TUESDAY, MAY 3, 1831.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 14, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, every Wednesday, at two o'clock, till further notice.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE KING'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend His Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, BEFORE twelve o'clock on the Monday previous to each Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation; it being His Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levee, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levees will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the King.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 25, 1831.

A PROCLAMATION,

For dissolving the present Parliament, and declaring the calling of another.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS We have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to dissolve this present Parliament, which stands prorogued to Tuesday the tenth day of May next: We do for that end publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby dissolve the said Parliament accordingly; and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for shires and burghs, of the House of Commons are discharged from their meeting and attendance on the said Tuesday the tenth day of May next: and We, being desirous and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet Our people, and to have their advice in Parliament, do hereby make known to all Our loving subjects Our Royal will and pleasure to call a new Parliament: and do hereby further declare, that, with the advice of Our Privy Council, We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, and Our Chancellor of Ireland, that they do respectively, upon notice thereof, forthwith issue out writs in due form, and according to law, for calling a new Parliament: and We do hereby also, by this Our Royal Proclamation under Our Great Seal of Our United Kingdom, require writs forthwith to be issued accordingly by Our said Chancellors respectively, for causing the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, who are to serve in the said Parliament, to be duly returned to, and give their attendance in, Our said Parliament; which writs are to be returnable on Tuesday the fourteenth day of June next.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this twenty-third day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, and in the first year of Our reign.

A PROCLAMATION,

In order to the electing and summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS We have in Our Council thought fit to declare Our pleasure, for summoning and holding a Parliament of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on Tuesday the fourteenth day of June next ensuing the date hereof; in order, therefore, to the electing and summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, who are to sit in the House of Peers in the said Parliament: We do, by the advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood-House, in Edinburgh, on Friday the third day of June next ensuing, between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and choose the sixteen Peers, to sit and vote in the House of Peers in the said ensuing Parliament, by open election and plurality of voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the proxies of such as shall be absent (such proxies being Peers, and producing a mandate in writing, duly signed before witnesses, and both the constituent and proxy being qualified according to law), and the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the Principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such meeting, and to administer the oaths required by law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their votes; and immediately after such election made and duly examined, to certify the names of the Sixteen Peers so elected, and to sign and attest the same in the presence of the said Peers the electors, and return such certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We do, by this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly command and require the Provost of Edinburgh, and all other the Magistrates of the said city, to take especial care to preserve the peace thereof, during the time of the said election, and to prevent all manner of riots, tumults, disorders, and violence whatsoever. And We strictly charge and command that this Our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market-Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county-towns of Scotland, twenty-five days, at least, before the time hereby appointed for the meeting of the said Peers to proceed to such election.

Witness Ourself at Westminster, this twenty-third day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter 25th, intituled "An “ Act to enable His Majesty to fix a rate and direct the disposal of freight money for the conveyance of specie and jewels on board His Majesty's ships and vessels,” it is enacted, that from and after the eighth day of April one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, all freight money to be paid for the conveyance on board any of the ships and vessels of His Majesty, of gold, silver, and jewels, or of any other article which may by special order be received on board, and for which freight shall be payable, shall be paid at such rate and be distributed and applied for such purposes, and divided to and amongst such persons in such proportions and after such manner as His Majesty, His heirs and successors should from time to time think fit to order and direct by any Proclamation or Proclamations to be issued for that purpose; in pursuance of which Act a Proclamation was on the twelfth day of July following; made and issued by His Royal Highness the then Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His said Majesty, whereby, amongst other things, a scale of rates at which freights should be payable for public and for private treasure respectively, in peace and war and for different voyages, was fixed and established; and whereas We have thought fit to order that the said rates should be altered, We have, therefore, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, deemed it expedient to issue this Our Royal Proclamation; and We do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that from and after the first day of September next, the said scale of rates so fixed shall cease and be no longer in force; and We do further declare, that from thenceforth the following rates shall be established during peace and war :

	For Crown Treasure.		For Treasure belonging to other Parties.
	Peace and War.
	Gold or Jewels.		Silver.
	Per Cent.	Per Ct.	Per Ct.	Per Ct.
Between any two ports the navigable distance between which shall not exceed six hundred leagues	$\frac{3}{4}$	$\frac{3}{4}$	1
Between any two ports the navigable distance between which shall exceed six hundred leagues, and shall be less than two thousand leagues	1	$1\frac{1}{4}$	$1\frac{1}{2}$
For any distance of two thousand leagues and upwards	1	$1\frac{1}{2}$	2

And it is further established and declared, that such freight shall be payable, clear of all deduction whatsoever; and that it shall be stipulated in the bill of lading, that the Captains and Commanding Officers of Our ships and vessels shall not be liable to any expences attending the shipment of such treasure or other articles, until the same shall be safe alongside of their respective ships or vessels; and that their liability shall cease from the moment they shall have landed the treasure at the port to which the ships carrying the treasure shall be destined.

