THE Creditors under the deed of trust of William White, late of the Island of Jamaica, Esq. deceased, and of John White and John Edwards, late of Fen-Court, Fenchurch-Street, in the City of London, Merchants, deceased, may receive a further dividend, equal to one half year's interest on the amount of their respective debts, under the trust deed, on Wednesday the 27th day of April 1831, between the hours of Twelve and Three, and on every subsequent Wednesday, between the hours of Twelve and Two, by applying on those days at the Chambers of Messrs. John and William Lowe, No. 2, Tanfield-Court, Temple, to sign a receipt for the same.

WE the undersigned persons, Assignees or Trustees appointed under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, passed in the 43d year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Third, intituled "An Act for the more effectually carrying into execution the several Acts therein mentioned for the relief of the Creditors of certain banks, then lately kept in the City of Dublin, called Burton's Banks," do hereby give notice to the Creditors of said Banks, or their representatives, and all others whom it may concern, that, inasmuch as we are unable to act or further proceed with benefit or effect to the said Creditors in or towards the execution of the trusts reposed in us by the said Act, it is our intention, on the first day of the ensuing Easter Term, or the first opportunity after, to apply, by motion upon petition to the Lord High Chancellor of Ireland, for leave to resign our said office under the aforesaid Act, and to be discharged from the trusts of the same, pursuant to the powers and provisions in that behalf in said Act contained, and also for liberty to transfer or dispose of, in such manner as the said Court of Chancery shall direct, such balance, if any, as may remain to our credit in the Bank of Ireland, as Assignees of Burton's Banks aforesaid, out of the trust funds or moneys which have come to, and now remain to, our credit in said Bank of Ireland as such Trustees or Assignees, together with all such such books, papers, and documents as have come to our hands as such Assignees as aforesaid, under and by virtue of the said Act.—Dated this 7th day of March 1831.

HENRY STEWART.

WILLIAM DISNEY.

JOSEPH HUBAND.

To the Creditors of Burton's Banks aforesaid, or their Representatives, and all others whom it may concern.
