By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

Declaring His Majesty's Pleasure touching His Royal Coronation and the Solemnity thereof.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS We have resolved, by the favour and blessing of Almighty God, to celebrate the solemnity of Our Royal Coronation, and of the Coronation of Our dearly-beloved Consort, the Queen, upon Thursday the eighth day of September next, at Our Palace at Westminster; and forasmuch as by ancient customs and usages of this realm, as also in regard of divers tenures of sundry manors, lands, and other hereditaments, many of Our loving subjects do claim, and are bound to do and perform divers services on the said day and at the time of the Coronation, as in times precedent their ancestors, and those from whom they claim, have done and performed at the Coronations of Our famous Progenitors and Predecessors, Kings and Queens of this realm; We, therefore, out of Our princely care for the preservation of the lawful rights and inheritances of Our loving subjects whom it may concern, have thought fit to give notice of and publish Our resolution therein; and do hereby give notice, of and publish the same accordingly; and We do hereby further signify, that by Our Commission under Our Great Seal of Great Britain, We have appointed and authorised Our most dearly beloved Brothers and Councillors Ernest Augustus Duke of Cumberland; Augustus Frederick Duke of Sussex; Adolphus Frederick Duke of Cambridge; Our most dear Cousins and Councillors William Frederick Duke of Gloucester, and Prince Leopold of Saxe Coburg; the Most Reverend Father in God Our right trusty and right entirely-beloved Councillor William Archbishop of Canterbury, Primate of all England and Metropolitan; Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor Henry Lord Brougham and Vaux, our Chancellor of Great Britain; the Most Reverend Father in God Our right trusty and right entirely-beloved Councillor Edward Archbishop of York, Primate of England and Metropolitan; Our right trusty and entirely-beloved Cousin and Councillor Henry Marquess of Lansdowne, President of Our Council; Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor John George Lord Durham, Keeper of Our Privy Seal; Our right trusty and right entirely-beloved Cousins and Councillors Bernard Edward Duke of Norfolk, Hereditary Earl Marshal of England; William Spencer Duke of Devonshire, Lord Chamberlain of Our Household; Charles Duke of Richmond, Our Postmaster-General; George
