Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 12, 1831.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 27th day of July 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for further continuing, altering, and amending several Acts for the better regulation of lastage and ballastage in the River Thames, and for enabling the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond to reduce, alter, modify, relinquish, or abolish dues payable to the said Corporation, and for other purposes connected therewith," after reciting that, under the authority and by virtue of the several Acts of Parliament, and grants therein recited, as well as of other Acts of Parliament, and of divers charters, grants, and letters patent of Kings and Queens of this realm, and also by prescriptive right, the Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the time being of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond aforesaid, had collected, taken, levied, and received from, or in respect of, ships and vessels requiring ballast, the several rates and prices specified in the Act of the forty-fifth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, therein mentioned, and certain dues or duties, rates or tolls, of various denominations, from, or in respect of, all British ships or vessels, and from, or in respect of, all foreign ships and vessels, entering or departing from the ports, harbours, or roadsteads of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and that the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Trinity-house of Deptford Strond aforesaid had not, by the terms of the said several Acts of Parliament, charters, grants, and letters patent, or any of them, any power to reduce, modify, alter, relinquish, or abolish any of the rates, prices, dues, duties, and tolls, imposed or granted, collected, taken, levied, and received as aforesaid: and that it was expedient that the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants should be empowered (under the regulations thereafter contained) to reduce, alter, modify, relinquish, or abolish, and at any time or times thereafter to revive and re-establish, any of the rates, prices, dues, duties, and tolls aforesaid, or any part or parts thereof, from time to time, as to them the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants should seem meet, just, and reasonable; it is thereby enacted, that the Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the time being of the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond aforesaid shall be, and they are thereby authorised and empowered, from time to time, and at any time or times thereafter, upon the requisition or with the consent of His said late Majesty, His heirs and successors, in His or their Most Honourable Privy Council, to reduce, relinquish, abolish, alter, or modify all or any or either of the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls imposed or granted by the said several grants, charters, or Acts of Parliament, or any of them, or collected, taken, levied, and received under the authority thereof respectively, or by ancient usage, custom, or prescription, or any part or parts thereof, so far as may be consistent with the charitable and other uses, purposes, and intents for which the said Corporation has been established and maintained; and that it shall also be lawful for the Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the time being of the said Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, at any time or times after the passing thereof, to revive and re-establish any rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls which may have been relinquished or abolished, or to increase or otherwise alter or modify any rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls which may have been reduced, altered, or modified under the authority of the said Act, and so from time to time to relinquish or abolish and revive or re-establish, and reduce or increase, alter or modify, all or any of such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls as occasion may require; so as nevertheless that no such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls shall at any time be increased beyond the amount which might be collected, taken, levied, or received by the said Corporation in respect thereof before the passing of the said Act: and it is thereby provided, that no such relinquishment, abolition, reduction, alteration, or modification, or subsequent revival, re-establishment, increase, alteration, or modification of any such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls, or any or either of them, or any part or parts thereof, shall at any time be deemed valid or take effect until the same shall have been submitted by the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants to and shall have been assented to and confirmed by His said late Majesty, His heirs, or successors in His or their Most Honourable Privy Council, and such assent and confirmation shall have been signified in writing unto the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants; and that it shall be lawful for the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants to fix and determine the period (so that the same do not exceed three calendar months from the receipt by them of such assent or confirmation as aforesaid), from and after which all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so relinquished or abolished shall be discontinued and no longer collected, taken, levied, or received, or from and after which all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so received or re-established, reduced, increased, altered, or modified respectively as aforesaid, shall and may be collected, received, levied, or taken: and whereas the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants have submitted to His Majesty in His Privy Council, the propriety of modifying and reducing the duties payable for the Flatholm Light in the Bristol Channel, in manner following, that is to say:

	Present Toll.	Proposed Toll.
British over sea traders	1d. per ton.	$\frac{3}{4}$ d. per ton.
Coasters and Irish traders	$\frac{1}{2}$ d. per ton.	$\frac{3}{4}$ d. per ton.
Coasters between Land's-end and St. David's Head	1s. per vessel.	1s. per vessel.
Foreign vessels privileged as British	1d. per ton.	$\frac{3}{4}$ d. per ton.
Foreign vessels not so privileged	2d. per ton.	$1\frac{1}{2}$ d. per ton.

And whereas His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, hath assented to the said proposal. His Majesty doth, therefore, with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in Him vested by the said Act of Parliament, confirm the proposed tolls or duties, and the same are hereby confirmed accordingly:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

At the Court at St. James's, the 27th day of July 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America, to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Basseterre, in the island of Saint Christopher, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the power, in him vested, in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Basseterre, in the island of Saint Christopher, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. C. C. Greville.

THE CORONATION OF THEIR MAJESTIES.

