CORONATION OF THEIR MAJESTIES.

Earl Marshal's-Office, Whitehall, August 12, 1831.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to dispense at the ensuing Coronation with the usual Procession from Westminster-hall to the Abbey, whereby certain persons who heretofore formed part of the Ceremonial would be precluded from attending the Solemnity, notice is hereby given, that tickets, not transferrable, but for the personal admission only of those individuals who, from the official appointments respectively held and enjoyed by them, would have been admitted into the Abbey had the Procession taken place, will be issued by the Earl-Marshal to those who may signify their wish to be present at the approaching Solemnity.

All such persons are, therefore, required to signify their desire to the Earl-Marshal, at this Office, on or before the 25th day of this instant August, after which no application can be attended to.

GEO. NAYLER, Garter.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 10th day of August 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions

"abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported from any of the British possessions in America by sea, or from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, except into or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table in the said Act of Parliament contained:

And it is thereby provided, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or place not enumerated in the said table, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports, and it is enacted, that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to the ports of Black River, Rio Bueno, and Morant, in the island of Jamaica; His Majesty doth therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the said Act of Parliament, and with the advice of His Privy Council, order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, the provisions
