Whitehall, June 13, 1831.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Edward Margetts, of Birningham, in the county of Warwick, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, June 14, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about half past eleven o'clock on the night of Thursday the 2d day of June instant, a barn and lodge, and a quantity of oats and straw, on Nunningham Farm, in Herstmonceux, near Battle, in the county of Sussex, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire, and destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn, &c.), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—£100 of such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and £200 by Mr. Thomas Charles Bellingham, Clerk to the Magistrates, Battle.

MELBOURNE.

Whitehall, June 14, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Monday the 6th day of June instant, the buildings standing on a farm called Berensgrove, in the parish of Rainham, in the county of Kent, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, whereby two barns (containing about sixty quarters of wheat, and the same quantity of beans), two lodges, and two stables, together with other farm premises, were entirely consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and a further reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS by the inhabitants of the parish of Rainham, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

MELBOURNE.

Whitehall, June 14, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the morning of Tuesday the 7th day of June instant, a plantation or cover, in the parish of Prees, near Whitechurch, in the county of Salop, the property of Sir Rowland Hill, Bart. was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said plantation) who shall discover his accom-
