Whitehall, March 24, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about one o'clock on the morning of Monday the 21st day of March instant, Joseph Hooper, a game-keeper in the employ of the Earl of Coventry, and living at Broughton-lodge, near Pershore, in the county of Worcester, was wilfully and maliciously shot at through his bedroom window, by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually shot at the said Joseph Hooper) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Earl of Coventry to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

IN obedience to an order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 8th day of March 1831, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, ch. 209, intituled "An Act for building a new prison in the city of London, for removing thereto prisoners confined under civil process in the Gaol of Newgate, &c.;" also of a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the said fifty-second year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, ch. 210, intituled "An Act for enabling the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the city of London to improve and grant building leases of the ground in Moorfields, also to sell all the ground comprised in such leases when improved, and to apply the produce thereof towards increasing the Orphans' Fund;" and also of a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-fifth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, ch. 91, intituled "An Act for enlarging and improving the west end of Cheapside, in the city of London, also St. Martin-le-Grand, Aldersgate-street, St. Ann's-lane, and Foster-lane, and for providing a site for a new Post-Office, between St. Martin-le-Grand and Foster-lane, aforesaid;" and of a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-second year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for increasing the fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blackfriars-bridge;" I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten in the forenoon and two in the afternoon, on the 8th day of September next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, the principal sums of money, together with all interest due on the said 8th day of September next ensuing, upon the undermentioned bonds, raised by the authority of the aforesaid Acts of the fifty-second of George the Third, chs. 209 and 210, and fifty-fifth of George the Third, ch. 91, under the common seal of this city, and made payable to Richard Clark, Esq. his executors, administrators, or assigns (by indorsement), will then be paid off, at my said Office at Guildhall, to the several and respective person or persons respectively entitled to receive the same; and that from thenceforth the interest on the said bonds will cease and determine. And, in further obedience to the said order, I do hereby give notice, that if the said several persons respectively entitled to the said bonds, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 8th day of September, and will severally declare such their intention, in writing under their hands, and deliver such declaration at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, ten days previously to the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same (the usual holidays of the said Office excepted), I will, on the day expressed in such declaration, at my said Office, pay to the several persons the principal sums respectively due to them in discharge of the said bonds, together with all interest as shall on the day specified in such declaration for the payment thereof have become due thereon; and which interest or annuity will, upon the said day expressed in such declaration for payment, cease and determine, viz.

Eighty-eight bonds, of one hundred pounds each, under the before-mentioned Act of Parliament, of the fifty-second of George the Third, ch. 209, numbered 863 to 950, both inclusive; fifty bonds, of one hundred pounds each, under the before-mentioned Act of Parliament, of the fifty-second of George the Third, ch. 210, numbered 1 to 50, both inclusive; and the sum of three thousand pounds, part of a bond for ten thousand pounds, under the before-mentioned Act of Parliament, of the fifty-fifth of George the Third, ch. 91, numbered 1.

James Shaw, Chamberlain.

Guildhall, March 9, 1831.

To the Creditors of Burton's Banks aforesaid, or their Representatives, and all others whom it may concern.

Marshal's Office.—Summons by Edict.

BY virtue of authority granted by his Excellency Henry Beard, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Colony Berbice and its dependencies, President of all Courts and Colleges within the same, sole Judge of the Vice-Admiralty Court, &c. &c. &c. dated the 16th November 1830;

I, the undersigned, at the instance of Donald Ross and James McDonald, Curators to the estate of George McDonald, late of this Colony, deceased, do hereby, for the first time, summon by edict all known and unknown creditors and claimants against the estate of aforesaid George McDonald, late of this Colony, deceased, to appear before the Bar of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, at their ordinary Session, to be holden in the month of April 1831 (say eighteen hundred and thirty-one), for the purpose of there rendering in their respective claims, properly substantiated, and in due form and time, against aforesaid estate; whereas, in default of which, and after the expiration of the fourth and last edictal, will be proceeded against the non-appearing according to law.

This first summons by edict published as customary.—Berbice, the 6th December 1830.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order made by the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, in the matter of Thomas Jones, a lunatic, before Sir Giffin Wilson, Knt. one of the Masters of the Court of Chancery, in the Public Sale-Room of the Court, in Southampton-Buildings, London, some time in or about the month of May 1831, of which previous notice will be given;

REIGATE, SURREY.

