FRIDAY, AUGUST 19, 1831.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, August 18, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Knights of the several Orders are to wear their Collars at His Majesty's Levée next Wednesday, the 24th instant, it being a Collar-day.

CORONATION OF THEIR MAJESTIES.

Earl Marshal's-Office, Whitehall, August 12, 1831.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to dispense at the ensuing Coronation with the usual Procession from Westminster-hall to the Abbey, whereby certain persons who heretofore formed part of the Ceremonial would be precluded from attending the Solemnity, notice is hereby given, that tickets, not transferrable, but for the personal admission only of those individuals who, from the official appointments respectively held and enjoyed by them, would have been admitted into the Abbey had the Procession taken place, will be issued by the Earl-Marshall to those who may signify their wish to be present at the approaching Solemnity.

All such persons are, therefore, required to signify their desire to the Earl-Marshall, at this Office, on or before the 25th day of this instant August, after which no application can be attended to.

GEO. NAYLER, Garter.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 10th day of August 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported from any of the British possessions in America by sea, or from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, except into or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table in the said Act of Parliament contained:

And it is thereby provided, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or place not enumerated in the said table, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports, and it is enacted, that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to the ports of Black River, Rio Bueno, and Morant, in the island of Jamaica; His Majesty doth therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the said Act of Parliament, and with the advice of His Privy Council, order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, the provisions of the said Act of Parliament respecting free ports shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to the said ports of Black River, Rio Bueno, and Morant, in the island of Jamaica:

And the Right Honourable the Lord Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 27th day of July 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for further continuing, altering, and amending several Acts for the better regulation of lastage and ballastage in the River Thames, and for enabling the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond to reduce, alter, modify, relinquish, or abolish dues payable to the said Corporation, and for other purposes connected therewith," after reciting that, under the authority and by virtue of the several Acts of Parliament, and grants therein recited, as well as of other Acts of Parliament, and of divers charters, grants, and letters patent of Kings and Queens of this realm, and also by prescriptive right, the Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the time being of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond aforesaid, had collected, taken, levied, and received from, or in respect of, ships and vessels requiring ballast, the several rates and prices specified in the Act of the forty-fifth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, therein mentioned, and certain dues or duties, rates or tolls, of various denominations, from, or in respect of, all British ships or vessels, and from, or in respect of, all foreign ships and vessels, entering or departing from the ports, harbours, or roadsteads of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and that the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Trinity-house of Deptford Strond aforesaid had not, by the terms of the said several Acts of Parliament, charters, grants, and letters patent, or any of them, any power to reduce, modify, alter, relinquish, or abolish any of the rates, prices, dues, duties, and tolls, imposed or granted, collected, taken, levied, and received as aforesaid: and that it was expedient that the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants should be empowered (under the regulations hereinafter contained) to reduce, alter, modify, relinquish, or abolish, and at any time or times thereafter to revive and re-establish, any of the rates, prices, dues, duties, and tolls aforesaid, or any part or parts thereof, from time to time, as to them the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants should seem meet, just, and reasonable; it is thereby enacted, that the Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the time being of the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond aforesaid shall be, and they are thereby authorised and empowered, from time to time, and at any time or times thereafter, upon the requisition or with the consent of His said late Majesty, His heirs and successors, in His or their Most Honourable Privy Council, to reduce, relinquish, abolish, alter, or modify all or any or either of the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls imposed or granted by the said several grants, charters, or Acts of Parliament, or any of them, or collected, taken, levied, and received under the authority, thereof respectively, or by ancient usage, custom, or prescription, or any part or parts thereof, so far as may be consistent with the charitable and other uses, purposes, and intents for which the said Corporation has been established and maintained; and that it shall also be lawful for the Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the time being of the said Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, at any time or times after the passing thereof, to revive and re-establish any rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls which may have been relinquished or abolished, or to increase or otherwise alter or modify any rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls which may have been reduced, altered, or modified under the authority of the said Act, and so from time to time to relinquish or abolish and revive or re-establish, and reduce or increase, alter or modify, all or any of such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls as occasion may require; so as nevertheless that no such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls shall at any time be increased beyond the amount which might be collected, taken, levied, or received by the said Corporation in respect thereof before the passing of the said Act: and it is thereby provided, that no such relinquishment, abolition, reduction, alteration, or modification, or subsequent revival, re-establishment, increase, alteration, or modification of any such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls, or any or either of them, or any part or parts thereof, shall at any time be deemed valid or take effect until the same shall have been submitted by the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants to and shall have been assented to and confirmed by His said late Majesty, His heirs, or successors in His or their Most Honourable Privy Council, and such assent and confirmation shall have been signified in writing unto the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants; and that it shall be lawful for the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants to fix and determine the period (so that the same do not exceed three calendar months from the receipt by them of such assent or confirmation as aforesaid), from and after which all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so relinquished or abolished shall be discontinued and no longer collected, taken, levied, or received, or from and after which all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so received or re-established, reduced, increased, altered, or modified respectively as aforesaid, shall and may be collected, received, levied, or taken: and whereas the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants have submitted to His Majesty in His Privy Council, the propriety of modifying and reducing the duties payable for the Flatholm Light in the Bristol Channel, in manner following, that is to say:

