Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, Queen's-House, St. James's, August 29, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Peeresses who are present at the Coronation of their Majesties, and who purpose attending the Queen's Drawing-room on Monday, September the 12th, are expected to appear in their coronets and coronation robes.

Her Majesty has farther been pleased to rescind the order of August 26, and to direct, that no presentations shall take place on that day.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, August 29, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars at Her Majesty's Drawing-room, on Monday the 12th of September next.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, August 29, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Tuesday the 13th of September next, at two o'clock, instead of Wednesday the 14th.

Council-Office, Whitehall, September 5, 1831.

THESE are to give notice, that printed copies of the form and order of the Divine Service to be used at their Majesties' Coronation, have been sent to this Office, and that one copy thereof will be delivered to each Peer, Privy Councillor, and Member of Parliament, who has duly signified to his Grace the Duke of Norfolk, Earl Marshal of England, his intention to be present at the solemnity, on written application being made at this Office in the course of to-morrow and Wednesday next, between the hours of ten o'clock in the morning and four o'clock in the afternoon.

C. C. Greville.

Whitehall, September 2, 1831.

IN pursuance of an order of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, the following instructions have been framed, for securing the commodious access and return of carriages conveying persons to and from Westminster-Abbey, on the occasion of their Majesties' Coronation, on the 8th September.

In conformity with these instructions the necessary directions have been given to all His Majesty's officers and servants concerned in carrying them into execution.

The doors of the Abbey will be opened at four o'clock in the morning.

At the same hour all the gates of Hyde-park will be opened for carriages.

The gates of St. James's-park (except Storey's-gate) will be closed against all carriages, but those belonging to their Majesties and the Royal Family, until after the return of their Majesties to St. James's-Palace.

MELBOURNE.

Their Majesties will proceed in state to Westminster-Abbey from St. James's-Palace, along Pall-mall, Cockspur-street, Charing-cross, Whitehall, Parliament-street, New Palace-yard, to the west entrance of Westminster-Abbey.

Their Majesties will arrive at the Abbey at eleven o'clock.

This line of street will be kept exclusively for the free passage of their Majesties, and of the several branches of the Royal Family, from the hour of half past eight until after their Majesties' return to St. James's.

Bars will be placed as follows :

Surrey side of Westminster-bridge.

St. James's-street.

South side of St. James's-square.

Waterloo-place.

Haymarket, below Suffolk-place,

Suffolk-place, west end.

Strand.

Scotland-yard-archway.

Whitehall-place.

Great George-street.

South side of the space in front of the Union Club.

Whitcombe-street.

Great Chapel-street, Westminster.

Delahay-street, near Storey's-gate.

ROUTE, No. 1.

Persons who have tickets for the western entrance, will pass down Grosvenor-place, keeping along the western side (taking care to avoid all interference with the Royal carriages coming up the eastern side from the Royal Mews), along Lower Grosvenor-place, Arabella-row, Ward's-row, down James-street, York-street, Broadway, Tothill-street, and will set down at the west entrance of the Abbey ; then turn to the left, along Princes-street, through Storey's-gate, into the park, and remain till called for ; and will take up in the same manner as they set down.—To be in their places at nine o'clock ; and no carriage will be allowed to approach the western entrance after that hour.

ROUTE, No. 2.

Persons who have tickets to enter at Poets' Corner will proceed along Knightsbridge, and then through Wilton-street, the north-east side of Wilton-crescent, the east side of Belgrave-square, down Belgrave street, upper and lower, into Belgrave-place, round Shaftesbury-terrace, into the Vauxhall-road ; turn to the left by the east side of Vincent-square, into Marsham-street, Bowling-street, College-street, Abingdon street, and set down at Poets' Corner ; turn to the right, and return by Abingdon-street, Millbank-road, along the Vauxhall-road, to the east side of Vincent-square, and take up as they set down. This entrance to be closed at nine o'clock, and to be opened for the admission of the Members of the House of Commons only after that hour ; and after they are admitted to be again closed until the Ceremony is over.

ROUTE, No. 3.

Persons who have tickets for the north entrance will fall into line at the top of the Haymarket, along Cockspur-street, Whitehall, King-street, to the north door of the Abbey, setting down with the horses heads towards Westminster-bridge ; draw off by Bridge-street and Westminster-bridge ; and wait in the Kent-road, near the Female Asylum, until after the King shall have returned ; then take up in the contrary way to that in which they set down. This route will be closed at half-past eight o'clock.

ROUTE, No. 4.

For the Members of the House of Commons exclusively.

To pass down the Eastern side of the Haymarket, so as not to interfere with the general line of carriages, to the bar at Suffolk-place, through which their carriages will be admitted, on producing the Speaker's Ticket ; and keep on the left side of the street, setting down at the great door of Westminster hall, and draw off over Westminster-bridge to the Asylum.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 10th day of August 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions

"abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported from any of the British possessions in America by sea, or from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, except into or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table in the said Act of Parliament contained:

And it is thereby provided, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or place not enumerated in the said table, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports, and it is enacted, that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to the ports of Black River, Rio Bueno, and Morant, in the island of Jamaica; His Majesty doth therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the said Act of Parliament, and with the advice of His Privy Council, order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, the provisions of the said Act of Parliament respecting free ports shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to the said ports of Black River, Rio Bueno, and Morant, in the island of Jamaica:

