The London Gazette

Of FRIDAY the 2d of SEPTEMBER.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1831.

Whitehall, September 2, 1831.

IN pursuance of an order of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, the following instructions have been framed, for securing the commodious access and return of carriages conveying persons to and from Westminster-Abbey, on the occasion of their Majesties' Coronation, on the 8th September.

In conformity with these instructions the necessary directions have been given to all His Majesty's officers and servants concerned in carrying them into execution.

The doors of the Abbey will be opened at four o'clock in the morning.

At the same hour all the gates of Hyde-park will be opened for carriages.

The gates of St. James's-park (except Storey's-gate) will be closed against all carriages, but those belonging to their Majesties and the Royal Family, until after the return of their Majesties to St. James's-Palace.

MELBOURNE.

Their Majesties will proceed in state to Westminster-Abbey from St. James's-Palace, along Pall-mall, Cockspur-street, Charing-cross, Whitehall, Parliament-street, New Palace-yard, to the west entrance of Westminster-Abbey.

Their Majesties will arrive at the Abbey at eleven o'clock.

This line of street will be kept exclusively for the free passage of their Majesties, and of the several branches of the Royal Family, from the hour of half past eight until after their Majesties' return to St. James's.

Bars will be placed as follows:

- Surrey side of Westminster-bridge.
- St. James's-street.
- South side of St. James's-square.
- Waterloo-place.
- Haymarket, below Suffolk-place.
- Suffolk-place, west end.
- Strand.
- Scotland-yard-archway.
- Whitehall-place.
- Great George-street.
- South side of the space in front of the Union Club.
- Whitcombe-street.
- Great Chapel-street, Westminster.
- Delahay-street, near Storey's-gate.

ROUTE, No. 1.

Persons who have tickets for the western entrance, will pass down Grosvenor-place, keeping along the western side (taking care to avoid all interference with the Royal carriages coming up the eastern side from the Royal Mews), along Lower Grosvenor-place, Arabella-row, Ward's-row, down James-street, York-street, Broadway, Tothill-street, and will set down at the west entrance of the Abbey; then turn to the left, along Princes-street, through Storey's-gate, into the park, and remain till called for; and will take up in the same manner as they set down.—To be in their places at nine o'clock; and no carriage will be allowed to approach the western entrance after that hour.