And it is further declared, that in all other respects, save what is hereby altered, the said Proclamation of the twelfth day of July one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, and the rates and regulations thereby established, shall continue in full force.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this twenty-third day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, and in the first year of Our reign.

A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS We have thought fit to order that certain pieces of money should be coined, that is to say, certain pieces of gold money, to be called respectively double sovereigns, sovereigns, and half sovereigns; and certain pieces of silver money, to be called respectively crowns, half crowns, shillings, and sixpences; and certain pieces of copper money, to be called respectively pence, half pence, and farthings; to be of the several values and weights hereinafter particularly described, that is to say, the double sovereigns to be each of the value of forty shillings, and of the weight of ten pennyweights, six grains, and $\frac{1}{10}$ troy weight, of standard gold; and the sovereigns each of the value of twenty shillings, and of the weight of five pennyweights, three grains, and $\frac{1}{10}$ troy weight, of standard gold; and the half sovereigns each of the value of ten shillings, and of the weight of two pennyweights, thirteen grains, $\frac{1}{10}$ troy weight, of standard gold, according to the weight approved of and confirmed by Our Royal Brother, His late Majesty King George the Fourth, in Council, in pursuance of an Act, made in the fourteenth year of the reign of Our Royal Father King George the Third, intituled “ An Act for regulating and ascertaining the weight to be made use of in weighing the gold and silver coin of this kingdom:” and whereas by an Act, passed in the fifteenth year of the reign of Our Royal Father, His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled “ An Act to provide for a new silver coinage, and to regulate the gold and silver coinage of the realm,” the Master and Worker of Our Mint in London was empowered to coin silver bullion into silver coins, consisting of crowns, half crowns, shillings, and sixpences, of the standard of eleven ounces and two pennyweights of fine silver and eighteen pennyweights of alloy to the pound troy, and in weight after the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy: and whereas, in virtue of the power so given, a coinage of crowns or five shilling pieces, half crowns or pieces of the value of two shillings and sixpence each, at the rate and of the standard aforesaid, has been made, as well as a coinage of copper pieces, called respectively pence, half pence, and farthings: and whereas We have further ordered that such double sovereigns shall have for the obverse impression Our effigy, with the inscription "Gulielmus III, D. G. Britanniarum Rex F. D." and for the reverse the ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom contained in a shield, encircled by the collar of the Order of the Garter, mantled and surmounted by the Royal Crown, with the date of the year, and upon the edge of the piece the words "Decus et Tutamen," and the year of Our reign; and that every such gold sovereign and every such half sovereign so ordered to be coined, shall have for the obverse impression Our effigy, with the same inscription and date, and for the reverse the ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom contained in a shield, plain, with the date of the year, and a graining on the edge of the piece; and every such crown has for the obverse and reverse impressions the same effigy, inscriptions, and dates as are hereby ordered for each double sovereign; and every such half crown has for the obverse and reverse impressions the same effigy, inscriptions, dates, and graining as are hereby ordered for each sovereign; and every such shilling has for the obverse impression the same effigy, inscription, and date, and for the reverse the words "one shilling," placed in the centre of the piece, within a wreath, having an olive branch on one side, and an oak branch on the other; and the sixpences have the same obverse and reverse impressions as those upon the shilling, except the word "sixpence," instead of the words "one shilling;" and We have also thought fit to order that each of the said penny pieces, half penny pieces, and farthings shall have the same obverse impression, effigy, inscription, and date, and for the reverse the figure of Britannia: and whereas pieces of money of all the above descriptions have been coined at Our Mint, and will be coined there, in pursuance of orders issued by Us, We have therefore, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby ordain, declare, and command that the said pieces of money so coined, and to be coined, shall be current and lawful money of the Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall be called by the several names, and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the Kingdom, at the several values herebefore assigned to them, in all payments whatsoever.

Given at our Court at St. James's, this thirteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 23d day of March 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is hereby pleased to withdraw, and doth hereby withdraw, so much of His Majesty's Royal Proclamation, dated at St. James's on the twenty-third of November, in the first year of His Majesty's reign, as declares that rewards, of fifty pounds and five hundred pounds respectively, shall be paid for the detection of offenders therein described; and His Majesty doth, by and with the advice aforesaid, hereby declare, that no such reward will be paid for any information which may be given respecting such offenders, from the date of this Order.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 31st day of January 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Saint George, in the island of Grenada, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Saint George, in the island of Grenada, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

OUTSTANDING DEBTS FOR SALE.

King-Street, Aberdeen, April 27, 1831.

