FRIDAY, JULY 29, 1831.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 27th day of July 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for further continuing, altering, and amending several Acts for the better regulation of lastage and ballastage in the River Thames" and for enabling the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond to reduce, alter, modify, relinquish, or abolish dues payable to the said Corporation, and for other purposes connected therewith," after reciting that, under the authority and by virtue of the several Acts of Parliament, and grants therein recited, as well as of other Acts of Parliament, and of divers charters, grants, and letters patent of Kings and Queens of this realm, and also by prescriptive right, the Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the time being of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond aforesaid, had collected, taken, levied, and received from, or in respect of, ships and vessels requiring ballast, the several rates and prices specified in the Act of the forty-fifth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, therein mentioned, and certain dues or duties, rates or tolls, of various denominations, from, or in respect of, all British ships or vessels, and from, or in respect of, all foreign ships and vessels, entering or departing from the ports, harbours, or roadsteads of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and that the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Trinity-house of Deptford Strond aforesaid had not, by the terms of the said several Acts of Parliament, charters, grants, and letters patent, or any of them, any power to reduce, modify, alter, relinquish, or abolish any of the rates, prices, dues, duties, and tolls, imposed or granted, collected, taken, levied, and received as aforesaid: and that it was expedient that the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants should be empowered (under the regulations thereafter contained) to reduce, alter, modify, relinquish, or abolish, and at any time or times thereafter to revive and re-establish, any of the rates, prices, dues, duties, and tolls aforesaid, or any part or parts thereof, from time to time, as to them the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants should seem meet, just, and reasonable; it is thereby enacted, that the Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the time being of the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond aforesaid shall be, and they are thereby authorised and empowered, from time to time, and at any time or times thereafter, upon the requisition or with the consent of His said late Majesty, His heirs and successors, in His or their Most Honourable Privy Council, to reduce, relinquish, abolish, alter, or modify all or any or either of the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls imposed or granted by the said several grants, charters, or Acts of Parliament, or any of them, or collected, taken, levied, and received under the authority thereof respectively, or by ancient usage, custom, or prescription, or any part or parts thereof, so far as may be consistent with the charitable and other uses, purposes, and intents for which the said Corporation has been established and maintained; and that it shall also be lawful for the Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the time being of the said Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, at any time or times after the passing thereof, to revive and re-establish any rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls which may have been relinquished or abolished, or to increase or otherwise alter or modify any rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls which may have been reduced, altered, or modified under the authority of the said Act, and so from time to time to relinquish or abolish and revive or re-establish, and reduce or increase, alter or modify, all or any of such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls as occasion may require; so as nevertheless that no such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls shall at any time be increased beyond the amount which might be collected, taken, levied, or received by the said Corporation in respect thereof before the passing of the said Act: and it is thereby provided, that no such relinquishment, abolition, reduction, alteration, or modification, or subsequent revival, re-establishment, increase, alteration, or modification of any such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls, or any or either of them, or any part or parts thereof, shall at any time be deemed valid or take effect until the same shall have been submitted by the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants to and shall have been assented to and confirmed by His said late Majesty, His heirs, or successors in His or their Most Honourable Privy Council, and such assent and confirmation shall have been signified in writing unto the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants; and that it shall be lawful for the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants to fix and determine the period (so that the same do not exceed three calendar months from the receipt by them of such assent or confirmation as aforesaid), from and after which all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so relinquished or abolished shall be discontinued and no longer collected, taken, levied, or received, or from and after which all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so received or re-established, reduced, increased, altered, or modified respectively as aforesaid, shall and may be collected, received, levied, or taken: and whereas the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants have submitted to His Majesty in His Privy Council, the propriety of modifying and reducing the duties payable for the

Flatholm Light in the Bristol Channel, in manner following, that is to say:

| | Present Toll. | Proposed Toll. |
|--|---------------------------|----------------------------|
| British over sea traders - - } | 1d. per ton. | $\frac{3}{4}$ d. per ton. |
| Coasters and Irish traders - - } | $\frac{1}{2}$ d. per ton. | $\frac{1}{4}$ d. per ton. |
| Coasters between Land's-end and St. David's Head } | 1s. per vessel. | 1s. per vessel. |
| Foreign vessels privileged as British } | 1d. per ton. | $\frac{3}{4}$ d. per ton. |
| Foreign vessels not so privileged - } | 2d. per ton. | $1\frac{1}{2}$ d. per ton. |

And whereas His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, hath assented to the said proposal. His Majesty doth, therefore, with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in Him vested by the said Act of Parliament, confirm the proposed tolls or duties, and the same are hereby confirmed accordingly:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

*Earl Marshal's-Office, Whitehall-Yard,
July 27, 1831.*

THE King's Most Excellent Majesty having been pleased to command me, as Earl-Marshal of England, forthwith to prepare and countersign letters to be passed under the royal sign manual, requiring the attendance of the Peers and Peeresses of Great Britain at the Solemnity of the Coronation of His Majesty, and of Her Majesty the Queen; and the King having been further pleased to command me to prepare such letters also for those Temporal Peers of that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, called Ireland, who sat and voted in the House of Lords of Ireland before the Union, or whose right to sit and vote therein, or to vote at the election of a representative Peer for Ireland has, on claim made on their behalf, been admitted by the House of Lords of the United Kingdom, and who are not now Members of the House of Commons of the United Kingdom, I do hereby request that all those Peers, who in conformity to the above regulations, are entitled to assist at the solemnity of the Royal Coronation of their Majesties, and also the Peeresses and Dowager Peeresses who may claim to attend at the said Coronation, will be pleased to transmit their respective addresses to Sir George Naylor, Garter King of Arms, at this Office, in order that their letters of summons may be forwarded without delay.

