FRIDAY, APRIL 29, 1831.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 14, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, every Wednesday, at two o'clock, till further notice.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE KING'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend His Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, BEFORE twelve o'clock on the Monday previous to each Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation; it being His Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levee, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levees will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the King.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 25, 1831.

A PROCLAMATION,

For dissolving the present Parliament, and declaring the calling of another.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS We have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to dissolve this present Parliament, which stands prorogued to Tuesday the tenth day of May next: We do for that end publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby dissolve the said Parliament accordingly; and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for shires and burghs, of the House of Commons are discharged from their meeting and attendance on the said Tuesday the tenth day of May next: and We, being desirous and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet Our people, and to have their advice in Parliament, do hereby make known to all Our loving subjects Our Royal will and pleasure to call a new Parliament: and do hereby further declare, that, with the advice of Our Privy Council, We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, and Our Chancellor of Ireland, that they do respectively, upon notice thereof, forthwith issue out writs in due form, and according to law, for calling a new Parliament: and We do hereby also, by this Our Royal Proclamation under Our Great Seal of Our United Kingdom, require writs forthwith to be issued accordingly by Our said Chancellors respectively, for causing the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, who are to serve in the said Parliament, to be duly returned to, and give their attendance in, Our said Parliament; which writs are to be returnable on Tuesday the fourteenth day of June next.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this twenty-third day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

In order to the electing and summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS We have in Our Council thought fit to declare Our pleasure, for summoning and holding a Parliament of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on Tuesday the fourteenth day of June next ensuing the date hereof; in order, therefore, to the electing and summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, who are to sit in the House of Peers in the said Parliament: We do, by the advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood-House, in Edinburgh, on Friday the third day of June next ensuing, between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and choose the sixteen Peers, to sit and vote in the House of Peers in the said ensuing Parliament, by open election and plurality of voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the proxies of such as shall be absent (such proxies being Peers, and producing a mandate in writing, duly signed before witnesses, and both the constituent and proxy being qualified according to law), and the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the Principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him, to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such meeting, and to administer the oaths required by law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their votes; and immediately after such election made and duly examined, to certify the names of the Sixteen Peers so elected, and to sign and attest the same in the presence of the said Peers the electors, and return such certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We do, by this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly command and require the Provost of Edinburgh, and all other the Magistrates of the said city, to take especial care to preserve the peace thereof, during the time of the said election, and to prevent all manner of riots, tumults, disorders, and violence whatsoever. And We strictly charge and command that this Our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market-Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns of Scotland, twenty-five days, at least, before the time hereby appointed for the meeting of the said Peers to proceed to such election.

Witness Ourselves at Westminster, this twenty-third day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter 25th, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to fix a rate and direct the disposal of freight money for the conveyance of specie and jewels on board His Majesty's ships and vessels," it is enacted, that from and after the eighth day of April one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, all freight money to be paid for the conveyance on board any of the ships and vessels of His Majesty, of gold, silver, and jewels, or of any other article which may by special order be received on board, and for which freight shall be payable, shall be paid at such rate and be distributed and applied for such purposes, and divided to and amongst such persons in such proportions and after such manner as His Majesty, His heirs and successors should from time to time think fit to order and direct by any Proclamation or Proclamations to be issued for that purpose; in pursuance of which Act a Proclamation was on the twelfth day of July following, made and issued by His Royal Highness the then Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His said Majesty, whereby, amongst other things, a scale of rates at which freights should be payable for public and for private treasure respectively, in peace and war and for different voyages, was fixed and established; and whereas We have thought fit to order that the said rates should be altered, We have, therefore, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, deemed it expedient to issue this Our Royal Proclamation; and We do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that from and after the first day of September next, the said scale of rates so fixed shall cease and be no longer in force; and We do further declare, that from thenceforth the following rates shall be established during peace and war :

