AT the Court at St. James's, the 9th day of March 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty in Council was this day pleased to appoint Thomas Duppa, of Llanshay, Esq. to be Sheriff of the county of Radnor, in the room of Richard Duppa, of Llanshay, Esq. deceased.

St. James's-Palace, March 9, 1831.

THIS day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, Common Council, and Officers of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty with the following Address; which was read by Newman Knowllys, Esq. the Recorder; and which His Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble, dutiful, and loyal Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, most humbly approach your Majesty with the warmest sentiments of loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

We beg to assure your Majesty, that having long entertained a deep and increasing conviction of the necessity of a reform in the representation of the people in the Commons House of Parliament, we have looked forward with the greatest anxiety to the course which your Majesty's Ministers would adopt in reference to that important subject; and we now feel ourselves imperatively called upon, humbly and dutifully to express to your Majesty our entire satisfaction at the principles of the measure that has been introduced, under their sanction, to the Honourable House of Commons.

We beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that your Majesty's Ministers having entered office under a distinct pledge to bring forward efficient measures of reform in the representation of the people, we delayed to express any feeling upon the change which then took place in your Majesty's Councils until those measures were submitted to Parliament, but being now satisfied that the plan introduced under their sanction is eminently calculated to uphold the dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and to promote the true interests and happiness of all classes of your Majesty's subjects, we feel it to be our duty humbly to express to your Majesty our conviction, that your Majesty's Ministers have fully redeemed the important pledge made by them on their acceptance of office, and have thereby entitled themselves to the unlimited confidence of the country.

We, therefore, beg leave humbly to tender to your Majesty our grateful thanks for your Majesty's paternal care, in the formation of an Administration animated by a sincere desire to adopt, in the reformation of our institutions, a system that will unite all classes of your Majesty's subjects, preserve and strengthen our national security, uphold the honour and dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and promote the happiness and liberties of your Majesty's people

Signed, by order of Court,

Henry Woodthorpe.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

" I return you my warmest thanks for this dutiful and loyal Address.

" I receive with the most lively satisfaction the assurances of your loyalty and attachment to my Person, together with the declaration, that the confidence which I repose in my present Ministers is also felt by the Citizens of this great and wealthy metropolis.

" You may rest assured that I shall always consider the measures which may be proposed to me, either in my executive or my legislative capacity, with reference only to their tendency to maintain the honour and dignity of my Crown, to support the true principles of the Constitution, and to promote the union and happiness of my people."

They were all received very graciously, and had the honour of kissing the King's hand.

St. James's-Palace, March 9, 1831.

THIS day the following Address from the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Livery of the City of London, was presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Livery of the City of London, in Common Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Livery of the City of London, in Common Hall assembled, humbly approach your Majesty with the expression of our warmest feelings of veneration and respect.

We beg to assure your Majesty that we feel the most lively and unmixed satisfaction in viewing the principle of the measure for reforming the representation of the people in Parliament, introduced under the sanction of your Majesty's Ministers to the House of Commons, and we cannot refrain from expressing our sincere conviction, that such reform will produce the greatest possible good to your Majesty's people, and that it affords a clear and demonstrable proof of the sincerity and honesty of your Majesty's Ministers, and entitles them to the best thanks and lasting gratitude of the people of this country.

We humbly offer to your Majesty our most loyal and grateful acknowledgments for having selected, as your responsible Advisers, men of the highest character and attainments, who for a long period having most ably advocated the necessity of reform, have so promptly evinced a patriotic desire to renovate the genuine principles of our Constitution, and thereby to promote a true union between your Majesty and your people.

Signed, by order,

Henry Woodthorpe.

[Presented by a Deputation, consisting of the Lord Mayor, two Aldermen, and seven Liverymen.]