NORFOLK, Earl-Marshal.

Earl Marshal's-Office, Whitehall-Yard,
July 27, 1831.

The Earl Marshal's Order concerning the Robes, Coronets, &c. which are to be worn by the Peers at the Coronation of their Most Sacred Majesties King William the Fourth and Queen Adelaide.

THESE are to give notice, to all Peers who attend at the Coronation of their Majesties, that the robe or mantle of the Peers be of crimson velvet, edged with miniver, the cape furred with miniver pure, and powdered with bars or rows of ermine, according to their degree, viz.

- Barons, two rows.
- Viscounts, two rows and a half.
- Earls, three rows.
- Marquesses, three rows and a half.
- Dukes, four rows.

The said mantles or robes to be worn over the full Court dress, uniform, or regimentals usually worn at Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms.

Their coronets to be of silver gilt; the caps of crimson velvet, turned up with ermine, with a gold tassel on the top; and no jewels or precious stones are to be set or used in the coronets, or counterfeited pearls instead of silver balls.

The coronet of a Baron to have, on the circle or rim, six silver balls at equal distances.

The coronet of a Viscount to have, on the circle, sixteen silver balls.

The coronet of an Earl to have, on the circle, eight silver balls, raised upon points, with gold strawberry leaves between the points.

The coronet of a Marquess to have, on the circle, four gold strawberry leaves and four silver balls alternately, the latter a little raised on points above the rim.

The coronet of a Duke to have, on the circle, eight gold strawberry leaves.

By His Majesty's command,
(Signed) NORFOLK, Earl-Marshal.

Earl Marshal's Office, Whitehall-Yard,
July 27, 1831.

The Earl Marshal's Order concerning the Robes, Coronets, &c. which are to be worn by the Peeresses at the Coronation of their Most Sacred Majesties King William the Fourth and Queen Adelaide.

THESE are to give notice to all Peeresses who attend at the Coronation of their Majesties, that the robes or mantles appertaining to their respective ranks are to be worn over the usual full court dress.

That the robe or mantle of a Baroness, be of crimson velvet, the cape whereof to be furred with miniver pure, and powdered with two bars or rows of ermine: the said mantle to be edged round with miniver pure, two inches in breadth, and the train to be three feet on the ground; the coronet to be according to her degree, viz.: a rim or circle with six pearls upon the same, not raised upon points,

That the robe or mantle of a Viscountess be like that of a Baroness, only the cape powdered, with two rows and a half of ermine, the edging of the mantle two inches as before, and the train a yard and a quarter; the coronet to be according to her degree, viz. a rim or circle with pearls thereon, sixteen in number, and not raised upon points.

That the robe or mantle of a Countess be as before, only the cape powdered, with three rows of ermine, the edging three inches in breadth, and the train a yard and a half; the coronet to be composed of eight pearls raised upon points or rays, with small strawberry leaves between, above the rim.

That the robe or mantle of a Marchioness be as before, only the cape powdered, with three rows and a half of ermine, the edging four inches in breadth, the train a yard and three quarters; the coronet to be composed of four strawberry leaves and four pearls raised upon points of the same height as the leaves alternately, above the rim.

That the robe or mantle of a Duchess be as before, only the cape powdered, with four rows of ermine, the edging five inches broad, the train two yards; the coronet to be composed of eight strawberry leaves, all of equal height above the rim.

And that the caps of all the said coronets be of crimson velvet, turned up with ermine, with a tassel of gold on the top.

By His Majesty's command,
(Signed) NORFOLK, Earl-Marshal.

St. James's-Palace, July 27, 1831.

This day the Baron de Cetto, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of Bavaria, had a private audience of His Majesty, to deliver a letter from his Sovereign; to which he was introduced by Lord Viscount Palmerston, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Sir Robert Chester, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

BOROUGH OF CALNE (RIGHT OF) ELECTION
PETITION.—NOTICE.

Mercurii, 27^o die Julii 1831.

George Page, John Lad, and others, inhabitant householders resident of the borough of Calne, in the county of Wilts, having, upon Monday the 27th day of June last, presented their petition to the House of Commons, setting forth, that, on or about the 30th day of November 1830, the Select Committee who were appointed to try and determine the merits of a petition of Edward Cheney, Esq. and Edmund Hopkinson, Esq. reported to the said House that they had determined—"That the right of election for the said borough is in the ancient Burgesses of the said borough only, meaning by the term ancient Burgesses, Burgesses duly elected and sworn according to the ancient constitution of the borough of Calne:"—That the petitioners are advised that the said right of voting so determined by the said Select Committee, is not the right of election for the said borough, and therefore, to prevent the said judgment of the said Select Committee from becoming final and conclusive, pray that they may be admitted as parties, according to the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, to oppose the said right of election, in favour of which the said Select Committee have reported as aforesaid, and to support and establish the said right of election for which they contended, and that they may have such other relief in the premises as to the said House shall seem meet, and the nature of the case may require :

I do hereby give notice, that the House has appointed Tuesday the 16th day of August next, at three of the clock in the Afternoon, to take the said petition into consideration.