	For Crown Treasure.		For Treasure belonging to other Parties.
	Peace and War.
	Per Cent.	Gold or Jewels.		Silver.
Per Ct.		Per Ct.	Per Ct.
Between any two ports the navigable distance between which shall not exceed six hundred leagues	$\frac{3}{4}$	$\frac{3}{4}$	1
Between any two ports the navigable distance between which shall exceed six hundred leagues, and shall be less than two thousand leagues	1	$1\frac{1}{4}$	$1\frac{1}{2}$
For any distance of two thousand leagues and upwards	1	$1\frac{1}{2}$	2

And it is further established and declared, that such freight shall be payable, clear of all deduction whatsoever; and that it shall be stipulated in the bill of lading, that the Captains and Commanding Officers of Our ships and vessels shall not be liable to any expences attending the shipment of such treasure or other articles, until the same shall be safe alongside of their respective ships or vessels; and that their liability shall cease from the moment they shall have landed the treasure at the port to which the ships carrying the treasure shall be destined.

And it is further declared, that in all other respects, save what is hereby altered, the said Proclamation of the twelfth day of July one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, and the rates and regulations thereby established, shall continue in full force.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this twenty-third day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

St. James's-Palace, April 27, 1831.

THE following Address was this day presented to His Majesty, at the Levee, by Captain Isacke, of the East India Company's Sea Service, which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Governor and Council and Inhabitants of the Island Saint Helena, with sincere and profound respect, crave permission to offer to your Majesty our condolence on the removal from this mortal life, of your Majesty's justly beloved Brother, our late Sovereign, King George the Fourth, of blessed memory; and at the same time to present our congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of the British empire. It is our most ardent prayer that the reign of your Majesty may be prosperous and successful, in promoting that safety and welfare of your people, which must so eminently conduce to the happiness and comfort of your Majesty; and that a similar reciprocity of blessings may be enjoyed in the domestic relations of your Majesty, and our most gracious Queen Adelaide: humbly hoping, that although this expression of devoted and respectful affection, comes from the Residents of a remote colony in the midst of the Atlantic, your Majesty will deign to honour it with your Majesty's gracious acceptance.

Whitehall, April 19, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Friday the 15th day of April instant, a barn and shed at Chatford, in the parish of Preshute, in the county of Wilts, in the occupation of Mr. John Goodman, together with a stack of barley and a quantity of threshed barley, were wilfully and feloniously set on fire and destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said property) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Magistrates and others of the division of Marlborough and Ramsbury, to be paid on application to Mr. Woodman, Clerk to the Magistrates, Marlborough, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, April 19, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, late in the evening of Sunday the 10th day of April instant, or early on the following morning, a corn-mill, at Beighton, in the county of Derby, the property of the Right Honourable Earl Manvers, and in the occupation of Mr. John Staniforth, was feloniously entered by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, who stole a quantity of flour, and afterwards set fire to the mill, whereby nearly the whole of the building, and machinery was destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said mill) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered, in the following proportions, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—£50 by Earl Manvers, £20 by Mr. Staniforth, and £30 by the Aston Association for the Prosecution of Felons.

Whitehall, April 19, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Monday the 11th day of April instant, a hay-rick and two straw-ricks standing on the premises of Mr. Good, of the parish of Hutton, near Bristol, were wilfully and feloniously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said ricks) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. Such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

MELBOURNE.

Whitehall, April 21, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about half past eight o'clock on the evening of Saturday the 16th day of April instant, two bean-ricks, containing about 200 sacks of beans, belonging to Mr. Harry Hitchcock, of Manningford, in the county of Wilts, were feloniously and maliciously set on fire and destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said ricks) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

MELBOURNE.

Whitehall, April 21, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about four o'clock on the morning of Wednesday the 30th day of March last, the barn at Earl Soham Rectory, near Framlingham, in the county of Suffolk, was feloniously and maliciously set on fire and destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Reverend J. H. Groome, Rector of Earl Soham, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

WORCESTERSHIRE LIEUTENANCY.

Droitwich, April 26, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Meeting of the Lieutenancy of the county of Worcester will be held at the Star Hotel, Worcester, on Saturday the 14th day of May next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, on special business.

