Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, JULY 22, 1831.

At the Court at St. James's, the 13th day of July 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America, to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Kingstown, in the island of Saint Vincent, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested, in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Kingstown, in the island of Saint Vincent, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Ma-

esty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

At the Court at St. James's, the 13th day of July 1831;

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place, but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order in Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding; and whereas by an Order in Council, made the twenty-eighth of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty, it was ordered by His Majesty in Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the sixteenth of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty, but that the ballot should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said sixteenth of July; and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year, from and after the sixteenth of July in this year; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year, from and after the sixteenth day of July in this year, but that the ballot or enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended, for the space of one year from and after the sixteenth day of July instant.

C. C. Greville.

At the Court at St. James's, July 20, 1831.

CEREMONIAL of the Investiture of Lieutenant-General the Right Honourable Sir John Byng, with the Ensigns of a Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath.

The following Knights Grand Crosses, in their mantles and collars of the Order, assembled at St. James's-Palace, viz. His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland; Lord Howden; the Duke of Wellington; Lord Hill; Lord Viscount Combermere; Sir John Doyle, Bart.; the Right Honourable Sir James Kempt; and the Earl of Rosslyn; attended by the undernamed Officers of the Order, in their mantles, chains, and badges, viz. Sir George Nayler, Knt. Genealogist of the Order; Algernon Greville, Esq. Bath King of Arms; Captain Michael Seymour, R. N. Register and Secretary of the Order; and George-Frederick Beltz, Esq. Gentleman Usher of the Order.

At two o'clock the Knights Grand Crosses were called over, and, with the Officers of the Order, proceeded into the presence of the Sovereign in the Throne-room, with the usual reverences.

Then, by His Majesty's command, Lieutenant-General Sir John Byng was introduced into the Royal Presence, between the two Junior Knights Grand Crosses present, preceded by Bath King of Arms, bearing the ribband, badge, and star of a Knight Grand Cross of the Order upon a crimson velvet cushion, and by the Gentleman Usher of the Order.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, having thereupon received from Bath King of Arms the ribband and badge, presented them to the Sovereign, and Sir John Byng, kneeling, His Majesty was graciously pleased to put the same over the Lieutenant-General's right shoulder; Sir John Byng, rising, had the honour to kiss the Sovereign's hand, and having received from His Majesty the star of the Order, withdrew.

The Knights Grand Crosses were then again called over, and, with the Officers of the Order, retired from the presence of the Sovereign, with the usual reverences.

St. James's-Palace, July 20, 1831.

This day the Baron Bülow, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of Prussia, had a private audience of His Majesty, to deliver a letter from his Sovereign; to which he was introduced by Lord Viscount Palmerston, His Maesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Sir Robert Chester, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

TOLLS TO LET.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the tolls payable at the Toll-gates near the Angel Inn, in Strood, and on the New Road leading from Rochester to Chatham-hill, in the county of Kent, will separately be let to farm to the best bidders, for the term of two years from the 30th day of November 1831, at the Bull Inn, in Rochester aforesaid, on Wednesday the 24th day of August next; between the hours of eleven in the forenoon and one in the afternoon.

No person will be permitted to advance less than £5 at each bidding, and whoever happens to be the best bidder must at the same time give security, with sufficient sureties to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of the said Toll-gates, for payment of the rents agreed for by quarterly payments in advance. The highest bidders will be required to pay, at the time of the letting, one half part of the first quarter of a year's rent, and the remainder before the said 30th day of November. The present yearly rent of the tolls at Strood is £1215, and of the tolls at the New Road Gate is £106.

For further information enquire at the Office of Messrs. Twopeny and Essell, Solicitors, College-green, Rochester.

By order of the Commissioners,

Edward Twopeny, Clerk.

Edward Barber's Creditors.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the Creditors of Edward Barber, formerly of Tideswell, Farmer and Ironmonger, then of Chapel-en-le-Frith, Farmer and Victualler, then of Litton, Farmer, and late of Tideswell aforesaid, all in the County of Derby, and who was lately discharged from the King's-Bench Prison, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and consolidate the laws for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England," will be held on Monday the 8th day of August next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the house of Mr. Joseph Leach, the George Inn, in Tideswell, in the County of Derby, to approve and direct in what manner, at what time, and at what place or places, the real estate of the said Insolvent shall be sold by public auction.

Insolvent Debtor.—Dividend.

WHEREAS the Assignees of the estate and effects of James Allen, late of Saint David's-Hill, in the County of the City of Exeter, Baker, an Insolvent Debtor, lately a prisoner in the Gaol in and for the said City, have caused their account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to; to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the Creditors of the said Insolvent are requested to meet the Assignees at the Office of Messrs. Geare and Mountford, Solicitors, Exeter, on the 24th day of August next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, when and where the Assignees will declare the amount of the balance in their hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the Creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the Insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the Statute.—If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said Insolvent, the said Assignees, or any Creditor, object to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the Statute.

THE Creditors of John Bingham, late of Giltspur-Street, in the City of London, Plumber, an Insolvent Debtor, who was discharged from the Debtors' Prison for London and Middlesex, on or about the month of May 1835, by virtue of the Act or Acts of Parliament then in force for the relief of Insolvent Debtors, are requested to meet the Assignee of the Insolvent's estate, on Saturday the 6th day of August next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Office of Messrs. Stratton, Overton, and Ludlam, No. 41, Shoreditch, London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling and disposing of the Bankrupt's interest in certain freehold property, situate at Legbourne, in the County of Lincoln, either by public sale or private contract; and either together or in parcels.

at such times, and upon such terms as the said Assignee shall think advisable, and either subject to any mortgage or mortgages thereon or not, and with or without the consent or concurrence of the Mortgagee, and to buy in or resell the same, or any part thereof, in such manner as to the Assignee may seem advisable, without being answerable for any loss or diminution in price at any such resale, or for any expences incurred by any such buying in and resale; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee paying off, or otherwise arranging a certain mortgage on the said property, of about the sum of £150; and also to the Assignee paying and allowing, or otherwise settling and arranging certain equitable liens claimed by the said Mortgagee upon the said property, for the sum of £160 or thereabouts, in such manner as he shall think fit; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee instituting any suit or suits in equity for the purpose of compelling the said Mortgagee to deliver up the deeds relating to the said property, upon payment of the amount, which shall be found to be due to him for principal and interest on his said mortgage and to obtain a reconveyance of the said property, discharged from all such alleged equitable liens as are claimed thereon; and all claims and demands in respect thereof; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee submitting to arbitration, or compounding the said alleged equitable liens; and to his commencing any suit at law or in equity, for recovery of any part of the said Insolvent's estate and effects; and submitting to arbitration, compounding, compromising, or settling any suits or actions, accounts, debts, demands, differences, or disputes, relating to the estate and effects of the said Insolvent.—Dated this 14th day of July 1831.
