esq. Edward Stracey, Esq. (afterwards Sir Edward Stracey, Bart.), and the Honourable Edward Monckton, of the second part; and the several other persons, whose names and seals are thereunto annexed and affixed (being respectively Creditors of the said John Maxwell Stone), of the third part; which said indenture was executed by the said John Maxwell Stone for the purpose of assigning unto the said Kolbert Palk, Josiah Dupre, Raphael Franco, Edward Stracey, and Edward Monckton, all his estates, goods, debts, and other effects, in trust, to be by them converted into money, and the net money to be by them distributed amongst the Creditors of the said John Maxwell Stone, in manner therein mentioned; which said John Maxwell Stone died in or about the year 1786, at Gaujan, in the Presidencies of Bengal or Madras, in the East Indies, and is the testator in the pleadings in the said cause named.—Therefore the Creditors under the said trust deed are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 1st day of March 1832, to come in and prove their claims, before the said Master, at his Chambers, Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, in the County of Middlesex, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Ellis against Hughes, the Creditors of Ellis Ellis, late of Gresford, in the County of Denbigh, Yeoman (who died on the 29th of September 1818), are, on or before the 12th day of March next, to come in and prove their debts before Sir Giffin Wilson, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Hughes, all persons claiming to be Next of Kin of Ellis Ellis, late of Gresford, in the County of Denbigh, Yeoman (who died on the 29th day of September 1818), and to have been living at the time of his decease, and at the time of the decease of Jane Ellis, his Widow (who afterwards intermarried with Edward Lloyd, of Gresford aforesaid, and died on the 3d day of March 1828), or to be legal personal representatives of any of such Next of Kin who may have since died, are, on or before the 12th day of March next, to come in and prove their claims before Sir Giffin Wilson, Knt. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause wherein Henry William Mejeadie, D. D. Lord Bishop of Bangor, and others are plaintiffs, and Robert Mounsey and others are defendants, the Creditors of John Routledge, formerly in the Service of the East India Company, on the Bengal Establishment, and afterwards of Houghton, in the County of Hants, E.-g. (who died on the 27th of February 1811), are to come in and prove their debts before Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 1st day of November 1831, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Pearce against Harrow, the Creditors of Elizabeth Grimston, late of Kingston-upon-Hull, Widow and Innkeeper (who died in the month of February 1827), are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in and prove their debts before James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Gosden v. Dotterill, the Next of Kin of John Gosden, late of Petworth, in the County of Sussex, Gentleman, the testator in the pleadings named (who died on the 26th day of August 1829), at the time of his death, and if any of them are dead, their legal personal representatives, are forthwith, by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their kindred before Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Clarke against Hunt, the Creditors of Robert Clarke, of Stowmarket, in the County of Suffolk, Gentleman, deceased (who died on or about the 10th day of January 1826), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before the Right Honourable Robert Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Cochrane against Cochrane, the Creditors of the Honourable Basil Cochrane, late of Auchterader, in the County of Perth, in North Britain, and of Portman-Square, in the County of Middlesex (who died in the month of August 1826), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 8th day of March 1831, to come in and prove their debts before James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Walter White, of Old Street, Clerkenwell, in the County of Middlesex, being indebted by indenture, bearing date the 10th day of February 1827, made between the said Walter White of the one part, and Soames, of Holborn-Hill, in the City of London, of the other part, Chandler, and Thomas Robinson, of Great Smith-Street, in the County of Middlesex, (Tallow-Chandlers, and Creditors of the said Walter White), of the second part, and Abraham Landin, of Oxford-Street, in the said County of Middlesex, (one other of the Creditors of the said Walter White), of the third part, and the several other persons whose names are thereunto subscribed and affixed, all their claims against the said Walter White, of the fourth part, bearing date the 10th day of February therein mentioned, all his estate and effects therein mentioned, and the said Soames, Thomas Robinson, and the said Abraham Landin, themselves, and their legal personal representatives, Creditors of him the said Walter White, in manner therein mentioned. And that such deed was duly executed and sealed by the said Walter White, Abraham Landin, and Nicholas White, on the 10th day of February, and by the said Soames, Thomas Robinson, and Nicholas White, on the 11th day of February instant, and such deed was duly recorded by Frederick Tritton, Attorney-at-Law.

