TUESDAY, MAY 17, 1831.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 10, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that mourning will not be worn at the Juvenile Fête, at St. James's-Palace, on the 24th instant, being the Birth-day of Her Royal Highness the Princess Vittoria; nor at the Drawing-Room on the 28th instant, being the day appointed for the celebration of His Majesty's Birth-day.

Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, Queen's-House, St. James's, May 13, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the King's Birth-day being appointed to be held on the 28th of May, Her Majesty has been pleased to postpone the Drawing-Room of May 26, until June 23.

The Queen will hold Drawing-Rooms, at St. James's-Palace, on the following days:

May	28.
June	23.

Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, Queen's-House, St. James's.

IN consequence of the great number of Ladies who are still anxious to have the honour of being presented to the Queen, Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to rescind the order of May 5th, respecting presentations on the King's Birth-day.

Ladies will, therefore, have an opportunity of being presented to Her Majesty on that day, in conformity with the usual regulations.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 14, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, every Wednesday, at two o'clock, till further notice.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE KING'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend His Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, BEFORE twelve o'clock on the Monday previous to each Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation; it being His Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levee, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levees will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the King.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 25, 1831.

Whitehall, May 9, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the evening of Sunday the 24th day of April last, a barn, situate at Hurstperpoint, in the county of Sussex, belonging to Mr. Borrer, and containing a quantity of wheat and straw, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, whereby the same, together with a straw stack adjoining, was consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by Mr. Borrer, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, May 17, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about half past eight o'clock on the morning of Tuesday the 19th day of May instant, two respectably dressed men gained admittance into the dwelling-house of Mr. John Thomson, No. 23, Tabernacle-row, City-road, with an intention of robbing the same, and assaulted and severely wounded Ann Ruff, the housekeeper, with a crow bar, and, on an alarm being given, escaped undiscovered;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the offence before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them except the person who actually struck and wounded the said Ann Ruff, who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by Mr. Thomson, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, May 17, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about ten o'clock on the night of Wednesday the 11th day of May instant, a wheat stack, standing on a farm called Fishall, in the parish of Hadlow, near Tonbridge, in the county of Kent, the property of Mr. May, and in the occupation of Mr. John Waite, was feloniously and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stack) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—£100 of such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and £100 by Mr. John Waite, of Hadlow.

MELBOURNE.

Admiralty-Office, May 14, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol-Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old

Bailey, London, on Friday the 17th of June next, at eight o'clock in the morning:

And all Sheriffs, Gaolers, and Keepers of Prisons, in whose custody any prisoners, charged with offences committed on the High Seas, or within the said jurisdiction, may be, are hereby required to transmit a copy of the commitment of every such prisoner to Mr. Charles Jones, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, at his Office, No. 10, Lancaster-place, Strand, London, in order that the necessary measures may be taken, for removing all such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol of Newgate, for trial at the said intended session. And all Mayors, Justices, Coroners, and other Officers, before whom any inquisitions, informations, examinations, or recognizances may have been taken touching any such offences, are required to transmit the same forthwith to Mr. John Clark, the Clerk of Arraignment of the High Court of Admiralty of England, at his Office, at the Sessions-house, in the Old Bailey, London.

George Elliot.

THE Commissioners for paving, repairing, lighting, and cleansing the streets and other public passages and places within that part of the parish of Clerkenwell called St. James's, in the county of Middlesex, do hereby, in pursuance of the direction in that behalf contained in a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, chap. 29, sect. 99, intituled "An Act for better paving, improving, and regulating the streets of the metropolis, and removing and preventing nuisances and obstructions therein," give notice that they will, on the 16th day of July now next ensuing, pay off the principal money and interest secured by an assignment made by the said Commissioners to Mr. Thomas Norton, of No. 20, Conduit-street, St. George's, Hanover-square, in the county of Middlesex, linen-draper, of the rates and assessments to be raised, levied, and collected in the said part of the said parish, made and to be made for or towards the paving and repairing the pavements, and lighting and cleansing the streets and public places within the same; and the said Mr. Thomas Norton is hereby required to take notice that he may, on or after the said 16th day of July now next ensuing, receive and be paid all such principal money and interest; by applying to Samuel Butler, Esq. Treasurer to the said Commissioners, Vineyard-walk, Clerkenwell aforesaid, between the hours of ten and two o'clock; upon which said 16th day of July now next ensuing, all interest will cease to be paid upon the principal money secured by the said assignment. Dated this 16th day of May 1831.

Thomas Cromwell, Clerk to the Commissioners.

CONTRACT FOR HAMMOCKS.

Navy-Office, May 3, 1831.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 18th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's Dock-yard at Deptford with 20,000 Sacking Hammocks;

to be delivered within three months from the day of treaty.

A pattern of the hammocks and a form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £1000, for the due performance of the contract. G. Smith.