TO be sold by auction, by Messrs. Nash and Elgar, on Tuesday the 12th day of April 1831, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the White Hart Inn, at Reigate, by order of the Commissioners named in a Commission of Bankruptcy issued against Joseph Coulstock, of Reigate aforesaid, Miller, Dealer and Chapman;

A valuable newly erected, substantial and commodious brick-built tower windmill, with iron window-frames, called the Wray Mill, working three pair of stones, with patent sails, iron wind-shaft, brake-wheel, with double arms, regulating fan-wheel, flour-machine, bolting-machine, smut-machine to attend the stones, two convenient bins over the wheat-stones, calculated to contain four loads of wheat each, and another bin over the peak-stones, and every requisite for the manufacturing of flour on the most improved plan.

Also a newly erected brick and slate cottage, with a poultry-house adjoining, and a productive garden, planted with choice and thriving young fruit-trees, inclosed by a quick-set hedge, containing in the whole 42 rods, situate on the Wray Common, in the Parish of Reigate aforesaid, by the side of the turnpike-road there, leading through Croydon and Reigate to Brighton, within a mile of the market-town of Reigate, and well adapted for the carrying on of a very extensive trade.

The property is holden of the Manor of Reigate, by copy of court roll, and is subject to the yearly rent of one shilling, a heriot certain of one shilling on death, a fine certain of £10. on alienation, and of £20. on death; land tax £2. 7s. 11d. per annum.

The going gear in the mill will be included in the purchase, but the tenant's property in and about the mill and cottage (an inventory of which may be seen at the mill, and which will be produced on the day of sale) is to be taken by the purchaser by valuation.

Further particulars and conditions of sale may be had at the principal Inns, in the adjacent Towns; of Messrs. Luttly and Son, Solicitors, Dyers-Hall, College-Street, London; at Garraway's Coffee-House; of Mr. Thomas Hart, Solicitor; and of the Auctioneers, Reigate.

Eligible Situations for Trade.—Yeovil, Somerset.

TO be peremptorily sold by public auction, by Mr. Etheridge, at the Mermaid Inn, in Yeovil, on Thursday the 21st day of April 1831, at Six o'Clock in the Evening; (pursuant to an order made by the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankruptcy awarded and issued against Benedict Edwards, of Yeovil aforesaid, Currier, Dealer and Chapman), subject to such conditions, as will be then produced, the following premises in lots;

Lot 1. All those premises, lately in the occupation of the said Benedict Edwards, situate in Middle-Street, in Yeovil, comprising a commodious dwelling-house, extensive warehouses, drying-lofts, workshops, and offices, (in which the several trades of a Currier and Glover have for many years been carried on), together with a large garden and productive orchard, (through which passes a never-failing stream of water), and also a neat and comfortable dwelling-house adjoining thereto, in the occupation of Mr. James Walker.

Lot 2. Two dwelling-houses, each containing a commodious front shop, with the court and well accustomed weighing engine thereon belonging, desirably situated for any retail trade, opposite the Three Choughs Inn, in Yeovil, and now in the respective occupations of Mr. George Bennett and Mr. Jonathan Crocker; and also four newly and substantially built cottages thereto adjoining, and in the respective occupations of George Spear, Anthony Comitty, James Calloway, and Thomas Gliston.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-Street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned, on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.

THE Creditors of Samuel Henson, late of Brownlow-Street, Holborn, in the County of Middlesex, and of Highbury-Vale, in the said County, Tailor, who is now a prisoner in His Majesty's Prison of the Fleet, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled "An Act to amend and consolidate the laws for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England," are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Insolvent's estate, on Wednesday the 13th day of April next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Office of Messrs. Battye, Fisher, and Sudlow, situate No. 20, Chancery-Lane, in the said County of Middlesex, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees accepting a certain proposal or offer made to them by a certain person, to be named at the said meeting, to compromise and put an end to a suit in equity now pending, relative to certain leasehold property of the said Insolvent, which will then be submitted and stated to them, and to enable the said Assignees to carry into effect and complete such compromise, if the same should be accepted.
