Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, Queen's-House, St. James's, August 29, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Peeresses who are present at the Coronation of their Majesties, and who purpose attending the Queen's Drawing-room on Monday, September the 12th, are expected to appear in their coronets and coronation robes.

Her Majesty has farther been pleased to rescind the order of August 26, and to direct, that no presentations shall take place on that day.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, August 29, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars at Her Majesty's Drawing-room, on Monday the 12th of September next.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, August 29, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Tuesday the 13th of September next, at two o'clock, instead of Wednesday the 14th.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 10th day of August 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported from any of the British possessions in America by sea, or from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, except into or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table in the said Act of Parliament contained:

And it is thereby provided, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or place not enumerated in the said table, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports, and it is enacted, that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to the ports of Black River, Rio Bueno, and Morant, in the island of Jamaica; His Majesty doth therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the said Act of Parliament, and with the advice of His Privy Council, order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, the provisions of the said Act of Parliament respecting free ports shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to the said ports of Black River, Rio Bueno, and Morant, in the island of Jamaica:

And the Right Honourable the Lord Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 27th day of July 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for further continuing, altering, and amending several Acts for the better regulation of lastage and ballastage in the River Thames, and for enabling the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond to reduce, alter, modify, relinquish, or abolish dues payable to the said Corporation, and for other purposes connected therewith," after reciting that, under the authority and by virtue of the several Acts of Parliament, and grants therein recited, as well as of other Acts of Parliament, and of divers charters, grants, and letters patent of Kings and Queens of this realm, and also by prescriptive right, the Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the time being of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond aforesaid, had collected, taken, levied, and received from, or in respect of, ships and vessels requiring ballast, the several rates and prices specified in the Act of the forty-fifth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, therein mentioned, and certain dues or duties, rates or tolls, of various denominations, from, or in respect of, all British ships or vessels, and from, or in respect of, all foreign ships and vessels, entering or departing from the ports, harbours, or roadsteads of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and that the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Trinity-house of Deptford Strond aforesaid had not, by the terms of the said several Acts of Parliament, charters, grants, and letters patent, or any of them, any power to reduce, modify, alter, relinquish, or abolish any of the rates, prices, dues, duties, and tolls, imposed or granted, collected, taken, levied, and received as aforesaid: and that it was expedient that the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants should be empowered (under the regulations thereinafter contained) to reduce, alter, modify, relinquish, or abolish, and at any time or times thereafter to revive and re-establish, any of the rates, prices, dues, duties, and tolls aforesaid, or any part or parts thereof, from time to time, as to them the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants should seem meet, just, and reasonable; it is thereby enacted, that the Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the time being of the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond aforesaid shall be, and they are thereby authorised and empowered, from time to time, and at any time or times thereafter, upon the requisition or with the consent of His said late Majesty, His heirs and successors, in His or their Most Honourable Privy Council, to reduce, relinquish, abolish, alter, or modify all or any or either of the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls imposed or granted by the said several grants, charters, or Acts of Parliament, or any of them, or collected, taken, levied, and received under the authority thereof respectively, or by ancient usage, custom, or prescription, or any part or parts thereof, so far as may be consistent with the charitable and other uses, purposes, and intents for which the said Corporation has been established and maintained; and that it shall also be lawful for the Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the time being of the said Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, at any time or times after the passing thereof, to revive and re-establish any rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls which may have been relinquished or abolished, or to increase or otherwise alter or modify any rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls which may have been reduced, altered, or modified under the authority of the said Act, and so from time to time to relinquish or abolish and revive or re-establish, and reduce or increase, alter or modify, all or any of such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls as occasion may require; so as nevertheless that no such rates prices, dues, duties, or tolls shall at any time be increased beyond the amount which might be collected, taken, levied, or received by the said Corporation in respect thereof before the passing of the said Act: and it is thereby provided, that no such relinquishment, abolition, reduction, alteration, or modification, or subsequent revival, re-establishment, increase, alteration, or modification of any such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls, or any or either of them, or any part or parts thereof, shall at any time be deemed valid or take effect until the same shall have been submitted by the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants to and shall have been assented to and confirmed by His said late Majesty, His heirs, or successors in His or their Most Honourable Privy Council, and such assent and confirmation shall have been signified in writing unto the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants; and that it shall be lawful for the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants to fix and determine the period (so that the same do not exceed three calendar months from the receipt by them of such assent or confirmation as aforesaid), from and after which all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so relinquished or abolished shall be discontinued and no longer collected, taken, levied, or received, or from and after which all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so received or re-established, reduced, increased, altered, or modified respectively as aforesaid, shall and may be collected, received, levied, or taken: and whereas the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants have submitted to His Majesty in His Privy Council, the propriety of modifying and reducing the duties payable for the Flatholm Light in the Bristol Channel, in manner following, that is to say:

