Lord Chamberlain's-Office, March 30, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 13th of April next, at two o'clock; and on every succeeding Wednesday till further notice.

*Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen,
St. James's, March 25, 1831.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Queen will hold Drawing-Rooms, at St. James's-Palace, on the following days:

April	14.
April	28.
May	12.
May	26.
May	28.

*Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen,
Queen's-House, St. James's, April 8, 1831.*

THE Officers of the Army and Navy, attending Her Majesty's Drawing-Room on the 14th instant, will appear in their respective uniforms, with regulation trowsers.

And all other Gentlemen are expected to appear in the usual Court dresses, with breeches and buckles.

*Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen,
Queen's-House, St. James's, April 8, 1831.*

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE DRAWING-ROOMS, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

THE Ladies who propose to attend the Drawing-Room to be held on Thursday the 14th of April instant, are requested to bring two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Queen's Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the names to Her Majesty. And those Ladies who are to be presented are hereby informed, that it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Lady who is to present them, should be sent in to the Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, before four o'clock on Tuesday the 12th of April instant, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation, it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentations at the Drawing-Room shall be made through the Lord Chamberlain, unless the name of the Lady presenting, with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered, as before directed, corresponding with the names sent in to the Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen.

No Lady can be received by Her Majesty, but in conformity with the above regulations.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 23d day of March 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is hereby pleased to withdraw, and doth hereby withdraw, so much of His Majesty's Royal Proclamation, dated at St. James's on the twenty-third of November, in the first year of His Majesty's reign, as declares that rewards, of fifty pounds and five hundred pounds respectively, shall be paid for the detection of offenders therein described; and His Majesty doth, by and with the advice aforesaid, hereby declare, that no such reward will be paid for any information which may be given respecting such offenders, from the date of this Order.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 31st day of January 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Saint George, in the island of Grenada, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Saint George, in the island of Grenada, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

Borough of Malton.

Francis Jeffrey, Esq. in the room of Sir James Scarlett, Knt. who has accepted the Chiltern Hundreds.

Whitehall, April 11, 1831.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Hervey Allen, of Woodside, in the parish of Charles' Plymouth, in the county of Devon, Gent. eldest son and heir of the Reverend William Allen, sometime of Magdalen-hall, in the University of Oxford, deceased, by Anne Hervey his wife, daughter of Richard Olney, of London, surgeon, and sister to John Bush Olney, late of the parish of St. Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, Gent. both deceased, His royal licence and authority that he may (in compliance with a clause contained in the last will and testament of his said maternal uncle, John Bush Olney) henceforth take and use the surname of Olney, in addition to and after that of Allen:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none effect.

Whitehall, March 16, 1831.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Richard Barnes, of Barnard Castle, in the county of Durham, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Navy-Office, April 4, 1831.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Retired and Sea Officers, from the 1st January to the 31st March last, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 18th, 19th, and 20th of April, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attorneys.

On the 21st, 22d, 25th, 26th, and 27th of April, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attorneys.

On the 28th and 29th of April, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attorneys.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attorneys for that purpose, the said Attorneys are to produce similar affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive half-pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act," and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill on

"bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 31st of March last, will commence paying on the 18th instant; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed. G. Smith.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

Navy-Office, March 21, 1831.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 13th of April next, at two o'clock in the afternoon, they will put up to sale, at their Office in Somerset-place, His Majesty's ships and vessels hereunder mentioned, and which are lying at the Yards against the same expressed, viz.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Richard Willock, of Lancaster, in the County of Lancaster, Wine and Spirit-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 6th day of May next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the King's Arms Inn, in Lancaster aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying to the surviving Executors of the last will and testament of Richard Atkinson, late of Lancaster aforesaid, Esq. deceased, the principal sum of £1,520 11s. 6d. with such interest as may have accrued thereon, after deducting all charges and expences, being the balance of moneys which have arisen from the sale of messuages, lands, and hereditaments formerly belonging to the said Richard Willock, and mentioned in an Order made by his Honour the Vice-Chancellor of England, dated the 28th June 1826; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees accepting and taking, on behalf of the said Creditors, from a person, who will be named to the Creditors at the said meeting, a bond, covenant, or other indemnity, for the purpose of indemnifying the said Assignees and the estate of the said Bankrupt from the payment of the said money (in case the same shall be agreed and directed to be paid) against all claims and demands in respect thereof; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Anthony Guy, of Chippenham, in the County of Wilts, Money Scrivener, Broker, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 4th day of May next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the White Lion Inn, in the City of Bath, in the County of Somerset, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compromising, settling, or adjusting a certain action commenced by the said Assignees, and now pending in His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, against a person, to be named at such meeting, for the recovery of a certain debt due from him to the said Assignees, on terms proposed by or on behalf of the said person, and to be also named to the meeting; and to the said Assignees accepting the composition offered in discharge of the said debt, or to the said Assignees substituting, in lieu thereof and carrying into effect, other proposals for the like purpose, or proceeding in the said action; or to their commencing, prosecuting, or defending any other suit or suits at law or in equity against the said person; or to their compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing all matters in difference with the said person, at the discretion of the said Assignees, or otherwise; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing, either by public sale or private contract, or partly by public sale and partly by private contract, of all or any part of the estate, goods, chattels, and effects of the said Bankrupt now remaining unsold, which may at any time come to the hands of the said Assignees, and at such times and places, and in such parcels or lots, or otherwise, and upon such credits, and either with or without security as the said Assignees may in their discretion think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying off any mortgage or mortgages, or other charges and incumbrances affecting the real estates of the said Bankrupt, whether in possession or reversion, or any part thereof, by and out of the moneys in their hands belonging to the said Bankrupt's real and personal estate, and thereupon receiving from any person or persons concerned all and every the deeds, bonds, bills of exchange, promissory notes, and other documents held by them as liens or by way of security for the debt alleged to be due and owing to them from the said Bankrupt, or upon or against whose estate such last mentioned persons may have a claim, or be entitled to prove, or to their concurring with him, her, or them, in effecting any sale, or contesting and disputing the validity and extent of any mortgage, lien, or other incumbrance on, or affecting the real or personal estate of the said Bankrupt, or of any part thereof respectively, or coming to any terms of arrangement with respect to such mortgage, lien, or incumbrance, as the said Assignees may think fit, and to ratify and confirm any arrangement of, or to the above nature or effect already made, in case the same shall appear to have been so made for the benefit of the Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees effecting insurances from time to time on any portion of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, now in their possession, or within their controul or custody, or to their effecting any policy or policies of insurance upon life or lives, in the continuance or determination of which the said Bankrupt's estate is or may be interested; and also to the said Assignees selling, by public auction or private contract, upon the before mentioned terms, or to their granting any lease or leases, or otherwise letting and disposing of all or any part of a certain estate, called Trevane, situate in the Outliberies of the Parish of Saint Mary's, Tenby, in the County of Pembroke, to any person or persons whomsoever, at such yearly rent or rents, and under and subject to such terms, covenants, stipulations, and agreements as the said Assignees may think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees completing and finishing and making fit for habitation and occupancy at the expence of the said Bankrupt's estate, any messuages or buildings on the said estate, now untenanted or in need of reparation or amendment, and to confirm and ratify any such leases or agreements for leases already made, and any reasonable expenditure which the said Assignees shall or may have been already put to in making such improvements and repairs; and also to the said Assignees making certain abatements, to be named at the meeting, in the purchase money agreed to be paid for certain parts of the said Bankrupt's estate, in order to obviate certain difficulties arising by reason of alleged defect in title or quantity, and to facilitate the completion of the purchases, and to confirm and ratify any such abatements already made or agreed to; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting or defending any actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, against a person, to be named at such meeting, for recovering a sum of money due to the estate, or any other actions or suits at law or in equity, or presenting or appearing to any petition in the said Bankruptcy as they may think fit; and to their compounding, settling, and compromising any debt or debts, claim or claims due to the estate of the said Bankrupt, to give time or take security for the payment thereof; or to their investigating, by Counsel or otherwise, any debt that has already been proved, or which may hereafter be claimed against the said Bankrupt's estate; to take any opinion of Counsel that may be advised by their Solicitors on any point that may present themselves; to submit any disputes between the said Assignees and any persons, touching and concerning any matter relating to the estate of the said Bankrupt, to the determination of arbitrators, to be chosen by the said Assignees and the party with whom they shall have such dispute; to pay (or to authorise the payment already made, in case the same shall appear reasonable, of) any rent and taxes due and owing by the said Bankrupt, and the wages of clerks and servants; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying, out of the Bankrupt's estate, certain costs and charges to be submitted to the said meeting, including therein the charges incurred in respect of several journeys and attendances of certain persons, to be then named, in London, or at Chippenham, in the County of Wilts, and at other places, on the said Bankrupt's affairs, previous to, or about the time of, the issuing of the said Commission, and subsequently thereto, up to the choice of Assignees; and also the costs and charges, to be in like manner submitted, incurred in the investigation of the said Bankrupt's affairs, previously to the issuing of the said Commission, and in respect of the issuing and superseding any former Commissions or Commission against the said Bankrupt, including the expenses of consultations with Counsel, with the usual fees and other incidental charges thereon; and also to assent to or dissent from one of the said Assignees, by and out of the said Bankrupt's estate, receiving a compensation, to be named at the meeting, for his trouble in making up the accounts of the said Bankrupt, and for collecting, getting in, and receiving and adjusting the rents, debts, and affairs of the said Bankrupt's estate, or such other compensation as may be thought fair and reasonable by such meeting; and to their employing one or more accountant or accountants for the purpose of investigating or adjusting the accounts and affairs of the said Bankrupt; also to their employing any person or persons whom they may think proper for the purpose of collecting and getting in any of the debts and property due or belonging to the said Bankrupt, and to their paying to any accountant already employed, or hereafter so to be, or to such other person to be so authorised or employed as aforesaid, for such past or future services, such allowance or remuneration out of the estate of the said Bankrupt as the said Assignees shall think reasonable; and generally to take such proceedings in and about the affairs and management of the said Bankrupt's estate, as they in their judgment may deem proper and advantageous; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Benjamin Bowman and William Thompson, of the Commercial-Road, in the County of Middlesex, Colour and Paint-Manufacturers, Dealers, Chapmen, and Copartners in Trade, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Wednesday the 4th day of May next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees offering for sale by public auction, the lease or equity of redemption of the lease, of the premises in the Commercial-Road, belonging to the said Bankrupts, in order to ascertain the value (if any) thereof beyond the amount of the claims thereon; and to their selling or buying in, or giving up and declining to accept the same as to them shall seem most advisable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by both, or at a valuation to be made, in such manner as they shall think fit, the stock and utensils in trade, and other the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, at such times and places, and in such manner, as the said Assignees shall think fit; and to their giving such time, either with or without security, for the payment of the price of such property, estate, and effects, as the said Assignees shall in their discretion think proper and reasonable; and to confirm, if they the said Creditors shall deem fit, such sales as have already, or at the time of the said meeting may have been effected by the said Assignees of the said lease, or of any part of the said stock, utensils, furniture, and other the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, and to confirm the payments made by the said Assignees to the said clerk and to the workmen of the Bankrupts, of sums of money proportioned to the salary and wages allowed to such clerk or workmen prior to the Bankruptcy, for their services from the date of the Commission up to the expiration of the time during which they remained at the Bankrupts' countinghouse or warehouse or manufactory, to take charge thereof, or assisting the said Assignees in the arrangement of the accounts and other the affairs of the Bankrupts, and to authorise the payment, out of the Bankrupts' estate, or to confirm the payment (if already made) of the rent and taxes and rates due in respect of the Bankrupts' manufactories, warehouses, and premises; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing one or both of the Bankrupts, or an accountant or any other person to assist in making out the accounts of the said Bankrupts, and to collect the debts owing to the estate of the said Bankrupts, and to their making such remuneration for such services as they shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees being authorised to give time to any debtor or debtors to the estate of the said Bankrupts, and to take security for the payment of any debt or debts, either altogether or by instruments, and to compromise or compound any of the said debts, and accept a reasonable part for the whole, and to submit to arbitration, or reference, or compromise, or settle any accounts, debts, demands, differences, disputes, or other matters relative to the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, or to any claims upon, or in respect thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees being authorised to commence, prosecute, or defend, or to discontinue and become nonsuit in all such actions, suits, or other proceedings, at law or in equity, as may be considered advisable and proper in respect to the recovery or protection of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, and to their being authorised generally to manage and conduct the affairs of the said Bankruptcy, in such manner as to the said Assignees may seem most beneficial; and on other special affairs.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-Street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned, on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.

TAKE notice, that a meeting of the Creditors of Stephen Woolridge, late of Blythe-Marsh, in the Parish of Dithorn, in the County of Stafford, Farmer, who was lately discharged from His Majesty's Gaol in and for the County of Stafford, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled "An Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England," will be held at the Wheat Sheaf Inn, in Cheadle, in the said County of Stafford, on Friday the 22d day of April instant, at the hour of Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, for the purpose of choosing an Assignee or Assignees of the Insolvent's estate and effects.
