At the Court at St. James's, June 22, 1831.

The King, as Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, has been graciously pleased, by letters patent under His royal sign manual, and the great seal of the Order, bearing date the 20th day of June instant, to dispense with all the statutes and regulations usually observed in regard to installation, and to grant unto His Serene Highness Augustus-William-Maximilian-Frederick-Lewis, Reigning Duke of Brunswick, Knight of the said Most Noble Order, and duly invested with the ensigns thereof, full power and authority to exercise all rights and privileges belonging to a Knight Companion of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, in as full and ample a manner as if His Serene Highness had been formally installed; any decree, rule, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

St. James's-Palace, June 22, 1831.

The King was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood upon the Right Honourable Robert Wilmot Horton, Governor and Commander in Chief of the island of Ceylon.

Downing-Street, June 24, 1831.

His Majesty has been pleased to establish a Commission, for the purpose of collecting and communicating to persons desirous to emigrate to any of the British possessions abroad, in quest of employment, such information as may be useful to the parties so circumstanced; and generally to render to such persons such counsel, advice, and aid as can be lawfully afforded to them, in effecting such emigrations.

The Commissioners will hold their meetings at the Colonial-Office, in Downing-street, and the following are the persons appointed:

- His Grace the Duke of Richmond.
 - Viscount Howick.
 - Francis Thornhill Baring, Esq.
 - Henry Ellis, Esq. and
 - Robert William Hay, Esq.
- Frederick T. Elliot, Esq. to act as Secretary to the said Commissioners.

Whitehall, June 23, 1831.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Sir Robert Hugh Kennedy, Knt. Commissary-General of the Forces, His Majesty's royal licence and authority that he may accept and wear the insignia of a Knight of the royal and distinguished Spanish Order of Charles the Third, which His Majesty Ferdinand the Seventh, King of Spain, was graciously pleased to confer upon him, in testimony of his royal approbation of his distinguished conduct during the Peninsular war:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, June 23, 1831.

The King has been pleased to ordain and declare, that George-Chapple Norton, Esq. Barrister at Law, Recorder of Guildford, in the county of Surrey, and late Representative in Parliament for that borough; Charles-Francis Norton, Esq. Lieutenant in His Majesty's 52d Regiment of Foot, and Representative in Parliament for Guildford aforesaid; James Norton, of University College, Oxford, Esq.; Dame Grace-Charlotte Menzies, wife of Sir Niel Menzies, of Castle Menzies, in North Britain, Bart.; Caroline-Elizabeth Norton, Mary-Ellen Norton, and William-Augusta-Ann Norton, spinsters, brothers and sisters of the Right Honourable Fletcher Lord Grantley, Baron of Markenfield, in the county of York, shall henceforth respectively have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, and precedence, as if their father, Fletcher Norton, Esq. commonly called the Honourable Fletcher Norton, sometime Baron of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland, and second son of Fletcher first Baron Grantley, had survived his elder brother William Baron Grantley, and had actually succeeded to the dignity of Baron Grantley:

And also to command, that the said grant be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Surrey.
