TUESDAY, MAY 24, 1831.

*Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen,
Queen's-House, St. James's, May 13, 1831.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that the King's Birth-day being appointed to be held on the 28th of May, Her Majesty has been pleased to postpone the Drawing-Room of May 26, until June 23.

The Queen will hold Drawing-Rooms, at St. James's-Palace, on the following days:

May	28.
June	23.

Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, Queen's-House, St. James's.

IN consequence of the great number of Ladies who are still anxious to have the honour of being presented to the Queen, Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to rescind the order of May 5th, respecting presentations on the King's Birth-day.

Ladies will, therefore, have an opportunity of being presented to Her Majesty on that day, in conformity with the usual regulations.

*Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen,
Queen's-House, St. James's, May 24, 1831.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that the cards for the presentation of Ladies at Her Majesty's Drawing-Room on Saturday the 28th instant, must be sent in to the Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, before one o'clock on Thursday the 26th.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 24, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will not hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 1st of June next.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 24, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 8th of June next, at two o'clock; and on every succeeding Wednesday till further notice.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE KING'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend His Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, BEFORE twelve o'clock on the Monday previous to each Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation; it being His Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levee, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levees will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the King.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 25, 1831.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 23d of May 1831,

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to repeal the several

"laws relating to the performance of quarantine, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, to make such Order as they shall see necessary and expedient upon any unforeseen emergency, or in any particular case or cases, with respect to any vessel arriving and having any infectious disease or distemper on board, or on board of which any infectious disease or distemper may have appeared in the course of the voyage, or arriving under any other alarming or suspicious circumstances as to infection, although such vessels shall not have come from any place from which His Majesty, His heirs or successors, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, may have adjudged and declared it probable that the plague, or any such infectious disease or distemper, may be brought; and also with respect to the persons, goods, wares, and merchandise, and other articles as aforesaid on board the same; and that all such Orders so made by the Lords or others of the Privy Council, or any two or more of them as aforesaid, shall be as good, valid, and effectual to all intents and purposes (as well with respect to the Commander, Master, or other person having the charge of any vessel, and all other persons on board the same, as with respect to any other persons having any intercourse or communication with them, and to the penalties, forfeitures, and punishments to which they may respectively become liable), as any Order or Orders made by His Majesty, His heirs, or successors, by and with the advice of His or their Privy Council, concerning quarantine, notified by Proclamation or published in the London Gazette :

And whereas advices have been received that the cholera morbus has lately been making alarming progress in certain provinces of the Russian empire, it is hereby ordered in Council, that all vessels coming from, or having touched at, any port or place in Russia, and bound to any port or place in the United Kingdom, or to the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man (having clean bills of health), as well as all vessels, boats, and persons having had communication with such vessels, shall proceed to such of the under-mentioned ports as may be the nearest and most convenient to their port of destination, viz. Cromarty-bay, in the Murray Frith, to the anchorage in the Frith of Tay, near Dundee, in the Frith of Forth, between the North Queen's-ferry and Lord Elgin's Lime-kilns ; White Booth-roads, (between Hull and Grimsby) ; Standgate-creek ; the Motherbank, at Portsmouth ; Plymouth ; Falmouth ; Milford-haven ; Bromboro'-pool, (in the river Mersey, near Liverpool) ; Holy-loch, in the Frith of Clyde ; and shall there perform quarantine, and be subject with their crews, pilots, and all persons having communication with such vessels, to all the rules and regulations established by His late Majesty's Order in Council, of the nineteenth of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five :

And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors and Commanders in Chief for the time being of the said isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark and Man, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Whitehall, May 17, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about half past eight o'clock on the morning of Tuesday the 10th day of May instant, two respectably dressed men gained admittance into the dwelling-house of Mr. John Thomson, No. 23, Tabernacle-row, City-road, with an intention of robbing the same, and assaulted and severely wounded Ann Ruff, the housekeeper, with a crow bar, and, on an alarm being given, escaped undiscovered;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the offence before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them except the person who actually struck and wounded the said Ann Ruff, who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED and FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by Mr. Thomson, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, May 17, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about ten o'clock on the night of Wednesday the 11th day of May instant, a wheat stack, standing on a farm called Fishall, in the parish of Hadlow, near Tonbridge, in the county of Kent, the property of Mr. May, and in the occupation of Mr. John Waite, was feloniously and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to pronise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stack) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—£100 of such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and £100 by Mr. John Waite, of Hadlow.

MELBOURNE.

Admiralty-Office, May 14, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Friday the 17th of June next, at eight o'clock in the morning:

And all Sheriffs, Gaolers, and Keepers of Prisons, in whose custody any prisoners, charged with offences committed on the High Seas, or within the said jurisdiction, may be, are hereby required to transmit a copy of the commitment of every such prisoner to Mr. Charles Jones, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, at his Office, No. 10, Lancaster-place, Strand, London, in order that the necessary measures may be taken, for removing all such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol of Newgate, for trial at the said intended session. And all Mayors, Justices, Coroners, and other Officers, before whom any inquisitions, informations, examinations, or recognizances may have been taken touching any such offences, are required to transmit the same forthwith to Mr. John Clark, the Clerk of Arraignment of the High Court of Admiralty of England, at his Office, at the Sessions-house, in the Old Bailey, London.

