

59th year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," it is amongst other things enacted, "that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said recited Act or this Act, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built or which may hereafter be built or acquired under the powers of the said Act or this Act; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendance and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and all such curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to stipendiary curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such curates;" and by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect; and whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to His Majesty in Council, stating that in the year 1824, when the last census was taken, the parish of Monmouth, in the county of Monmouth, and in the dioceses of Hereford and Llandaff, contained a population of 4164 persons; that there is besides the parish church, one chapel in the said parish, called St. Thomas's Chapel, which chapel contains accommodation for 470 persons, and in which divine service is regularly performed; and whereas the said Commissioners further represented to His Majesty in Council, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the said last-mentioned chapel, under the provisions of the 16th section of the said Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that such district should be named St. Thomas's District, with boundaries as follows; the boundary to commence at Trothy Mouth, where the parish of Monmouth joins the parish of St. Mitchel Troy; then proceeding northward, by the Rivers Wyé and Monnow, to Richard's Ford, where the parish of Monmouth joins the parish of Rockfield; then returning southward, and continuing nearly the same direction to a stone on the turnpike road leading from Monmouth to Rockfield; and from thence turning westward along the boundary which separates the parish of Monmouth and Rockfield, to a cross road where the parish of Monmouth joins the parish of Wonastow; then returning southward along the boundary which separates the parishes of Monmouth and Wonastow, to the River Trothy, where the parish of Monmouth again joins the parish of Mitchel Troy; and from thence returning eastward, by the River Trothy, to Trothy Mouth, where the boundary commenced, which boundaries are more particularly delineated in the map hereunto annexed, and therein coloured yellow: that the consents of the Lord Bishop of Hereford and of the Lord Bishop of Llandaff have been obtained thereto as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third; and humbly praying, that His Majesty would be pleased to take the said premises into consideration, and to make such order in respect thereof as to His Majesty shall seem meet; His Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed district be accordingly assigned to the aforesaid chapel, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

Whitehall, February 18, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between the hours of half past twelve and seven o'clock on the morning of the 13th day of February instant, the dwelling-house of Mr. William Britcher, of No. 6, Tothill-street, Westminster, was broken and entered, and about £9, together with various articles of plate and jewellery, stolen therefrom;

His Majesty for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by Mr. Britcher, to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, February 16, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Sunday the 13th day of February instant, a barn in the occupation of John Hanson, of Brandon, in the parish of Wolstone, near Coventry, in the county of Warwick, was feloniously and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