And the Right Honourable the Lord Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 27th day of July 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for further continuing, altering, and amending several Acts for the better regulation of lastage and ballastage in the River Thames, "and for enabling the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond to reduce, alter, modify, relinquish, or abolish dues payable to the said Corporation, and for other purposes connected therewith," after reciting that, under the authority and by virtue of the several Acts of Parliament, and grants therein recited, as well as of other Acts of Parliament, and of divers charters, grants, and letters patent of Kings and Queens of this realm, and also by prescriptive right, the Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the time being of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond aforesaid, had collected, taken, levied, and received from, or in respect of, ships and vessels requiring ballast, the several rates and prices specified in the Act of the forty-fifth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, therein mentioned, and certain dues or duties, rates or tolls, of various denominations, from, or in respect of, all British ships or vessels, and from, or in respect of, all foreign ships and vessels, entering or departing from the ports, harbours, or roadsteads of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and that the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Trinity-house of Deptford Strond aforesaid had not, by the terms of the said several Acts of Parliament, charters, grants, and letters patent, or any of them, any power to reduce, modify, alter, relinquish, or abolish any of the rates, prices, dues, duties, and tolls, imposed or granted, collected, taken, levied, and received as aforesaid: and that it was expedient that the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants should be empowered (under the regulations thereafter contained) to reduce, alter, modify, relinquish, or abolish, and at any time or times thereafter to revive and re-establish, any of the rates, prices, dues, duties, and tolls aforesaid, or any part or parts thereof, from time to time, as to them the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants should seem meet, just, and reasonable; it is thereby enacted, that the Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the time being of the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond aforesaid shall be, and they are thereby authorised and empowered, from time to time, and at any time or times thereafter, upon the requisition or with the consent of His said late Majesty, His heirs and successors, in His or their Most Honourable Privy Council, to reduce, relinquish, abolish, alter, or modify all or any or either of the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls imposed or granted by the said several grants, charters, or Acts of Parliament, or any of them, or collected, taken, levied, and received under the authority thereof respectively, or by ancient usage, custom, or prescription, or any part or parts thereof, so far as may be consistent with the charitable and other uses, purposes, and intents for which the said Corporation has been established and maintained; and that it shall also be lawful for the Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the time being of the said Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, at any time or times after the passing thereof, to revive and re-establish any rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls which may have been relinquished or abolished, or to increase or otherwise alter or modify any rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls which may have been reduced, altered, or modified under the authority of the said Act, and so from time to time to relinquish or abolish and revive or re-establish, and reduce or increase, alter or modify, all or any of such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls as occasion may require; so as nevertheless that no such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls shall at any time be increased beyond the amount which might be collected, taken, levied, or received by the said Corporation in respect thereof before the passing of the said Act: and it is thereby provided, that no such relinquishment, abolition, reduction, alteration, or modification, or subsequent revival, re-establishment, increase, alteration, or modification of any such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls, or any or either of them, or any part or parts thereof, shall at any time be deemed valid or take effect until the same shall have been submitted by the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants to and shall have been assented to and confirmed by His said late Majesty, His heirs, or successors in His or their Most Honourable Privy Council, and such assent and confirmation shall have been signified in writing unto the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants; and that it shall be lawful for the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants to fix and determine the period (so that the same do not exceed three calendar months from the receipt by them of such assent or confirmation as aforesaid), from and after which all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so relinquished or abolished shall be discontinued and no longer collected, taken, levied, or received, or from and after which all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so received or re-established, reduced, increased, altered, or modified respectively as aforesaid, shall and may be collected, received, levied, or taken: and whereas the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants have submitted to His Majesty in His Privy Council, the propriety of modifying and reducing the duties payable for the Flatholm Light in the Bristol Channel, in manner following, that is to say:

	Present Toll.	Proposed Toll.
British over sea traders - - }	1d. per ton.	$\frac{3}{4}$ d. per ton.
Coasters and Irish traders - - }	$\frac{1}{2}$ d. per ton.	$\frac{1}{4}$ d. per ton.
Coasters between Land's-end and St. David's Head }	1s. per vessel.	1s. per vessel.
Foreign vessels privileged as British }	1d. per ton.	$\frac{3}{4}$ d. per ton.
Foreign vessels not so privileged - }	2d. per ton.	$1\frac{1}{2}$ d. per ton.

And whereas His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, hath assented to the said proposal. His Majesty doth, therefore, with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in Him vested by the said Act of Parliament, confirm the proposed tolls or duties, and the same are hereby confirmed accordingly:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 27th day of July 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America, to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Basseterre, in the island of Saint Christopher, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested, in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Basseterre, in the island of Saint Christopher, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 13th day of July 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America, to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Kingstown, in the island of Saint Vincent, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested, in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Kingstown, in the island of Saint Vincent, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 13th day of July 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place, but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order in Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding; and whereas by an Order in Council, made the twenty-eighth of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty, it was ordered by His Majesty in Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the sixteenth of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty, but that the ballot should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said sixteenth of July; and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year, from and after the sixteenth of July in this year; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year, from and after the sixteenth day of July in this year, but that the ballot or enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended, for the space of one year from and after the sixteenth day of July instant.

C. C. Greville.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS We did, by Our Royal Proclamation of the twenty-third day of April last, establish and declare a scale of rates at which freight should be payable for public and private treasure conveyed on board any of Our ships and vessels, We have, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, thought fit further to ordain, declare, and command, and We do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that, from and after the first day of September next, the freight for conveying gold and silver in any of Our packets between any two ports, the navigable distance between which shall exceed six hundred leagues, shall be fixed at the rate of one per cent. both for gold and silver: and We do hereby establish and declare, that the responsibility of the officer in charge of such treasure shall commence when it shall be safe alongside the said packet, and shall cease the moment that it shall be landed at the port of destination:

And it is further declared, that in all other respects the said Proclamation of the twenty-third day of April last, and the rules and regulations thereby established, shall continue in full force.