WALTER PRICE, Recorder, O. C.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery of Great Britain, made in a cause wherein Frederick Marryat, Esq. and others, are plaintiffs, and James Cowper and Stephen Richards, are defendants, it is referred to Henry Martin, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court whether there was any child of the marriage of Mary Sharp and John Thomas Williams therein respectively named, or any child who, being a son, attained the age of twenty-one years, or died under that age leaving issue living at his death, or being a daughter attained that age, or was married, and in case the said Master should find there was not, then whether the said Mary, the wife of the said John Thomas Williams, made any and what appointment of the sum of £4,500 three per cent. Reduced Annuities, therein mentioned, or any part thereof, in pursuance of the power for that purpose, contained in the marriage settlement therein mentioned; therefore any such child or children, or any person or persons claiming under them, or under the said Mary Williams, or under any appointment which she may have made of the said £4,500 Bank Annuities, are forthwith to come in and make out and substantiate their claims before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof, they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.—The said John Thomas Williams was formerly a Captain in the second or Queen's, regiment of foot, and the said Mary Williams died in the Island of Grenada in or about the month of March 1819.

PURSUANT to an Order of the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, dated the 23d day of December 1830, made in the matter of James Hubbard, a Lunatic, the Next of Kin of Eliza Currie, formerly Eliza Hubbard, daughter of James Hubbard, late of Southgate, in the County of Middlesex, Lieutenant-Colonel in the East Middlesex Militia, and which said Eliza Currie was the wife of Peter Currie, Esq. deceased, formerly of Upper Gattton, in the County of Surrey, and late of Richmond, in the said County, are forthwith, by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their kindred before George Boone Roupell, Esq. one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

PURSUANT to a Decree of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, in a cause Thompson v. Littledale and others, the Creditors of Alexander Hammond, late of Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland, Gentleman, deceased (who died on or about the 8th day of March 1828), are, by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their respective debts before Richard Richards, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Office, in the Inner Temple, London, on or before the 20th day of June next, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

TO be sold by auction, before the major part of Commissioners acting in a Commission of Bankrupt now in prosecution against Joseph Fielding and Jeremiah Fielding, both of Catterall and of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Calico-Printers, Dealers and Chapmen, at the Red Lion Hotel, in Preston, in the same County, on Wednesday the 15th day of June next, at Five o'Clock in the Evening, in such lots, and subject to such conditions, as shall then be determined on;

All that valuable freehold estate, called and known by the name of the Catterall Print-Works, comprising all those newly erected, substantial and extensive buildings, offices and erections, reservoirs, goits, and streams of water thereunto belonging, heretofore occupied by the said Joseph and Jeremiah Fielding in carrying on their extensive business of Calico-Printers.

Also all that tenement formerly called Adamson's, and the several closes of land thereto belonging and adjoining, called or known by the names of Great Meadow, Kiln Croft, Bloodyfield, Marled Earth, Highfield, Dam Meadow, Field at back of the House, Barnfield, Moorfield or Moorhey Cross Field, with the six dwelling-houses thereon erected and being, also the yards and gardens thereto adjoining.

A messuage or tenement, called Boys or Lucas, and the closes of land thereunto belonging, with the six messuages or dwelling-houses, yards and gardens contiguous thereto.

A cottage, gardens, and closes of land, called Hornby's Croft.

Likewise a dwelling-house, mill, outoffices, limekiln, gardens, plantations, with the wharfs and appurtenances thereunto belonging, and adjoining the Preston and Lancaster Canal, all which said closes, lands and premises are situate at Catterall and Barnacre with Bonds, in the said County of Lancaster, and contain altogether 40A. OR. 36P. statute measure, or thereabouts, together also with the advantage to be derived from the powerful fall and stream of water and watercourse from the River Calder.

The above works and premises are advantageously situated, and well adapted for carrying on an extensive trade.

For further particulars application may be made at the Office of Mr. Buckenbury, Solicitor, Manchester; Messrs. Dixon and Abraham, Solicitors, Preston; and to Mr. Trappes, Solicitor, Clithero, where plans of the property may be seen.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Benjamin Ansell, of Camberwell, in the County of Surrey, Linen-Draper, by indenture, bearing date the 28th day of March last, did bargain, sell, assign, transfer, and set over, all his stock in trade, book and other debts, monies, and securities for money, household goods, plate, linen, furniture, and fixtures, and all other his personal estate whatsoever and whereover, unto Anthony Stratton, of Cheapside, in the City of London, Warehouseman, and James Simes, of Wood-Street, Cheapside-aforesaid, Warehouseman (their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns), being two of the Creditors of the said Benjamin Ansell, for the benefit of themselves and all other the Creditors of the said Benjamin Ansell, whose names are mentioned and set forth in a schedule under the said deed written; and that such deed was executed by the said Benjamin Ansell on the day of the date hereof, and by the said Anthony Stratton and James Simes within fifteen days from the day of the date thereof; and that the execution of the said deed by the said parties is attested by Peter Bruce Turner, of Basing-Lane, in the City of London, Attorney at Law; and that the said deed remains for execution by any other of the aforesaid Creditors at the Office of Mr. P. B. Turner, 8, Basing-Lane, Solicitor for the said Trustees.
