AT the Court at Brighton, the 31st day of January 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Saint George, in the island of Grenada, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Saint George, in the island of Grenada, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act;

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Wednesday the 23d day of March instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to authorise the Assignees of the said estate and effects forthwith declaring a dividend thereof, and indemnifying them for so doing against any claim which may be made upon them by reason of their making such dividend before the suit in Chancery now depending between a certain person, who will be named at the said meeting, plaintiff and another certain person, who will also be named at the said meeting, and others, defendants, for or on account of any rent, debt, or costs which already is or hereafter may be ordered or decreed by the High Court of Chancery to be paid, or payable out of the assets of the said estate, or proveable under the said Commission, or otherwise; and on other special matters.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Philp, now or late of No. 64, Bread Street, Cheap-side, London, Warehouseman, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 24th day of March instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to confirm the employment, by the said Assignee, of an accountant, for the purpose of making up and investigating the books, accounts, and papers of the said Bankrupt, and paying such remuneration for the same as the said Assignee may in his discretion think proper; also to confirm certain sales by private contract made by the said Assignee, the particulars whereof will be stated at the meeting; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Moses Ansell and Jacob Ansell, of Berkley-Street, Lambeth-Walk, in the County of Surrey, Partners in Trade, Dealers in Jewellery and Watches, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on the 23d day of March instant, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling and disposing of the said Bankrupts' stock in trade and effects, either by public auction or private contract, and upon credit or otherwise, in such manner, and on such terms, as they shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the Bankrupts' estate and effects; or to their compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Doubleday, of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Tea-Dealer, Commission-Agent, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Thursday the 24th day of March instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Office of Mr. Gandy, Solicitor, in Lord-Street, in Liverpool, in the said County, for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said Assignees selling or disposing of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's household furniture, fixtures, utensils and stock in trade, and all other the Bankrupt's estate and effects, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction or partly by private contract, and either to the Bankrupt, or any other person or persons, and either for ready money or on credit, at such price or prices as the said Assignees shall see reasonable, and either altogether or in parcels, and at the expense and risk of the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to confirm all such acts as the said Assignees shall have done previously to the said meeting, in and about the affairs of the said Bankrupt; and generally to empower and authorise the said Assignees to act for the benefit of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, in such manner as they may deem most advisable; and on other special affairs which will be named at the meeting.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Izon, of the Parish of Handsworth, in the County of Stafford, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Wednesday the 23d day of March instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Offices of William Palmer, Attorney, in Birmingham, for the purpose of authorising and empowering the Assignees appointed under the said Commission to sell and dispose of the Bankrupt's household furniture, stock in trade, freehold and leasehold estates, and all other the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, both in England and in Ireland, or elsewhere, either by public auction or private contract, and in such lots, and at such price or prices, and in such manner and form as the said Assignees may think proper, and to buy in and resell the same at any future auction, or by private contract, without being liable for any diminution in price thereby, and to give such time and times, and to take such securities for payment of the purchase moneys for the same as they may think proper, and to adopt and take all legal and proper measures for recovering and getting in the debts, moneys, estates and property due, owing and belonging to the said Bankrupt's estate; and to commence and prosecute all such actions or other suits as shall be requisite for that purpose, and to compound any debt or debts owing to the said Bankrupt's estate, and to settle all disputes respecting the same and where they cannot of themselves settle any differences arising out of, or any way relating to the said Bankrupt's estate, to refer the same to arbitration as often as they shall judge proper; and also to employ the person or persons now employed by them, or such other person or persons as they shall think proper, to collect and get in the debts due to the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to continue to employ the accountant already employed by them, or any other person or persons to assist them in collecting, recovering, or getting in and winding up the affairs of the said Bankrupt, and to pay all and every person or persons to be employed by them for any of the purposes aforesaid, such wages or sum and sums of money for their services as the said Assignees shall think reasonable and proper; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignees to do and perform all things in relation to the said Bankrupt's estate, as may seem most fit, proper and beneficial to the said estate and the Creditors of the said Bankrupt.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Munro, of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Iron-Founder, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 23d day of March instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Office of Mr. Holden, Solicitor, in South John-Street, in Liverpool, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant to settle the Bankrupt's books and accounts, and to their selling the Bankrupt's stock in trade and utensils and his household furniture, and all other effects, by public or private sale, for money, or on credit at discretion, with or without security, and to the said Assignees completing for habitation or not at discretion, all or any of the Bankrupt's unfinished buildings; and to the said Assignees selling, by public auction or private contract, the real estate, lands and buildings, finished or unfinished, of the Bankrupt, or his right and equity of redemption in the same, or any part thereof for any prices they shall think fit; and to their paying the servants, workmen and apprentices of the Bankrupt, their wages in part, or in all as the said Assignees shall think proper; and to their commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or suit at law or equity, for recovering, or in defence of any part of the Bankrupt's estate; or to their compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing the same, or any claim, matter or thing relating to the Bankrupt's estate as the said Assignees shall think fit; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the law, relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration

"shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 25th day of February 1831; in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by

CONRAD HAMMAR, of No. 16, Gower-Place, Euston-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

And on the 26th day of February 1831, by

LEWIS CHAMBERS JONES, of the Town of Abergavenny, in the County of Monmouth, Linen-Draper, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.