T. G. Curtler, Clerk to the General Meetings of Lieutenancy.

IN obedience to an order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 19th day of April 1831, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, ch. 91, intituled "An Act for enlarging and improving the west end of Cheapside, in the city of London, also St. Martin-le-Grand, Aldersgate-street, St. Ann's-lane, and Foster-lane, and for providing a site for a new Post-Office, between St. Martin-le-Grand and Foster-lane aforesaid;" and of a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-second year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for increasing the fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blacktriars-bridge;" I do hereby give notice; that between the hours of ten in the forenoon and two in the afternoon; on the 19th day of October next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, the principal sums of money; together with all interest due on the said 19th day of October next ensuing, upon the under-mentioned bonds, being part of the sum of £80,000, raised by the authority of the aforesaid Act of the fifty-fifth of George the Third, under the common seal of this city, and made-payable to Richard Clark, Esq. his executors, administrators, or assigns (by indorsement), will then be paid off, at my said Office at Guildhall, to the several and respective person or persons respectively entitled to receive the same; and that from thenceforth the interest on the said bonds will cease and determine. And, in further obedience to the said order, I do hereby give notice, that if the said several persons respectively entitled to the said bonds, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 19th day of October, and will severally declare such their intention, in writing under their hands, and deliver such declaration at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, ten days previously to the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same (the usual holidays of the said Office excepted), I will, on the day expressed in such declaration, at my said Office, pay to the several persons the principal sums respectively due to them in discharge of the said bonds, together with all interest as shall on the day specified in such declaration for the payment thereof have become due thereon; and which interest or annuity will, upon the said day expressed in such declaration for payment, cease and determine, viz.

The sum of seven thousand pounds, the remaining part of a bond for ten thousand pounds; under the before mentioned Act of Parliament, of the fifty-fifth of George the Third, ch. 91, numbered 1; and the sum of one thousand and nine hundred pounds, part of a bond for ten thousand pounds, under the said Act, numbered 2. James Shaw, Chamberlain.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Ottewill v. Cheverton, with the approbation of Sir Giffin Wilson, Knt. one of the Masters of the said Court, some time in or about the month of June 1831 (of which previous notice will be given);

A farm-house, barn, and other agricultural out-buildings, situate at Mendlesham, near Stowmarket, in the County of Suffolk, with the garden and orchard thereto belonging, and several pieces of land, containing altogether about 46 acres, in the occupation of Mr. George Pettite, under a lease which will expire at Michaelmas 1832.

One of the said pieces of land, called Home Piece, containing about 4A. 2R. 22P. is freehold; and the said house, barn, and buildings, and the several other pieces of land, are copyhold of the Manor of Mendlesham.

Particulars are preparing, and may shortly be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; and of Messrs. Pownall, Son, and Cross, Solicitors, in Staple Inn, London; Messrs. Jones and Ward, of John-Street, Bedford-Row, London; Messrs. Pownall and Hunt, at Ipswich; and Messrs. Marriot, at Stowmarket, on application to whom the estate may be viewed.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 28th day of February 1831, made in a cause intituled Smith against Esdaile, after referring it to William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire, among other things, how and in what manner James Smith, of Woolwich, in the County of Kent, Esq. Colonel in the Royal Horse Artillery, the plaintiff in the said cause, and James Webber Smith, of Bellany, in the East Indies, Esq. would be entitled to the lands and hereditaments, if purchased with the proceeds of £14,513' 4s. 9d. Bank £3 per Cent. Annuities, standing in the name of the Accountant-General of the said Court, in trust in the said cause, it was directed that the said Master should inquire whether there were any charges or incumbrances affecting the said Bank.