THE outstanding debts due to the sequestrated estate of Allan and Simpson, Ironmongers, in Aberdeen, will be exposed to sale, by public roup, within the Trustee's Office, King-Street, Aberdeen, upon Monday the 4th day of July next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon.

The upset price will be low, in order to ensure a sale, with the view of winding up the Bankrupts' estate.

For further particulars application may be made to Mr. Webster, Advocate, Aberdeen, the Trustee.

Notice to the Creditors of Gordon, Strachan, and Company, Wine-Merchants and Commercial Agents, in Edinburgh and Leith, and of James Gordon and Adam Strachan, the individual Partners of the said Company.

Edinburgh, April 28, 1831.

ALEXANDER LOW, Accountant, in Edinburgh, Trustee on the sequestrated estates of the said Gordon, Strachan, and Company, and James Gordon and Adam Strachan, by instructions of the Commissioners, hereby intimates, that a general meeting of the Creditors on the said sequestrated estates is to be held on Friday the 20th day of May next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, within the Trustee's Chambers, No. 33, Howe-Street, Edinburgh, for the purpose of receiving and considering an offer of composition made by the Bankrupts on the debts due by them as a Company and as individuals.

Notice to the Creditors of the Company carrying on business under the firm of William Aitken, George Aitken, and George and William Aitken, Merchants, Power-Loom Cloth Manufacturers, and Cotton-Spinners, in Glasgow, being one concern, and of William Aitken and George Aitken, the Partners of that Company, as Individuals.

April 28, 1831.

THE Trustee on said sequestrated estates hereby intimates, that a meeting of the Creditors of the said William Aitken, George Aitken, and George and William Aitken, one concern, and of William Aitken and George Aitken, Partners of that Company, as individuals, will be held within the Office of Mr. Alexander Morrison, Writer, 74, Buchanan-Street, Glasgow, upon Wednesday the 18th day of May next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, for the purpose of electing a Commissioner, in the room of one who has declined to act.

Notice to the Creditors of Arthur Scott, Dyer and Bleacher, at Wellpark, Glasgow.

Glasgow, April 28, 1831.

SAMUEL CATTERNS, Drysalter, in Glasgow, hereby intimates, that he has been confirmed Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Arthur Scott; and that the Sheriff of Lanarkshire has fixed Tuesday the 17th and Tuesday the 31st days of May next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon each day, within the Sheriff-Clerk's Office, Glasgow, for the public examination of the Bankrupt and others connected with his affairs.

The Trustee farther intimates, that a meeting of the Creditors will be held within the Office of Edward Railton, Agent, Brunswick-Place, Glasgow, on Wednesday the 1st day of June next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon; and another meeting will be held, at same place and hour, on Tuesday the 14th day of June next, for electing Commissioners, and other purposes mentioned in the Statute.

And the Creditors are hereby required to lodge with the Trustee their claims and vouchers or grounds of debt, with their oaths of verity thereto, at or previous to the said first meeting, in so far as not already done; certifying, that those who fail to do so, betwixt and the 30th day of January 1832, shall be cut off from any share in the first division of the Bankrupt's funds.

Notice to the Creditors of John Crawford and Company, Merchants, in Port-Glasgow, who carried on business at Lisbon, under the firm of Joseph Tucker Crawford and Company, and at Newfoundland, under the firm of Crawford and Co. and of the Individual Partners of these Companies.

Queen Street, Glasgow, April 28, 1831.

THE Trustee upon the sequestrated estates of the foresaid Companies, and individual Partners, hereby intimates, that, upon the suggestion of several of the Creditors, and by the instructions of the Commissioners upon the said estates, he has made up a state of the funds of that portion of the estate upon which the Creditors of the deceased John Crawford, of Broadfield, have been found to be preferable, which state has been approved of and docketed by the Commissioners; and that, upon the 10th day of June next, he will pay, from the proceeds of the heritable estate which belonged to the said deceased John Crawford, of Broadfield, an interim dividend to those Creditors of the said deceased John Crawford who have proved their debts against James Crawford, as his heir at law, agreeable to a scheme of division prepared by the Trustee; which state and scheme of division will lie at his Counting-House, Queen-Street, for the inspection of the Creditors, until the said dividend is payable.

As a large proportion of the debts claimed upon the estate have been objected to by the Trustee, and are now the subject of discussion before the Supreme Court, the present dividend is made without prejudice to these claims, but the dividend will be paid upon every other claim upon the estate to which no objection has already been stated, unless the Trustee is legally interpellated from doing so before the said 10th day of June next.—And of which all concerned are required to take notice.

Notice to the Creditors of Andrew Reid and Company, Merchants and Manufacturers, in Glasgow, and of Andrew Paterson Reid and Alexander Barr, both Merchants and Manufacturers there, as Partners of that Company, and as Individuals.