Great Winchester-Street, Broad-Street, in the said City of London, and the said deed now lies for signature at the Office of the said Joseph Soames.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Edward Topham, of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Warehouseman, (trading under the firm of Edward Topham and Company) by indenture, bearing date the 31st day of December 1830, and made between the said Edward Topham of the first part, John Wells and Samuel Fletcher, of Manchester aforesaid, Merchants, of the second part, and the several other persons, whose names or firms and seals were thereunto subscribed Creditors of the said Edward Topham, of the third part, hath assigned and transferred all his personal estate and effects unto the said John Wells and Samuel Fletcher, in trust for the benefit of themselves and the rest of the Creditors who should execute the said indenture, and that such indenture was duly executed by the said Edward Topham, John Wells, and Samuel Fletcher, on the said 31st day of December, and such execution was witnessed and attested by James Harrison, of Manchester aforesaid, Solicitor, and the several Creditors to whom the said Edward Topham is indebted, who have not yet executed the said indenture, are requested to call at the Office of Messrs. Booth and Harrison, Solicitors, No. 3, Marsden-Street, in Manchester aforesaid, and execute the same forthwith, or to assent in writing to the same, or they will be excluded the benefit of the said indenture.—Dated this 19th day of February 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that George Scott, of Pudsey, in the Parish of Calverley, in the County of York, Corn-Miller, hath, by indentures of lease and release and assignment, bearing date respectively the 16th and 17th days of February instant, released, conveyed, and assigned, all his real and personal estate and effects, unto Samuel Scarth, of Pudsey aforesaid, Maltster, and John Holliday, of the same place, Clothier, upon trust for the benefit of all the Creditors of the said George Scott; and that the said indentures of lease and release were respectively executed by the said George Scott on the said 17th, and by the Trustees aforesaid on the 19th days of February instant; and that the execution thereof, by all the abovenamed parties, is attested by James Leavens Lee, of Bradford aforesaid, Attorney at Law, and Jonathan Whitaker, of the same place, his Clerk.—And notice is hereby also given, that the said indenture of release is lodged at the Office of the said James Leavens Lee, in Bradford aforesaid, for the inspection and signature of the Creditors of the said George Scott; and such of them as shall not execute the same, or signify their intention of so doing, within two months from the date of the said indenture of release, will be excluded all benefit thereof.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Robert Laskey, of the City of Exeter, Haberdasher, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Wednesday the 16th day of March next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the New London Inn, in the said City of Exeter, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling and disposing of the stock in trade, household goods and furniture, fixtures, and other effects of the said Bankrupt, by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract; and to the said Assignee giving such time for the payment of the price thereof, and taking such security from any person or persons for the same, as to him the said Assignee shall seem expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee paying certain costs, incurred previously to the issuing of the said Commission of Bankrupt, and in defending a certain action, to be respectively named at the said intended meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing any action or suit, at law or in equity, for recovery of the debts due to the said Bankrupt's estate; and to his compounding with such of the debtors, or to give time or take security for the payment thereof; or to submit the same to arbitration, as the said Assignee may see fit respecting; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Robert Hoskin, of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Silk-Mercer and Draper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 16th day of March next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Albion Hotel, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing, either by public sale or private contract, or in such other manner as they may deem expedient, together or in lots, at such price or prices, and upon such terms and conditions, for ready money or on credit, and giving such time for payment, and on such security as they may think fit, all or any part of the said Bankrupt's stock in trade, household goods, furniture, fixtures, estate and effects, or otherwise to ratify and confirm any contract which the said Assignees may in the meantime enter into, for the sale thereof, or of any part thereof; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing such person or persons as they may think proper, as an accountant, or otherwise, to assist them in collecting, recovering, getting in, and receiving the debts due to the estate, and winding up the affairs of the said Bankrupt, and paying him or them such compensation or allowance as they shall think proper, just, and reasonable; and also to authorise and empower the said Assignees upon the sale of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's property by auction, to buy in the same, or any part thereof, without being answerable for any deficiency which may arise upon a resale; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees adopting and confirming, or surrendering, abandoning, or disclaiming, all interest in any lease or leases, agreement or agreements, contract or contracts, for a lease or leases, entered into by or granted to the said Bankrupt, upon such terms as the said Assignees shall see fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending and discontinuing, or referring to arbitration, as they may be advised, any action or suit at law or in equity, regarding the said Bankrupt's estate, or any part thereof; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any debt or debts due to the said Bankrupt's estate, or any other matter or thing relating thereto, or to their investigating, by counsel or otherwise, any debt that has already been proved, or which may hereafter be claimed against the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compounding with any debtor to the said Bankrupt's estate, and taking any reasonable part of the debt in discharge of the whole, or to their giving time or taking security for the payment of such debt, and to their paying all such other necessary costs and charges as they the said Assignees shall incur or sustain therein or thereout; and also to their paying and allowing, out of the said Bankrupt's estate, all sums advanced, or payments made in conducting or on account of the said business, up to the choice of Assignees under the said Commission; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignees to take such measures, in the management and arrangement of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, as to the said Assignees may seem expedient and proper; and also to confirm all such acts as the said Assignees may have done, previously to the said meeting, in and about the affairs of the said Bankrupt; and on other special affairs.