Whitehall, March 11, 1831.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable William Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, were by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal subjects, the Master, Assistants, and Members of the Company of Merchants of the City of Edinburgh, incorporated by Royal Charter, ratified by Parliament, humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty to express our deep sense of gratitude to your Majesty for the enlightened and liberal measure introduced by your Majesty's Ministers, with a view to reform the state of the representation in Parliament, and to assure your Majesty that we consider this measure as well calculated to allay discontent, to procure a fair and impartial attention to the various interests of the community,—to maintain peace at home and abroad,—to invigorate the Constitution,—and to give stability to the Throne.

While expressing these our feelings on this important subject, we implore, at same time, that the blessings of Divine Providence may attend all your Majesty's measures, and that your Majesty may long be spared to reign over a free, a happy, and a loyal people.

Signed, in name and by appointment of a general meeting of the Company, held at Edinburgh, and the Company's seal attached, this 7th day of March 1831. A. Black, Master.

To His Most Excellent Majesty KING WILLIAM the FOURTH.

The humble Address of His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the Royal Burgh of Cupar, in Fife, assembled in the Parish Church there.

WE, the aforesaid Inhabitants of your Majesty's Burgh of Cupar, have seen, with much satisfaction, that a measure has been brought forward in Parliament, under the sanction of your Majesty's Ministers, for altering and extending the elective franchise, and for improving the constitution of the Commons House of Parliament.

We fully concur in a sentiment which is widely entertained through the country, namely, that the House of Commons, as at present constituted, does not possess the confidence of the people; we are of opinion also that the measure now proposed will, in a great degree, remove those defects which have gradually brought about this want of confidence between the nation and its representatives; we therefore earnestly hope that the proposed scheme of improvement, for which we feel most deeply grateful to your Majesty's Ministers, and which has given so much satisfaction through the country, may pass into a law entire and unchanged.

We, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects aforesaid, believe that this is the only means which can avert a perpetual conflict between the people and the legislature, or which will restore the nation to a state of due prosperity; and we contemplate the consequences to be expected from a rejection of the measure with the most serious alarm.

And that your Majesty may long be spared to reign over a free, a loyal, and a happy people, is our most ardent wish and prayer.

Signed, in our name and presence, and by our appointment, by

Will. Bayne, Provost and Preces of the meeting.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, Inhabitants of the Parish of Clerkenwell, in the County of Middlesex, in Vestry assembled, beg leave humbly to approach your Majesty with heartfelt congratulations upon the highly satisfactory plan of reform lately submitted to the Commons House of Parliament by your Majesty's Ministers, which promises in its results to confer the greatest benefits on your Majesty's subjects, and ultimately to restore harmony and prosperity to the nation.

We beg your Majesty to accept our unfeigned assurance of attachment to your Royal Person, and our determination to support your Majesty's Ministers in their patriotic exertions to restore the Constitution of the country to its pristine state, which will confer those blessings upon a virtuous and industrious population to which they are justly entitled.

Signed, on behalf of the Vestry,

Thos. Key, Churchwarden.

St. James's-Palace, March 9, 1831.

That the deliveries are to commence on and for the 1st day of May next; that proposals in writing, sealed up and marked "Tender for Army Supplies," will be received at this Office on or before Wednesday the 6th day of April next; but none will be received after eleven o'clock on that day.

Proposals must be made separately for each county and island, except for the counties comprising North and South Wales, all of which must be included in one tender; likewise the islands of Alderney, Guernsey, and Jersey, as also the several counties in North Britain; and each proposal must have the letter which is annexed to the tender properly filled up by two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the amount stated in the printed particulars, for the due performance of the contract; and no proposal will be noticed unless made on a printed tender, and the prices expressed in words at length; and should it so happen that during the continuance of the contract no troops should be supplied by virtue of the same, the amount of the stamps on the contract and bond, paid in the first instance by the contractor, will be refunded to him.

N. B. As some material alterations have been made in the printed forms, it is particularly desired that persons wishing to tender will not make use of any but those recently printed, which may be had upon application at this Office, and to the Barrack-Masters in the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, and Man.
