

with such person in respect of the matters in his bill contained, on the terms and conditions to be stated at the meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, defending, or compromising any action or actions, suit or suits, or other proceedings, at law or in equity, touching or concerning the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees giving up to the said Bankrupt certain articles of furniture, plate, and effects, a list of which with the value annexed will be produced to the meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an occasional clerk or book-keeper, and allowing him a reasonable salary for his services; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees submitting to arbitration, compounding or compromising any accounts, debts, demands, or disputes relating to the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignees to take such means in the arrangement and the settlement of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, as to the said Assignees shall seem expedient; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Martin and Richard Freen Martin, late of Coleman-Street, but now of London-Wall, in the City of London, and also of Leeds, in the County of York, Wool-Brokers, Agents, Warehousemen, Partners, Dealers, and Chapman (trading in London, under the firm of Thomas Martin and Company, and at Leeds, under the firm of Richard Freen Martin) are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on Wednesday the 17th day of August next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting any suit or suits, either at law or in equity, and either in Great Britain or Spain, or elsewhere, against any person or persons whomsoever, for the purpose of recovering certain debts, or large sums of money due and owing to the said Bankrupt's estate and effects from several persons resident in Spain; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and discharging, out of the estate and effects of said Bankrupts, any costs, charges, and expences to be incurred or sustained in travelling, or otherwise, either in Great Britain or in Spain, or elsewhere, and either by the said Assignees, or either of them, or by any person or persons to be employed by them; and to their retaining themselves, or paying such person or persons to be employed as aforesaid, a reasonable remuneration and reward for their trouble and loss of time in travelling, or otherwise, with a view to the recovery of the said debts or sums of money so due from such persons resident in Spain; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compounding, compromising, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing, such debts or sums of money; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or suit, either at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, or touching or concerning the same; or to their compounding, compromising, or otherwise agreeing, any debt due to the said Bankrupt's estate, or any other matter or thing relating thereto; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling, either to the said Bankrupts, or to any other person or persons, and either by public auction or private contract, for such price or prices as they may think proper, any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts; and either for ready money or on credit, and either with or without security for the same as they shall think proper; and also to the said Assignees buying in any part of the estate and effects of such Bankrupts at any auction and reselling the same as they shall think fit, without being liable for any loss to be occasioned thereby; and also to the said Assignees employing an accountant to arrange the accounts, and collect the debts due to the said Bankrupts estates, and to their making him such remuneration as they shall think proper; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Gibson, of Northwich, in the County of Chester, Wharfinger, Victualler, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Wednesday the 17th day of August next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Crown Inn, in Northwich aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of the freehold and leasehold estates, and also the personal property and effects of the said Bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, and either subject to the respective mortgages or liens on such parts of the freehold and leasehold estates as are affected by such mortgages or liens respectively, or discharged from such mortgages and liens, by the said Assignees paying off and discharging the same by and out of the moneys to arise from such sale or sales, or other disposition of the said freehold and leasehold estates respectively, at such times and places, and for such price or prices, and upon such terms and conditions, and on such credit and security, as they the said Assignees shall think advisable and deem sufficient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees continuing and carrying on the said Bankrupt's several trades of a Wharfinger and Victualler, or either of them, at the risk and for the benefit of his estate, until the freehold messuage, inn, or tavern, known by the name or sign of the Crown and Anchor Tavern, warehouses, stables, offices, wharf and hereditaments, situate in Northwich aforesaid, late in the possession of the said Bankrupt, and where the said several trades have been carried on, and also the flats or vessels late belonging to and employed by him in his said trade of a Wharfinger shall be so sold or disposed of as aforesaid, and to make to such persons as have already been engaged, and may at and after the time of the said meeting be engaged, in the management and carrying on of the said several trades, or either of them, such compensation for their services therein as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to ratify and confirm any proceedings which the said Assignees have already taken, or may in the mean time take, with regard to the said several trades, or otherwise in relation to the affairs of the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting or defending any action at law or suit in equity, or for preferring or opposing any petition or petitions to the Lord Chancellor, for the recovery, defence, protection, or sale of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to their compounding, submitting to arbitration with, and giving time to the several persons who may be indebted to the estate of the said Bankrupt, with or without taking security for their respective debts, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto, or taking any reasonable part of such debt or debts in discharge of the whole; and also to compound or submit to arbitration any such action at law, or suit in equity as aforesaid, as to the said Assignees may seem meet, and for all and every such purposes to sign and execute all such agreements, bonds of arbitration, deeds of composition, releases and other documents as the nature of the case may require and the said Assignees may in their discretion think necessary; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant and such other person or persons as the said Assignees may deem necessary, for the purpose of adjusting, settling and winding up the affairs of the said Bankrupt, and making such accountant and such other person or person last mentioned, proper and adequate compensation for their loss of time and trouble in and about the same; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignees to take such measures in relation to the said Bankrupt, and the management and settlement of his affairs, concerns, estate and effects as the said Assignees shall consider most conducive to the interest of the said estate; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Edward Gudge, of Bristol, in the County of Somerset, Woollen-Draper and Man's Mercer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Tuesday the 16th day of August next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the arrangement already made by the said Assignee for the management and superintendance of the business, affairs and concerns of the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee continuing to employ the persons he has engaged for that purpose, and in the event of discontinuing the employment of such persons, or either of them; to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee employing any other person or persons for that purpose, and paying such salaries or remunerations as he shall consider fair and just; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee concurring with the surviving Trustee and Executor of the late Mr. James Hill; and also with the Trustees and Executors of the late Mrs. Hannah Gudge (under whose wills the Bankrupt is entitled to a share of certain sums of money due upon outstanding mortgages), in adopting such legal and equitable proceedings, and in doing such acts and making such arrangements generally, as may in the opinion