

passes eastward along the division, between Shincliffe on one side and the Butterby and Tursdale Estates on the other, till arriving at the road from Durham to Sedgfield, it crosses that road, and proceeds eastward, and then northward along the division between Shincliffe and Whitwell House Farms, till arriving at the junction of two small rivulets, it ascends the latter in an eastern direction by the same division, to where Whitwell House Lands meet those of Sherburn Hospital. Then going on to the road from Durham to Hartlepool, it turns northward, and passing the premises of Michael Wheatley, on the north east side, it descends to the river Pitting, which it follows westward to the commencement of the boundary between the parishes of Saint Oswalds and Sherburn, along which it ascends northward to the junction of these two parishes with Saint Giles, from hence it proceeds along the division between Old Durham and Saint Giles Moor, and descends to the river Wear, at the north extremity of Old Durham Estate, and thence follows the river southward to the bridge at Shincliffe, from which it commenced, enclosing the district in the map or plan hereunto annexed, and therein surrounded by a pink line. That there is about one acre of glebe belonging to the original parish of Saint Oswald, but that neither the rectorial or vicarial tithes belong to the Vicar of Saint Oswald's parish, that a money payment in the nature of a modus, arising from farms in the township of Shincliffe, and amounting to five pounds five shillings will belong to the Minister of the new parish of Shincliffe; that it is estimated that the amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, and other ecclesiastical dues which will arise in the parish of Shincliffe, will be one fifteenth of the whole amount of those of the present entire parish, that the said chapel at Shincliffe is endowed with five pounds a year three per cent. stock, and with land purchased with money granted by the Commissioners of Queen Ann's Bounty, which produces eighty pounds a year.

That the consents of the Lord Bishop of Durham and of the Dean and Chapter of Durham, the Patrons of the said parish church of Saint Oswald, have been obtained, as required by the above mentioned section of the said Act of the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third; and humbly praying that His Majesty would be graciously pleased to take the premises into His Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to His Majesty's wisdom shall seem meet:—His Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

C. C. Greville.

Whitehall, August 2, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about ten o'clock on the night of Saturday the 30th of July last, a barn, the property of Mr. James Cowdery, of Steventon Farm, near Abingdon, containing about twenty quarters of oats and barley, unthrashed, was set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, which, together with a bean rick, a hay rick, and cart hovel, were entirely consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the same) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.