	Present Toll.	Proposed Toll.
British over sea traders - }	1d. per ton.	$\frac{3}{4}$ d. per ton.
Coasters and Irish traders - }	$\frac{1}{2}$ d. per ton.	$\frac{1}{4}$ d. per ton.
Coasters between Land's-end and St. David's Head }	1s. per vessel.	1s. per vessel.
Foreign vessels privileged as British }	1d. per ton.	$\frac{3}{4}$ d. per ton.
Foreign vessels not so privileged - }	2d. per ton.	1 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. per ton.

And whereas His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, hath assented to the said proposal. His Majesty doth, therefore, with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in Him vested by the said Act of Parliament, confirm the proposed tolls or duties, and the same are hereby confirmed accordingly:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 27th day of July 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America, to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Basseterre, in the island of Saint Christopher, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested, in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Basseterre, in the island of Saint Christopher, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 13th day of July 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America, to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Kingstown, in the island of Saint Vincent, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested, in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Kingstown, in the island of Saint Vincent, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 13th day of July 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place, but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order in Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding; and whereas by an Order in Council, made the twenty-eighth of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty, it was ordered by His Majesty in Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the sixteenth of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty, but that the ballot should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said sixteenth of July; and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year, from and after the sixteenth of July in this year; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year, from and after the sixteenth day of July in this year, but that the ballot or enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended, for the space of one year from and after the sixteenth day of July instant.

Whitehall, August 18, 1831.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Charles Frederick Darwall, of Bilston, in the county of Stafford, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Trinity-House, London, August 29, 1831.

BY virtue of an Act of Parliament, passed in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, the Corporation of Trinity-House was empowered, upon the requisition or with the consent of His said late Majesty, or his heirs and successors, in his or their Most Honourable Privy Council, from time to time to reduce, relinquish, abolish, alter, or modify, all or any, or either of the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls, or any part or parts thereof, payable to them, and again to revive or re-establish the same, in manner as in the said Act is more particularly set forth; in pursuance of this authority, the said Corporation has submitted to His Majesty in Council, a proposition for effecting a farther reduction of the tolls payable for the Flatholm Light, in the Bristol Channel; and His Majesty having, at a Court held at St. James's, on the 27th July 1831, been pleased to signify his royal assent to, and confirmation of, the said proposition;

Notice is hereby given, that on and from the 1st day of October next, the tolls for the Flatholm Light, at the reduced rates established in like manner under the authority of an Order in Council, bearing date 10th March 1824, will cease, and the under-mentioned rates, for each time of passing the said light, will be collected in lieu thereof, viz.

British Oversea Traders—three farthings per ton.
Coasters and Irish Traders—one farthing per ton.
Coasters between the Land's End and St. David's Head—one shilling per vessel.
Foreign Vessels, privileged as British—three farthings per ton.
Foreign Vessels, not so privileged—three halfpence per ton.

By command of the Corporation,
J. Herbert, Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, by the Vestrymen of the parish of Saint Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, in the ensuing session; for leave to bring in a bill or bills for altering and amending, or repealing and consolidating, the powers of a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for repealing several Acts, made in the eighth, tenth, thirteenth, and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, for regulating the nightly watch and beadles, and for paving, repairing, cleansing, and lighting the parish of Saint Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, and for the better relief and maintenance of the poor thereof, and for divers other purposes therein mentioned, and for making more effectual provision for those purposes;" and of a certain other Act, passed in the forty-sixth year of the reign of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act for altering and amending an Act, made in the thirty-fifth year of His present Majesty, for watching, paving, cleansing, and lighting the the parish of Saint Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, and for the better relief and maintenance of the poor thereof;" and of a certain other Act, passed in the fifty-first year of the reign of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the Vestrymen of the parish of Saint Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, to build a new parish church, and two or more chapels, and for other purposes relating thereto;" and of a certain other Act, passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act for altering and amending two several Acts, of the thirty-fifth and forty-sixth years of the reign of His present Majesty, for paving and improving the parish of Saint Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex;" and of a certain other Act, passed in the first and second years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to enable the Vestrymen of the parish of Saint Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, to effectuate the building of four district churches in the said parish, and for other purposes relating thereto;" and of a certain other Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for altering, amending, and enlarging the powers of three several Acts, made in the thirty-fifth, forty-sixth, and fifty-third years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for regulating the nightly watch and beadles, and for paving, repairing, cleansing, and lighting the parish of Saint Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, and for the better relief and maintenance of the poor thereof, and for divers other purposes therein mentioned, and for making more effectual provision for those purposes;" or of any or either of them.—Dated this 19th day of August 1831.