Annuities.—Any persons therefore (if any) having such charges or incumbrances as aforesaid, are, by their Solicitors, to bring in such claims before the said Master, on or before the 1st day of June 1831, and substantiate the same, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Ullithorne v. Nicholls, it is referred to John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court whether Patrick Phillips (the Bankrupt in the pleadings of the said cause named), died testate or intestate, and who was his heir at law at the time of his death, and who was his personal representative; and in case the said Master should find that Michael Phillips was the heir at law of the said Patrick Phillips, then the said Master was to inquire and state to the Court who was the heir at law and the personal representative of Michael Phillips.—Therefore any person claiming to be the heir at law of the said Patrick Phillips (formerly of Hungerford-Market, in the Parish of St. Martin in the Fields, in the County of Middlesex, Fishmonger, and afterwards of Bath Town, in the State of Virginia, in North America, and who died there in or about the month of November 1818), at the time of his death, or any person claiming to be his personal representative, is or are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in before the said Master, Mr. Dowdeswell, at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and establish such respective claim, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause wherein Samuel Houston and another are plaintiffs, and Ann Dyson the younger and others are defendants; the Master to whom the said cause is thereby referred, in taking the account of the debts of the testator, George Dyson (who was formerly of Botolph-Lane, in the City of London, Orange-Merchant, and late of Hackney, in the County of Middlesex, Gentleman, and died in the month of November 1826), is to inquire and state to the Court what sum or sums of money (if any) was or were due from the said testator in respect of the rent of the premises, situate in Saint John-Street, in the pleadings in the said cause mentioned, at the time of his decease, and what has since become due from his estate in respect of such rent, or on account of any dilapidations in the said premises.—Therefore any person or persons claiming any sum or sums of money to be due from the said testator for such rent or dilapidations, are to come in and make out and substantiate their claims before Henry Martin, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 20th day of May 1831, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under the Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against George Agg and Wingfield Gee, late of Murcott-Mill, in the Parish of Child's-Wickham, in the County of Gloucester, Silk-Throwsters, Dealers and Chapmen and Copartners, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on Friday the 20th day of May next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Messrs. Phelps and Best, Solicitors, situate at Evesham, in the County of Worcester, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees and the Commissioners under the said Bankruptcy releasing and conveying to the Mortgagee, or to whom she shall appoint, the equity of redemption, and all their estate and interest of and in the copyhold or customary messuage or tenement, garden and premises, late the property of the said Bankrupt, George Agg, and occupied by him, situate at Overbury, in the County of Worcester, and without receiving any consideration money or other benefit for so doing.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Edward Bunford, of Tredegar-Square, Mile-End-Road, in the County of Middlesex, Builder, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Monday the 23d day of May next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling and disposing to the Bankrupt, by private contract, at and for such price as may then and there be named and agreed upon, a certain building agreement, dated the 28th day of February 1825, made between Ann Pope and Michael Pope, therein described, of the one part, and the said Bankrupt of the other part, and taking such security for the payment of the purchase money as to the said Creditors may seem advisable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee relinquishing and giving up certain leases, to be then and there named, and to confirm the power given to him by the 75th section of the Statute of 6 Geo. 4, c. 16, enabling him to make his election not to accept the said leases as part of the Bankrupt's estate and effects, if at such meeting it should be deemed advisable for him so to do; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee employing an accountant or other person to investigate and arrange the books of account of the said Bankrupt, and to pay and allow to such accountant a reasonable compensation for the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or suit, either at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and also to assent or dissent from the said Assignee compromising or compounding any debt or debts due or owing to the estate of the said Bankrupt; or to the submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing, any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Ginever, of Arundel-Street, Panton-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Tailor, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Saturday the 21st day of May next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant to make up the books of the said Bankrupt, and collect and receive the outstanding debts due to the said Bankrupt's estate, and to investigate the accounts to be submitted by the said Bankrupt upon his examination under the said Commission, and to make such allowance and compensation to such accountant as the said Assignees shall be advised or deem reasonable; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of, or concurring in the sale of the lease of the said Bankrupt's house and premises in Arundel-Street aforesaid, for the benefit of the equitable Mortgagee thereof, or in discharge of the lien claimed upon the said lease, either by public auction or private contract, or to authorize such equitable Mortgagee, or person claiming such lien, to prove under the said Commission, for the balance of his debt, without incurring the expence of a petition to the Chancellor for that purpose; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to their compounding for, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Terry and John Terry, of the City of Bath, in the County of Somerset, Hardwaremen, Ironmongers, Copartners, Dealers and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on the 21st day of May next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the White Lion Inn, in the said City of Bath, for the purpose of examining the accounts between the said Bankrupts and certain persons, to be named at the said meeting; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing any suit or suits at law or in equity, or other proceedings, against the said certain persons, respecting their accounts and transactions with the said Bankrupts; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees presenting a petition or petitions to the Lord High Chancellor, for the purpose of setting aside certain securities given by the said Bankrupts to the said certain persons.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the law, relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 27th day of April 1831, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by JAMES TOMS, of Kensington, in the County of Middlesex, Grocer, Dealer and Chapman, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

