FRIDAY, AUGUST 5, 1831.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 27th day of July 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America, to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Basseterre, in the island of Saint Christopher, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested, in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Basseterre, in the island of Saint Chsistopher, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

Westminster, August 2, 1831.

THIS day His Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in His royal robes, seated on the Throne with the usual solemnity, Sir Thomas Tyrwhitt, Knt. Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their attendance in the House of Peers; the Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to give the Royal Assent to

An Act for enabling His Majesty to make provision for supporting the royal dignity of the Queen, in case she shall survive His Majesty.

An Act for ascertaining the boundaries of the forest of Dean, and for enquiring into the rights and privileges claimed by free miners of the hundred of Saint Briavels, and for other purposes.

An Act to enable the Justices of the Peace for the three divisions of the county of Lincoln, to purchase the site of Lincoln Castle, and to empower the Court of Gaol Sessions for the said county to maintain and support the Judges' house, County-hall, and Courts of Assize, and for other purposes affecting the county at large.

An Act for improving, repairing, and maintaining the harbours of the burgh of Rothesay, in the county of Bute, and for building and maintaining a gaol, court-house, and offices for the said burgh and county.

An Act for making and maintaining a rail-way from Rutherglen-green to Wellshott, in the county of Lanark.

An Act for draining and improving certain low lands, situate within the several townships of Norton, Campsall, Askrew, Moss, Fenwick, Little Smeaton, Stubbs Walden, Womersley, Whitley, Baln, Pollington, Snaith, and Cavick and Sykehouse, in the several parishes of Campsall, Womersley, Kellington, Snaith, and Fishlake, all in the west riding of the county of York.

An Act for maintaining the road from Wakefield to Austerlands, in the west riding of the county of York.

An Act for making and repairing certain roads leading across the county of Stirling, and other roads in the said county.

An Act to amend an Act for more effectually repairing and improving the road from Wendover to the town of Buckingham, in the county of Buckingham.

An Act for improving and maintaining the road from the south side of a bridge over the River Colne, called Engine-bridge, in the township of Huddersfield, in the west riding of the county of York, to Woodhead, in the county palatine of Chester, and from thence to a bridge over the River Mersey, called Enterclough-bridge, on the confines of the county of Derby.

An Act for more effectually repairing and improving certain roads leading to and from the town of Cirencester, in the county of Gloucester, and Wootton Bassett, in the county of Wilts.

An Act to continue and amend an Act for more effectually repairing several roads in and through His Majesty's forest of Dean, in the county of Gloucester, and to convert certain highways in the parishes of Staunton and Newland, in the said county, into turnpike roads.

An Act for repairing the road from the town of Wisbech, in the isle of Ely, in the county of Cambridgeshire, to the town of Thorney, in the same isle and county.

An Act for improving and maintaining the road from Ludlow, in the county of Salop, through Woofferton and Little Hereford, to Monk's-bridge, in the said county, and also from Ludlow to Orleton, in the county of Hereford.

And two private Acts.

St. James's-Palace, August 3, 1831.

This day His Highness the Prince of Lieven, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from the Emperor of All the Russias, had an audience of His Majesty to deliver a letter from his Sovereign;

And Monsieur Van de Weyer, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of the Belgians, had his first private audience of His Majesty to deliver his credentials:

To which audiences they were respectively introduced by Lord Viscount Palmerston, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Sir Robert Chester, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

Queen's-House, St. James's-Palace, August 3, 1831.

This day Monsieur Van de Weyer, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of the Belgians, had his first private audience of Her Majesty:

To which he was introduced by the Earl Howe, Her Majesty's Lord Chamberlain, and conducted by Sir Robert Chester, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

At the Court at St. James's, August 3, 1831.

CEREMONIAL of the Investiture of the Right Honourable Sir Robert Adair, with the Ensigns of a Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath.

The following Knights Grand Crosses, in their mantles and collars of the Order, assembled at St. James's-Palace, viz. Lord Howden; Lord Hill; Sir John Doyle, Bart.; and the Right Honourable Sir James Kempt; attended by the under-named Officers of the Order, in their mantles, chains, and badges, viz. Sir George Naylor, Knt. Genealogist of the Order; Algernon Greville, Esq. Bath King of Arms; and George-Frederick Beltz, Esq. Gentleman Usher of the Order.

At two o'clock, the Knights Grand Crosses were called over, and, with the Officers of the Order, proceeded into the presence of the Sovereign in the Throne-room, with the usual reverences.

Then, by His Majesty's command, the Right Honourable Robert Adair was introduced into the Royal Presence, between Sir James Kempt and Sir John Doyle, Bart. the two Junior Knights Grand Crosses present, preceded by Bath King of Arms, bearing the ribband, badge, and star of a Knight Grand Cross upon a crimson velvet cushion, and by the Gentleman Usher of the Order.

The sword of state was thereupon delivered to the Sovereign, and the Right Honourable Robert Adair, kneeling, was knighted therewith, after which he had the honour to kiss the Sovereign's hand.

Lord Howden having then received from Bath King of Arms the ribband and badge, presented them to the Sovereign, and His Majesty was graciously pleased to put the same over Sir Robert Adair's right shoulder, who, rising, had again the honour to kiss the Sovereign's hand, and, having received from His Majesty the star of the Order, withdrew.

The Knights Grand Crosses were then again called over, and, with the Officers of the Order, retired from the presence of the Sovereign, with the usual reverences.

St. James's-Palace, August 3, 1831.

The King was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood upon George Hamilton, Esq. Knight Commander of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order.

Whitehall, August 2, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about ten o'clock on the night of Saturday the 30th of July last, a barn, the property of Mr. James Cowdery, of Steventon Farm, near Abingdon, containing about twenty quarters of oats and barley, unthrashed, was set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, which, together with a bean rick, a hay rick, and cart hovel, were entirely consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the same) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury. MELBOURNE.

Whitehall, August 5, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that some evil-disposed person or persons did, late on Saturday night last, the 30th ultimo, or early on Sunday morning, wantonly and maliciously set fire to some hay-stacks and out-buildings, belonging to Mr. Edward Scrimshaw, upon his farm, in the parish of Wisbech Saint Mary, which entirely destroyed a waggon hovel, a waggon, a cart, and numerous other farming implements, as well as a bullock hovel and nearly the whole of the hay, the produce of twenty-five acres of land;

And whereas it hath been further represented unto the King, that several threatening letters, with the signature of "Swing," have been sent to or found upon the premises of the inhabitants of the said parish;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said hay stacks, and except the author or authors, or writer or writers of the said letters) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED and THIRTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the principal inhabitants and charge-bearers of the said parish, and TWENTY POUNDS by the said Mr. Scrimshaw, and a further sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to any person who shall discover the offender or offenders concerned in setting fire to the said hay stacks (except as aforesaid), so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—And a reward of TWENTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the inhabitants of the said parish to any person (except the author or authors, or writer or writers of the letters) who shall discover the offender or offenders concerned in sending the threatening letters before mentioned, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