James Hugo Greenwell, Vestry Clerk.

DEMERARY AND ESSEQUEBO.

THE undersigned, in capacity as Deputy First Marshal of the United-Colony of Demerary and Essequebo, advertises, by these presents, for the first, second, and third time, that he will, by virtue of certain sentences of the Honourable Court of Civil Justice of said United Colony; expose and sell, at public execution sale, the afternamed plantation, with its cultivation, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances, viz. In the month of February 1832, the coffee plantation Mocha, situated in Canal No. 3, East Bank of the River Demerary, the property of S. W. Gordon.

The judicium of præ. et concurrentiæ on the net proceeds of the above sale will be held by the said Honourable Court of Justice three months after the day of sale, for which reason all those who may pretend to have any right, title, or interest to the net proceeds of said plantation, are herewith, by him the undersigned, Deputy First Marshal of said United Colony, summoned to appear in person, or by their Attorneys, to lay their claims, in due form, before the Honourable Court of Civil Justice of said United Colony of Demerary and Essequebo, at their Ordinary Session, in the month of June 1832, under a penalty that against the non-appearers will be proceeded as the law directs.

The inventory of the above stated plantation is daily to be seen at the Counting-Houses of Messrs. Hall, M'Garel, and Co. No. 7, Austin-Frjars, London, and of P. J. Le Jolle, Esq. Amsterdam.—Demerary and Essequebo, this 2d June 1831.

J. D. HALEY, Deputy First Marshal.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-Street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned, on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.

THE Creditors of William Ward, late of Eccles, near Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Publican, Butcher, Cattle-Dealer, and Car-Proprietor, an Insolvent Debtor, who was discharged from His Majesty's Gaol the Castle of Lancaster, on or about the 11th day of July last, are requested to meet at the Office of Messrs. John Thomson and Son, Solicitors, No. 19, Back King-Street, in Manchester aforesaid, on Wednesday the 21st day of September next, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, for the purpose of choosing an Assignee or Assignees of the said Insolvent's estate and effects.

THE Creditors of John Maunder, of Weston-super-Mare, in the County of Somerset, an Insolvent Debtor, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Insolvent's estate and effects, at the Angel Inn, Redcliff-Street, Bristol, on Thursday the 15th day of September next, at the hour of Twelve o'Clock at Noon of that day, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or equity, or other proceedings (and in particular against certain persons, to be named at such meeting), for the protection, defence, or recovery of the said Insolvent's estate and effects; or adjusting, settling, or entering into any composition or compromise with any debtors to the estate of the said Insolvent; or to their submitting to arbitration any dispute between the said Assignees and any other person or persons, concerning the estate and effects of the said Insolvent; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS the Assignee of the estate and effects of Matthew Grave, formerly of Stepney, afterwards of the Commercial-Road, Whitechapel, and late of No. 2, Ocean-Row, Stepney, all in the County of Middlesex, a Master, on half-pay, of the Royal Navy, and Master Mariner (now deceased), an Insolvent Debtor, lately a prisoner in the King's-Bench Prison, having caused his account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the Creditors of the said Insolvent are requested to meet the Assignee at the Offices of Messrs. Willey and Morris, Solicitors, No. 7, Bank-Chambers, Lothbury, in the City of London, on the 4th day of October next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, when and where the Assignee will declare the amount of the balance in his hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the Creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the Insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the Statute.—If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the Executors or Administrators of the said Insolvent, the said Assignee, or any Creditor, object to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the Statute.