And on the 29th day of April 1831, by JOSEPH BARBER, of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Manufacturer, Shopkeeper, Dealer and Chapman, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt, bearing date on or about the 22d day of March 1831, was awarded and issued forth against John Joseph Routledge, of No. 154, New Bond-Street, in the County of Middlesex, Haberdasher, Dealer and Chapman; this is to give notice, that the said Commission is, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, superseded.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt, bearing date on or about the 12th day of November 1825, was awarded and issued forth against Jonathan Peacock, of Blackfriars-Road, in the County of Surrey, Grocer, Dealer and Chapman; this is to give notice, that the said Commission is, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, superseded.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued forth against John Bourke Ricketts, of No. 147, Leadenhall-Street, in the City of London, Merchant, Dealer.

and Chapman, and he being declared a Bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major part of them, on the 6th of May next, at Three in the Afternoon precisely, on the 17th day of the same month, and on the 10th of June following, at Two of the Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the second sitting to choose Assignees, and at the last sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate. THE Creditors entitled to the benefit of a sale of the real and personal estate and effects of William Henry Low, late of Witham, in the County of Essex, Maltster, an Insolvent Debtor, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Insolvent, at the Office of Mr. William Henry Pattison, at Witham, in the County of Essex, on the 17th day of May next, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, to direct in what manner, and at which place or places, the estate and effects of the said Insolvent shall be sold, pursuant to the Statute in that case made and provided.

Insolvent Debtor.—Dividend.

WHEREAS the Assignee of the estate and effects of Henry Peters, formerly of Market-Street, and late of Sydney-Street, Cambridge, Cambridgeshire, Cutler, an Insolvent Debtor, lately a prisoner in the King's-Bench, in the County of Surrey, has caused his account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the Creditors of the said Insolvent are requested to meet the Assignee at the Counting-House of Messrs. Parker, Potts, and Denton, situate in Sheffield, in the County of York, on Thursday the 2d day of June next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, when and where the Assignee will declare the amount of the balance in his hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the Creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the Insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the statute.—If any person has a demand, which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said Insolvent, the said Assignee, or any Creditor, objects to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the Statute.

THE Creditors of Robert Taylor, late of No. 14, Salisbury-Street, Strand, in the County of Middlesex, Surveyor, an Insolvent Debtor, who was discharged from the Fleet Prison, are requested to meet the Assignee of his estate and effects, at the Office of Messrs. Evans and Harpur, of Kennington-Cross, in the County of Surrey, Attorneys, on Monday the 23d day of May next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, in or to take into consideration the interest of the Insolvent, in certain leasehold premises, situate, lying and being in the Parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Westminster, in the County of Middlesex, and the several annuities secured and chargeable thereon, and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee assigning and relinquishing all claim to the premises, and the equity of redemption therein to the said annuitants or as they may direct, and for that purpose to join and concur in all necessary assignments or conveyances thereof; or to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling or disposing of the said premises or the equity of redemption thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee taking such steps relating to the premises as he may think fit; and on other affairs relating to the Insolvent's estate.