	Present Toll.	Proposed Toll.
British over sea traders - - }	1d. per ton.	$\frac{3}{4}$ d. per ton.
Coasters and Irish traders - - }	$\frac{1}{2}$ d. per ton.	$\frac{1}{4}$ d. per ton.
Coasters between Land's-end and St. David's Head }	1s. per vessel.	1s. per vessel.
Foreign vessels privileged as British }	1d. per ton.	$\frac{3}{4}$ d. per ton.
Foreign vessels not so privileged - }	2d. per ton.	1 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. per ton.

And whereas His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, hath assented to the said proposal. His Majesty doth, therefore, with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in Him vested by the said Act of Parliament, confirm the proposed tolls or duties, and the same are hereby confirmed accordingly:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 27th day of July 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America, to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Basseterre, in the island of Saint Christopher, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested, in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Basseterre, in the island of Saint Christopher, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

Whitehall, August 11, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between the night of Saturday the 30th July last and the morning of Monday the 1st instant, the shop of Mr. John

Wright, jeweller, in Moseley-street, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, was broken and entered, and a large quantity of plate and jewellery, consisting of gold and silver watches, diamond, pearl, and other rings, and a variety of other articles, were stolen and carried away;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said John Wright, to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, August 15, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Saturday the 4th of June, a fire took place on a farm occupied by Mr. George Neate, situate at Monckton, in the county of Wilts, the property of Lieutenant-General Popham, which consumed barns, sheds, corn, and farming implements, to the value of £1500; and whereas it hath been further represented to the King, that, on the evening of the 1st of August, a fire took place at a field barn, at the same place, and belonging to the same persons, which consumed a barn, sheds, and a considerable quantity of corn and straw, to the value of £100; and in both cases there is every reason to believe the same were wilfully and maliciously set on fire;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the same) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Mr. George Neate, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the offender or offenders concerned in the first-mentioned fire, and ONE HUNDRED POUNDS (with the like exception) for the discovery of any persons concerned in the last-mentioned fire; and a further sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered, in each case, to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to any persons (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the offender or offenders concerned therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MILITIA.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Meeting of the Lieutenancy of the county of Gloucester will be holden at the King's Head Inn, in the city of Gloucester, on Saturday the 27th day of August instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, with a view to the training and exercising, for the space of twenty-eight days, the Royal South Gloucester Light Infantry Regiment of Militia, and also the Royal North Gloucester Regiment of Militia, to be assembled on the days and times, and at the places hereinafter mentioned (that is to say), the Royal North Gloucester Regiment of Militia, at Cirencester, on Wednesday the 7th day of September next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon; and the Royal South Gloucester Light Infantry Regiment of Militia, at the city of Gloucester, on Monday the 12th day of September next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon.

Given under my hand this 11th day of August 1831,
Beaufort, Lord Lieutenant.

East India-House, August 17, 1831.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That the Court will be ready to receive proposals in writing, on Wednesday the 14th of September instant, from the owners of ships, of the burthen of 850 tons and upwards, built for the Company's service, and which have completed the number of voyages for which they were contracted to serve the Company, specifying the rate of freight at which they may be willing to let such ships for one additional voyage to and from China on a reduced establishment.

The tenders, with the words "Ship Tender" on the cover, to be severally sealed up and left with the Secretary, at this House, at or before twelve o'clock at noon on the said Wednesday the 14th day of September next, beyond which hour the Court will not receive any tender.

Peter Auber, Secretary.

The particulars of the terms and conditions upon which the ships will be respectively engaged for the Company's service, may be had on application at the Office of the Clerk to the Committee of Shipping, on or after Monday the 2d instant.

Great George-street, August 17, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that several accounts are about to be exhibited in the Registry of the High Court of Admiralty, shewing the amount of bounty-money received for the under-mentioned slave-vessels, captured by His Majesty's ship Eden, on the Coast of Africa, and the amount granted to the captors out of the proceeds of the said vessels and their stores:
