A PROCLAMATION,

Declaring His Majesty's further Pleasure touching His Royal Coronation and the Solemnity thereof.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS having resolved, by the favour and blessing of Almighty God, to celebrate the solemnity of Our Royal Coronation, and of the Coronation of Our dearly beloved Consort the Queen, upon the eighth day of September next, at Our Palace, at Westminster; and having accordingly signified Our Royal pleasure concerning the same, by Our Proclamation, dated the thirteenth day of July instant, whereby, amongst other things, We thought fit, out of Our princely care for the preservation of the lawful rights and inheritances of Our loving subjects whom it might concern, to declare, that, by Our Commission under the Great Seal of Great Britain, We had appointed and authorised Our most dearly-beloved Brothers and Councillors Ernest Augustus Duke of Cumberland, Augustus Frederick Duke of Sussex, Adolphus Frederick Duke of Cambridge, Our most dear Cousins and Councillors William Frederick Duke of Gloucester, and Prince Leopold of Saxe Coburg, and divers Lords and others of Our Privy Council, therein named, or any five or more of them, to receive, hear, and determine the petitions and claims which should be to them exhibited by any of Our loving subjects in this behalf; and that We should appoint Our said Commissioners for that purpose to sit in the Painted Chamber of Our Palace, at Westminster, upon Monday the twenty-fifth day of July instant, at eleven of the clock in the morning of the same day, and from time to time to adjourn as to them should seem meet, for the execution of Our said Commission; and whereby We did also signify unto all and every Our loving subjects whom it might concern, that Our will and pleasure was, and We did thereby strictly charge and command all persons, of what rank or quality soever they might be, who, either upon our letters to them directed, or by reason of their offices or tenures, or otherwise, were to do any service at the said day or time of our Coronation, that they would duly give their attendance accordingly, in all respects furnished and appointed as to so great a solemnity appertaineth, and answerable to the dignities and places which every one of them respectively held and enjoyed, and of that they, or any of them, were not to fail as they would answer the contrary at their perils, unless upon special reasons by Ourselves under Our hand to be allowed, We should dispense with any of their services or attendances :

And whereas by a report made unto Us by a Committee of the Lords of Our Most Honourable Privy Council, to whom We thought fit to refer the arrangement of preparations necessary upon the occasion of the aforesaid Coronation, the said Committee of Our said Privy Council have in obedience to Our commands, whereby they were specially directed to make the said arrangements as much abridged and as economical as might be compatible with a strict regard to the solemnity and importance of the occasion, and a due compliance with the provisions of existing Statutes in that behalf, reported to Us their opinion, that it may be proper for Us to omit that part of the ceremonial which usually takes place in Westminster-Hall, and that part thereof which consists of the procession, and that We should give directions for the celebration of that part only (as it might be hereafter curtailed), which is solemnized in Westminster-Abbey ; and the said Committee of Our Privy Council have further submitted to Us, that in dispensing with the ceremonies which have heretofore taken place in Westminster-Hall, it may be proper that We should dispense with the services and attendance of those who, by ancient customs and usages, as also in regard of divers tenures of sundry manors, lands, and other hereditaments, do claim and are bound to do and perform divers several services at the time of Our said Coronation, which services would have been performed in Westminster-Hall, or in the procession, and at the same time that We would be graciously pleased to declare, that such dispensation should in no wise interfere with the rights and privileges they may claim as touching the performances of the said services at any future Coronation of the Kings or Queens of this realm : and whereas the said Committee of Our said Privy Council have further represented unto Us, that it may be advisable for Us to issue Our Royal Proclamation to that effect, We, therefore, in compliance with the advice so dutifully tendered to Us by Our Privy Council, and having at heart the ease of Our loving subjects, do, by this Our Royal Proclamation, signify and declare that it is Our Royal will and pleasure, that such part only of the solemnity and ceremony of the Royal Coronation of Ourselves and Our dearly beloved Consort the Queen, as is usually upon the Coronation of the Kings and Queens of this realm, solemnized in Westminster-Abbey, shall take place, and We do further, by this Our Royal Proclamation, signify and declare, that We do for Ourselves, and for Our dearly beloved Consort the Queen, dispense upon the occasion of this Our Coronation, with the procession, and with the services and attendance of all persons who, by ancient custom and usage, or in regard of their tenures of any manors, lands, or other hereditaments, do claim, and are bound to do and perform, any services, at the time of the Coronation, which, according to ancient custom or usage, are to be performed in Westminster-Hall, or in the procession, such dispensation, nevertheless, to be altogether without prejudice to the rights and prerogatives of our Successors, Kings and Queens of this Realm, to demand and require the performance of the said several services at any future Coronation of the Kings or Queens of this Realm : and we do hereby further graciously declare, that the same shall not interfere with the rights and privileges of any of our loving subjects, to claim the performances of such several services, or any of them, at any future Coronation : and We do hereby, in further compliance with the advice of the aforesaid Committee of our Privy Council, declare, and make known, to all such of Our loving subjects as it may concern, that it seems good to Us, that the Committee of Claims shall, upon the occasion of this our Coronation, but without prejudice for the future to the rights and claims of any of our loving subjects, exclude from their consideration such claims as may be submitted to them, in respect of rights or services connected with the parts of the ceremonial heretofore performed in Westminster-Hall, and with the procession : and, We are further pleased, by the advice aforesaid, to direct that the Court of Claims do meet in the Council Chamber, at White Hall, instead of in the Painted Chamber, at Westminster, as had been directed by Our former Proclamation.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the fifteenth day of July, in the second year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

At the Court at St. James's, the 13th day of July 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British “possessions abroad,” it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America, to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Kingstown, in the island of Saint Vincent, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested, in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Kingstown, in the island of Saint Vincent, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 13th day of July 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled “An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia,” it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place, but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order in Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding; and whereas by an Order in Council, made the twenty-eighth of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty, it was ordered by His Majesty in Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the sixteenth of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty, but that the ballot should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said sixteenth of July; and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year, from and after the sixteenth of July in this year; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year, from and after the sixteenth day of July in this year, but that the ballot or enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended, for the space of one year from and after the sixteenth day of July instant.
