

Whitehall, March 25, 1831.

The King has been pleased to present the Reverend David Bell to the church and parish of Kennoway, in the presbytery of Kirkaldy and county of Fife, vacant by the death of the Reverend Patrick Wright.

Whitehall, March 28, 1831.

The King has been pleased to grant to Christopher Hodgson, of Great Dean's-yard, Westminster, Esq. the joint office of Secretary and Treasurer to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation of the maintenance of the Poor Clergy; the office of Treasurer having become vacant by the death of John Paterson, Esq.

Whitehall, March 22, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, early on the morning of Saturday the 19th day of March instant, a stack of barley in a field in the occupation of Mr. John Wright, adjoining the turnpike road, lying between the Anchor Inn and the Red Lion Inn, at Appleby, in the county of Leicester, was maliciously and feloniously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stack) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by Messrs. Dewes and Fisher, Solicitors, Ashby-de-la-Zouch.

Whitehall, March 24, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about one o'clock on the morning of Monday the 21st day of March instant, Joseph Hooper; a game-keeper in the employ of the Earl of Coventry, and living at Broughton-lodge, near Pershore, in the county of Worcester, was wilfully and maliciously shot at through his bedroom window, by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually shot at the said Joseph Hooper) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Earl of Coventry to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

IN obedience to an order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 8th day of March 1831, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, ch. 209, intituled "An Act for building a new prison in the city of London, for removing thereto prisoners confined under civil process in the Gaol of Newgate, &c.;" also of a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the said fifty-second year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, ch. 210, intituled "An Act for enabling the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the city of London to improve and grant building leases of the ground in Moorfields, also to sell all the ground comprised in such leases when improved, and to apply the produce thereof towards increasing the Orphans' Fund;" and also of a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-fifth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, ch. 91, intituled "An Act for enlarging and improving the west end of Cheapside, in the city of London, also St. Martin-le-Grand, Aldersgate-street, St. Ann's-lane, and Foster-lane, and for providing a site for a new Post-Office, between St. Martin-le-Grand and Foster-lane aforesaid;" and of a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-second year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for increasing the fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blackfriars-bridge;" I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten in the forenoon and two in the afternoon, on the 8th day of September next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, the principal sums of money, together with all interest due on the said 8th day of September next ensuing, upon the under-mentioned bonds, raised by the authority of the aforesaid Acts of the fifty-second of George the Third, chs. 209 and 210, and fifty-fifth of George the Third, ch. 91, under the common seal of this city, and made payable to Richard Clark, Esq. his executors, administrators, or assigns (by indorsement), will then be paid off, at my said Office at Guildhall, to the several and respective person or persons respectively entitled to receive the same; and that from thenceforth the interest on the said bonds will cease and determine. And, in further obedience to the said order, I do hereby give notice, that if the said several persons respectively entitled to the said bonds, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time
