Whitehall, April 5, 1831.

THE following Addresses, in favour of Parliamentary Reform, have been laid before His Majesty, and graciously received, viz.

From the Magistrates, Town Council, Proprietors, and Inhabitants of the Town of Lerwick.

From the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Somerset.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 23d day of March 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is hereby pleased to withdraw, and doth hereby withdraw, so much of His Majesty's Royal Proclamation, dated at St. James's on the twenty-third of November, in the first year of His Majesty's reign, as declares that rewards, of fifty pounds and five hundred pounds respectively, shall be paid for the detection of offenders therein described; and His Majesty doth, by and with the advice aforesaid, hereby declare, that no such reward will be paid for any information which may be given respecting such offenders, from the date of this Order.

C. C. Greville,

AT the Court at Brighton, the 31st day of January 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Saint George, in the island of Grenada, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Saint George, in the island of Grenada, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

Westminster, March 30, 1831.

This day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by His Majesty, for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

The King has been pleased to grant unto the Right Honourable Robert-Henley Eden, Baron Henley, in that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Ireland (son and heir of the late Right Honourable Morton Baron Henley, G. C. B. deceased, by Elizabeth his wife, youngest daughter of the Right Honourable Robert Henley Earl of Northington, sometime Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and sister and coheir of Robert second Earl of Northington, also deceased), His royal licence and authority that his Lordship and his issue may, from motives of regard to the family of his aforesaid late mother, take and use the surname of Henley only:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none effect.

Whitehall, March 24, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about one o'clock on the morning of Monday the 21st day of March instant, Joseph Hooper, a game-keeper in the employ of the Earl of Coventry, and living at Broughton-lodge, near Pershore, in the county of Worcester, was wilfully and maliciously shot at through his bedroom window, by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually shot at the said Joseph Hooper) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Earl of Coventry to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having certified to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, in pursuance of the Act, 10th Geo. 4th, c. 27, s. 1, that the actual Surplus Revenue of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, beyond the actual Expenditure thereof, for the year ended the 5th of January 1831, amounted to the sum of £2,913,673 2s. 4³/₄d.;

The Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt hereby give notice, that the following sum will be applicable, under the provisions of the said Act, towards the reduction of the National Debt of the said United Kingdom, between the 5th day of April 1831, and the 5th day of July 1831, viz.

One fourth part of the said Surplus £728,418 5 7
S. Higham, Comptroller General.
National Debt-Office, March 29, 1831.

Paymaster-General's-Office, April 2, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the under-mentioned Services will be in the course of payment, at this Office, on Monday the 25th April, viz

Half-pay and Military Allowances.

Widows' Pensions.

Unattached Pay to General Officers.

Royal Bounty.

Retired Full-pay.

Pensions for Wounds, &c.

Adjutants of Local Militia.

Officers, &c. of Militia and Yeomanry.

Foreign Half-pay.

Foreign Pensions.

By order of the Right Honourable the Paymaster-General,

Terrick Haultain, Accountant.

Navy-Office, April 4, 1831.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Retired and Sea Officers, from the 1st January to the 31st March last, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 18th, 19th, and 20th of April, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attorneys.

On the 21st, 22d, 25th, 26th, and 27th of April, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attorneys.

On the 28th and 29th of April, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attorneys.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attorneys for that purpose, the said Attorneys are to produce similar affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive half-pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 31st of March last, will commence paying on the 18th instant; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed. G. Smith.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.