*Earl Marshal's-Office, Whitehall-Yard,
August 8, 1831.*

THE Peers, Peeresses, and Dowager Peeresses, who propose to attend the solemnity of the Coronation, are requested forthwith to transmit their respective names and addresses to Sir George Naylor, Garter, at this Office, in order that their letters of summons may be forwarded without delay.

GEO. NAYLER, Garter.

St. James's-Palace, August 10, 1831.

This day the Count St. Martin D'Aglié, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of Sardinia, had an audience of His Majesty to deliver letters from the King and Queen of Sardinia:

To which he was introduced by Lord Viscount Palmerston, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Sir Robert Chester, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

St. James's-Palace, August 10, 1831.

The King was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood upon Lieutenant-General John Smith, of the Royal Artillery, Knight Grand Cross of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order.

The King was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood upon John Rennie, Esq. of Whitehall-place.

BOROUGH OF CALNE (RIGHT OF) ELECTION PETITION.—DEFERRED NOTICE.

Luna, 8^o die Augusti 1831.

George Page, John Lad, and others, inhabitant householders resident of the borough of Calne, in the county of Wilts, having, upon Monday the 27th day of June last, presented their petition to the House of Commons, setting forth, that, on or about the 30th day of November 1830, the Select Committee who were appointed to try and determine the merits of the petition of Edward Cheney, Esq. and Edmund Hopkinson, Esq. reported to the said House that they had determined—"That the right of election for the said borough is in the ancient Burgesses of the said borough only, meaning by the term ancient Burgesses, Burgesses duly elected and sworn according to the ancient constitution of the borough of Calne."—That the petitioners are advised that the said right of voting so determined by the said Select Committee, is not the right of election for the said borough, and therefore, to prevent the said judgment of the said Select Committee from becoming final and conclusive, pray that they may be admitted as parties, according to the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, to oppose the said right of election, in favour of which the said Select Committee have reported as aforesaid, and to support and establish the said right of election for which they contended, and that they may have such other relief in the premises as to the said House shall seem meet, and the nature of the case may require:

And the House having appointed Tuesday the 16th day of August instant, at three of the clock in the afternoon, to take the said petition into consideration:

I do hereby give notice, that, by a subsequent order of the said House made this day, the said petition is appointed to be taken into consideration upon Thursday the 3d day of November next, at three of the clock in the afternoon.

Given under my hand the 8th day of August 1831,
CHARLES MANNERS SUTTON, Speaker.

Whitehall, July 25, 1831.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Thomas Cruttwell, of the city of Bath, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, August 5, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that some evil-disposed person or persons did, late on Saturday night last, the 30th ultimo, or early on Sunday morning, wantonly and maliciously set fire to some hay-stacks and out-buildings, belonging to Mr. Edward Scrimshaw, upon his farm, in the parish of Wisbech Saint Mary, which entirely destroyed a waggon hovel, a waggon, a cart, and numerous other farming implements, as well as a bullock hovel and nearly the whole of the hay, the produce of twenty-five acres of land;

And whereas it hath been further represented unto the King, that several threatening letters, with the signature of "Swing," have been sent to or found upon the premises of the inhabitants of the said parish;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said hay stacks, and except the author or authors, or writer or writers of the said letters) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED and THIRTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the principal inhabitants and charge-bearers of the said parish, and TWENTY POUNDS by the said Mr. Scrimshaw, and a further sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to any person who shall discover the offender or offenders concerned in setting fire to the said hay stacks (except as aforesaid), so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.— And a reward of TWENTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the inhabitants of the said parish to any person (except the author or authors, or writer or writers of the letters) who shall discover the offender or offenders concerned in sending the threatening letters before mentioned, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Whitehall, August 11, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between the night of Saturday the 30th July last and the morning of Monday the 1st instant, the shop of Mr. John Wright, jeweller, in Moseley-street, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, was broken and entered, and a large quantity of plate and jewellery, consisting of gold and silver watches, diamond, pearl, and other rings, and a variety of other articles, were stolen and carried away;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said John Wright, to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

LIEUTENANCY OF CORNWALL.

August 8, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Meeting of the Lieutenancy of Cornwall will be holden at Lostwithiel, in the said county, at noon, on Monday the 22d August instant, for the purpose of appointing a time for calling out the Militia of the said county for training and exercise.

By order of the Lieutenancy,
Deeble Boger, Clerk of the General Meetings.

SUSSEX.

Record-room, County-hall, Lewes,
August 9, 1831.

I HEREBY give notice, that a General Meeting of Lieutenancy for the county of Sussex will be holden at the County-hall, in Lewes, on Tuesday the 30th day of August instant, at the hour of twelve at noon, in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the forty-second year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for amending the laws relating to the militia in England, and for augmenting the militia;" at which meeting precepts and orders will be signed for assembling the Royal Sussex Regiment of Militia for training and exercise.

Wm. Balcombe Langridge, Clerk of the General Meetings of Lieutenancy for the said county.
